In Re: Alex Deghani

Case No.: FEC 16-682

---

TO: Alex Deghani
6920 Bamboo Street
Miami Lakes, FL 33014

Town of Miami Lakes Clerk's Office
Gina Inguanzo
6601 Main Street, Ste. 206
Miami Lakes, FL 33014

NOTICE OF HEARING (AUTOMATIC FINE)

A hearing will be held in this case before the Florida Elections Commission on, May 17, 2017 at 8:30 am, or as soon thereafter as the parties can be heard, at the following location: Augustus B. Turnbull Conference Center, 555 West Pensacola Street, Room 214, Tallahassee, Florida 32301

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission on this date. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

See further instructions on the reverse side.

Amy McKeever Toman
Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
May 1, 2017

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Alex Dehghani was a candidate for Miami Lakes Council Seat 1 in the 2016 elections. He appointed himself as his own treasurer.

Mr. Dehghani is appealing the fine claiming that unusual circumstances existed that caused the 2016 G2 Report to be untimely filed. According to Mr. Dehghani, "I respectfully submit that the basis of my appeal involved the birth of my first child. My wife gave birth to our first child on September 27, 2016 and that birth was not without complication. I have taken the liberty of also enclosing a copy of my sons's birth certificate for your review. Issues began the week before and ended with a rush to the hospital under doctor's orders. As a precaution, the hospital was to continue monitoring our child and would not release us or our baby until at least forty-eight (48) hours had elapsed from that day our baby was born. Although not an excuse, such a circumstance which indeed touched on the week where my filing was due, was not typical".

- The 2016 G2 Report covers the time period from 9/1/16 through 9/16/16.
- Mr. Dehghani also included a copy of his child's birth certificate with his appeal.

Re: Notice of Appeal : Automatic Fine

Dear Committee,

I trust this finds all of you and yours well. Please accept this correspondence as a formal appeal of the automatic fine assessed against me by virtue of Florida Statute 106.07(8)(a)(b). Pursuant to such statute, I was obliged to file 2016-G2 covering the period from September 1st through September 16th of 2016 respectively. Such filing was due no later than September 23, 2016. I subsequently filed fourteen (14) days after the requisite due date on October 7, 2016. As such, I have been assessed an automatic fine of $97.00.

Under the same statute, I am permitted to appeal the automatic fine against me within twenty (20) days of being notified of the fine, based on unusual circumstances surrounding my failure to timely file 2016-G2. Enclosed please find a copy of correspondence dated October 19, 2016 from the Town Clerk of Miami Lakes conveying the requisite notice of the assessed automatic fine. I respectfully submit that the basis of my appeal involves the birth of my first child. My wife gave birth to our first child on September 27, 2016 and that birth was not without complication. I have taken the liberty of also enclosing a copy of my son's birth certificate for your review. Issues began the week before and ended with a rush to the hospital under doctor's orders. As a precaution, the hospital was to continue monitoring our child and would not release us or our baby until at least forty-eight (48) hours had elapsed from the day our baby was born. Although not an excuse, such a circumstance which indeed touched on the week where my filing was due, was not typical. Although this was a scary week to be sure, I'm happy to announce that all is well now. It is also important to note that my campaign treasurer is my father – who was also personally involved in the turmoil of the week at issue.

In sum, given the unusual nature of the facts and circumstances which surrounded the filing date which triggered my automatic fine, I respectfully request that this Honorable Commission reconsider my automatic fine and exercise its right to waive it. I sincerely appreciate your time and consideration in this regard and ask that should any questions or comments exist, please don't hesitate to contact me at your leisure. Thank you.

Very Truly Yours,

Alex Dehghani
Candidate, Seat #1

Good afternoon Mr. Dehghani,

I hope you are doing well.

Your 2016-G2, covering the period from September 1st through September 16th 2016, which was electronically filed on October 7th, was due on September 23rd, 2016 and is therefore deemed to be fourteen (14) days late.

Per Florida Statute 106.07(8)(a)(b) for the reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. Thus, you are hereby assessed a fine of $ 97.00. Said fine shall not be an allowable campaign expenditure and shall be paid only from personal funds of the candidate. Said fine must be paid to this office with a check payable to the City of Miami Lakes, within 20 days after receipt of this notice.

The Florida Elections Commission has the authority to waive this fine in whole or in part for this to occur you must, within 20 days after receipt this notice of payment due, request an appeal or dispute of a possible hearing before the Florida Elections Commission.

You are entitled to appeal or dispute the fine, based upon, but not limited to, unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date In doing so you must send notice to the Florida Elections Commission specifying the unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date This notice may be accompanied by any evidence supporting the claim.

In closing, if you have any questions regarding this notice please do not hesitate to call me at (305) 364-6100.

Thank you,

Gina M. Inguanzo

Good afternoon Mr. Dehghani,

I hope this email finds you well.

Please be advised that your 2016-G2 report is past due. A fine will be assessed per Florida Statute 106.07, which sites the following:

Upon determining that a report is late, the filing officer shall immediately notify the candidate or chair of the political committee as to the failure to file a report by the designated due date and that a fine is being assessed for each late day. The fine is $50 per day for the first 3 days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding each special primary election, special election, primary election, and general election, the fine is $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. For reports required under s. 106.141(8), the fine is $50 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. Upon receipt of the report, the filing officer shall determine the amount of the fine which is due and shall notify the candidate or chair or registered agent of the political committee. The filing officer shall determine the amount of the fine due based upon the earliest of the following:

1. When the report is actually received by such officer.
2. When the report is postmarked.
3. When the certificate of mailing is dated.
4. When the receipt from an established courier company is dated.
5. When the electronic receipt issued pursuant to s. 106.0705 or other electronic filing system authorized in this section is dated.

Such fine shall be paid to the filing officer within 20 days after receipt of the notice of payment due, unless appeal is made to the Florida Elections Commission pursuant to paragraph (c). Notice is deemed complete upon proof of delivery of written notice to the mailing or street address on record with the filing officer. In the case of a candidate, such fine is not an allowable campaign expenditure and shall be paid only from personal funds of the candidate. An officer or member of a political committee is not personally liable for such fine.

I have also attached the provision included in Chapter 16 of Filing Campaign Reports of the Candidate & Campaign Treasurer Handbook from the Florida Division of Elections.

Please contact me immediately.

Thank you.

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION
PHONE LOG
Case No.: FEC 16-682

Respondent: Alex Dehghani

Complainant: Town of Miami Lakes

1. Date and time: February 8, 2017 @ 10:42 am

Name: Gina Inguanzo—Town Clerk

Phone #: (305) 364-6100

Summary: I had telephone contact to inquire about another matter but questioned Ms. Inguanzo regarding Respondent. Ms. Inguanzo advised me that Respondent doesn't have any real political experience. She also advised me that Respondent had recently had a child during the 2016 G2 reporting period which she believed played a part in the untimely filing of the 2016 G2 Report.

Memo to File? No
