NOTICE OF HEARING (AUTOMATIC FINE)

A hearing will be held in this case before the Florida Elections Commission on, May 18, 2016 at 8:30 am, or as soon thereafter as the parties can be heard, at the following location: Senate Office Building, 404 South Monroe Street, Room 110-S, Tallahassee, Florida 32399

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission on this date. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

See further instructions on the reverse side.

Amy McKeever Toman
Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
May 3, 2016

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Northeast Florida Committee for Principled Government, Inc is a electioneering communications organization (ECO) registered with the State of Florida. The ECO's chair is Ms Jean Randall and its treasurer is Mr. John L. Daigle Jr.

The ECO is appealing the fine claiming that unusual circumstances caused the 2015 M12 Report to be untimely filed. According to Ms. Randall, "We were eight days late with our December 2015 report. This delay was caused by some confusion on our end related to funds inadvertently left in the account since last spring. We have not collected any funds, and have been filing waivers since last spring. We expected to be doing the same in January. However, we discovered late that in December $8,300 in funds left in the account from last spring were expended to balance the books before end of the year. Collecting the correct information on that unexpected expense caused an untimely delay for those filing our financial report. We filed the report as soon as we had the correct information about the year-end expenses. I would ask you to consider this unusual circumstance, the innocent nature of the mistake on our end, and the fact that this organization and its bank account has been essentially inactive since Spring 2015"

- The 2015 M12 Report covers the time period from 12/1/15 through 12/31/15
- The ECO reported receiving 0 contributions, while making 1 expenditure during this reporting period.
- The 2015 M12 Queued-Transactions Report reflects that this report was created on 12/17/15 at approximately 10:56 am, before being filed on 1/19/16 at approximately 10:25 am
- On 2/26/16, FEC staff made contact with the ECO's chair to ensure that the chair was aware of this appeal for an automatic fine.

PRIOR CASES: This ECO has been involved in 1 prior automatic fine appeal before this Commission FEC 12-195; found NUC for an alleged violation of 106.07(8)(b)/fined $1,000.00/fine paid on 4/4/13

RE: Appeal of Fine (ECO 54815) Case no. FEC 16-046

Florida Elections Commission:

Thank you for considering this appeal of the automatically assessed late fine of $2,075 that was levied against The Northeast Florida Committee for Principled Government.

We were eight days late with our December 2015 report. This delay was caused by some confusion on our end related to funds inadvertently left in the account since last spring. We have not collected any funds, and have been filing waivers since last spring. We expected to be doing the same in January. However, we discovered late that in December $8,300 in funds left in the account from last spring were expended to balance the books before end of the year. Collecting the correct information on that unexpected expense caused an unusual delay for those filing our financial report. We filed the report as soon as we had the correct information about the year-end expenses.

I would ask you to consider this unusual circumstance, the innocent nature of the mistake on our end, and the fact that this organization and its bank account has been essentially inactive since Spring 2015.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Jean Randall

RE: Appeal of Fine (ECO 54815)

Florida Elections Commission:

Thank you for considering this appeal of the automatically assessed late fine of $2,075 that was levied against The Northeast Florida Committee for Principled Government.

We were eight days late with our December 2015 report. This was caused by some confusion on our end related to funds left in the account from last spring. We have not collected any funds, and have been filing waivers since last spring. I thought we would be doing the same in January. However, I discovered late that in December $8,300 in funds left in the account from last spring were expended to balance the books before end of the year. Collecting the correct information on that unexpected expense caused an unusual delay for me. I filed the report as soon as I had the correct information about the year-end expenses.

I would ask you to consider this unusual circumstance and the fact that this organization and its bank account has been, and continues to be, essentially inactive since Spring 2015.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Dear Mr. Daigle:

The campaign treasurer's report that was due on January 11, 2016, was filed on January 19, 2016. By law, you are automatically assessed a late fine of $2,075.00.

You have 20 days from the receipt of this notice to either:

- 1 Pay the fine to the Florida Division of Elections (For a candidate only, a fine is not an allowable campaign expenditure and must be paid from personal funds) at:

*Florida Division of Elections
R.A. Gray Building, Room 316
500 South Bronough Street
Tallahassee, Florida 32399-025011*

- 2 Appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission (See Rules 2B-1.005 and 2B-1.0055, Florida Administrative Code) at:

*Florida Elections Commission
107 West Gaines Street, Ste 224
Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0150*

If you appeal, please send a copy also to the Florida Division of Elections so that you will not receive further notices from the Division about this matter.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief

ECO 54815

Dear Mr Daigle:

Our records indicate that you have not filed your campaign treasurer's report that was due on January 11, 2016. Electioneering communication organizations (ECOs) are required to file a report even when the ECO has not received funds, made any contributions, or expended any reportable funds

The law (s 106.0703(7)(a), Fla Stat) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report

If you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:

- $50 for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
- If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat, apart from the automatic fines set forth above

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION
PHONE LOG
Case No.: FEC 16-046

Respondent: Northeast Florida Committee for Principled Government, Inc

Complainant: Division of Elections

1. Date and time: February 25, 2016 @ 9:30 am

Name: Jean Randall—Chair

Phone #: (904) 880-9595

Summary: I attempted telephone contact to make initial contact and to see if the chair was aware of automatic fine appeal. I spoke with Mr. John Daigle Jr. who kept emphasizing that he is the party that's responsible for filing the reports and that Ms. Randall doesn't have anything to do with the ECO. I explained that I would need to speak with her. Mr. Daigle stated that she would not be aware of the day-to-day activities of the ECO. He stated that he had been sending in letters to the FEC explaining that he is now the chair of this ECO. I explained that he would need to forward any change of officer requests to the DOE, not the FEC. I reiterated that I would need to speak with the chair. Mr. Daigle Jr. explained that he would have Ms. Randall give me a call. I thanked him for his assistance with this matter.

Name: Jean Randall—Chair

Phone #: (904) 880-9524

Summary: I had telephone contact in regards to message left for Dr. Randall to return my call. Mr. Daigle Jr. informed me that he would be calling Dr. Randall on 3way to have her interviewed by me, due to her currently residing with his father as her caregiver, due to her being 94 years old. He then proceeded to contact Dr. Randall for me to inquire if she was aware of the automatic fine appeal. Ms. Randall verified that she was aware of this appeal. I also gave them information on how to contact the DOE to have them assist them in getting the chairperson changed. They thanked me for my assistance with this matter.
