Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Myra Van Hoose is a candidate for Escambia County Commissioner, District 4, in the 2022 elections. Ms. Van Hoose is her own treasurer.

Myra Van Hoose is appealing the fine and claims that she “had a power outage and the report did not go through.” According to Ms. Van Hoose, she typically files at the deadline and thought the report was complete. She notes that “the input screen indicated with bold letters across the top of the screen that the report was due within 24 hours when I did file at 7 am on Saturday.” She also mentions that the report incorrectly states it was filed closer to 10:00 a.m. Ms. Van Hoose notes that she did not have a primary opponent and that “no harm was done or could have been done by a late filing.” She states that a $500 fine could cause financial hardship.

- The 2022 P7 Original Report covers the period from 08/06/22-08/18/22; it was due on 08/19/22.
- The 2022 P7 Report shows that it was filed on 08/20/22 at approximately 9:58 a.m.

Dear Sirs/Madames:

Regarding Myra Van Hoose, Escambia Candidate for County Commissioner District 4
2860 Inverness Ct, Pensacola, FL 32503
850.374.0408

I am requesting a waiver for the fine of $500 imposed upon me due to a potentially late file as referenced in the attached letter.

I make my request based upon several factors:

I have typically filed my reports at deadline and thought I had completed this one as well, however, we believe we had a power outage and the report did not go through.

The report in question was required to be filed on a Friday night by midnight, however the input screen indicated with bold letters across the top of the screen that the report was due within 24 hours when I did file at 7 am on Saturday. Unfortunately, I cannot risk filing late to access this screen again, but perhaps your tech support can.

My report indicates that the time filed was close to 10:00 am and I believe that to be in error.

No office was open to report the details of my report between midnight Friday and 7 am Saturday to make the details of said report public any sooner.

I did not have a primary opponent therefore no candidate was relying on my information to make campaign choices, nor would the public voters be affected in my primary race, again as there was no primary opponent.

My report was approximately only ten percent of my total revenues to date, yet it reflected almost 30% of expenditures, with a net loss for the period reported, therefore would have clearly posed no income stream threat to a candidate if I indeed had a primary opponent.

In summary, I hope you can agree that no harm was done or could have been done by a filing late, only by overnight. In contrast, $500 at this point in my campaign, albeit out of my own pocket could incur a financial hardship for me, thus skewing the outcome of a general election.

I thank the local supervisor of elections office for calling me Saturday morning! And I will be diligent in ensuring future reports are submitted properly.

Thank you for your consideration,

Myra J. Van Hoose

Dear Ms. Van Hoose:

Your P7 Campaign Report for the August 06, 2022, to August 18, 2022, reporting period was not submitted on time. The report was due on August 19, 2022.

Pursuant to Section 106.07(8)(b) of the Florida Statutes, the penalty for late reporting is $50 per day for the first three days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding each primary and general election the fine is $500.00 per day for each day late. This fine must be paid from your personal funds, not your campaign account funds. If you choose to pay by check, make the payment payable to: Escambia County General Fund.

Your P7 Report was received by our office on August 20, 2022; therefore, your fine is $500.00. This fine must be paid within twenty days from receipt of this letter. If you wish to appeal or dispute this fine, you must contact the Florida Elections Commission.

Please be advised, however, that a willful failure to pay a campaign fine for submitting a late report constitutes a violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, independent of the automatic fine violation referenced above. Therefore, if you fail to pay the fine, such failure will be considered a willful violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and we will be required to notify the Florida Elections Commission of your failure to file.

Please don't hesitate to contact our office if you have any questions at (850)595-3900.

Sincerely,

David Stafford, CERA
