Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106 25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Florida Association of Mortgage Professionals Red PAC was a committee of continuous existence (CCE) registered with the State of Florida. The CCE's chair was Denise Santa Maria and its treasurer was Melissa Grosvenor.

The PC is appealing the fine claiming that the changeover from CCEs to PACs caused them to untimely file the 2013 Q3 Report. According to Ms. Grosvenor, "with the implementation of the changeover from CCEs to PACs, I was under the impression that the filing of the documents I sent to the Department of State in July of 2013 was sufficient regarding satisfying the requirements for the reporting. In all candor, I experienced difficulty with the task and found myself very confused. Fortunately, the staff members of the Department of State walked me through the filing of the forms to convert our CCEs to PACs and upon the filing of that paperwork, I thought I was done with the task."

- The 2013 Q3 Report covers the time period from 7/1/13 through 9/30/13.
- The CCE reported receiving 0 contributions, while making 1 expenditure.
- The 2013 Q3 Queued Transactions Report reflects that this report was created on 10/21/13 at approximately 1:19 p.m., reviewed once, before being filed on 10/21/13 at approximately 1:25 p.m.
- DOE notes reflect that Appellant contacted DOE on 10/18/13 at approximately 4:56 p.m. inquiring about "how to report transfer of funds to new PC-had received FF letter on this account"

Case No.: FEC 13-292; Campaign Treasurer's Report due 10/10/13 (2013 Q3)

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is written regarding the Letter of Appeal acknowledgement sent to us on November 15, 2013

The Letter of Appeal mentions that we are able to provide credible evidence that the report was timely filed or credible evidence that unusual or other circumstances caused the report to be filed late. With that said, I want to take this opportunity to summarize the history behind the late filing of our 2013 Q3 reports (referenced above) that were due on October 10, 2013.

Unfortunately, with the implementation of the changeover from CCEs to PACs, I was under the impression that the filing of the documents I sent to the Department of State in July of 2013 was sufficient regarding satisfying the requirements for the reporting. In all candor, I experienced difficulty with the task and found myself very confused. Fortunately, the staff members of the Department of State walked me through the filing of the forms to convert our CCEs to PACs and upon the filing of that paperwork, I thought I was done with the task. If you review our filings, you will find that we have a record of timely filing of reports. This error is not just an anomaly for us, but a personal embarrassment to me.

I would sincerely appreciate any consideration you are able to extend regarding this matter. I look forward to the opportunity to speak with you and further explain the trail of events in person at the hearing we have requested.

Respectfully,

Melissa Grosvenor, Treasurer

Re: CCE 38186

Dear Ms. Grosvenor:

Your campaign treasurer's report, due October 10, 2013, has not been received.

Section 106 04(8)(b), Florida Statutes, requires that the filing officer immediately notify you of the failure to file a report

The first notice of the failure to file the above mentioned report was mailed, via regular mail, to the address on file with our office on October 14, 2013. As of this date, we do not show a record of receiving this report.

If the report is not filed via the Division's electronic filing system within 14 days of receipt of this notice, this matter will be referred to the Florida Elections Commission for further action. Section 106.265(1), Florida Statutes, authorizes the Florida Elections Commission, upon finding a willful violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, to impose a civil penalty of up to $1,000 per count.

Re: CCE 38186

Dear Ms. Grosvenor:

Your campaign treasurer's report, which was due October 10, 2013, has not been received.

Section 106.04(9)(b), Florida Statutes, requires that the filing officer immediately notify you of the failure to file this report and that a fine will be assessed of $50 per day for the first 3 days a report is late and, thereafter $500 per day, although a fine cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Once your report is filed, this office will notify you of the specific amount of your fine. Fines must be paid to the filing officer within 20 days of receipt of the payment due notice.

Please be advised, however, that failure to file a campaign treasurer's report may constitute a violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, independent of the automatic fine violation referenced above. Therefore, if you fail to file a report, the division will turn the matter over to the Florida Elections Commission.

Section 106.265(1), Florida Statutes, authorizes the Florida Elections Commission to impose a civil penalty up to $1,000 per count for each willful violation of Chapter 106.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,
