INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING

Please be advised that other cases have been scheduled for the same time. Therefore, your case may not be called exactly at the time set forth on this notice. Please note that this matter may not be addressed individually and it may be voted on en masse by the Commission.

At the probable cause hearing, the Florida Elections Commission will decide whether there is probable cause to believe that Respondent has violated one or more provisions of The Florida Election Code.

Respondent, each Complainant, and their counsel are permitted to attend the probable cause hearing.

The hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes; Chapter 28, Florida Administrative Code, the Uniform Rules of Procedures; and Commission Rule 1.0027, Florida Administrative Code.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent, at his or her own expense, may provide a certified court reporter also to record the hearing.

Before making a decision on probable cause, the Commission will review the complaint, the Report of Investigation, the Staff Recommendation, any written responses submitted by Respondent, all relevant documents, and any oral statements made by Respondent and staff at the probable cause hearing.

When your case is called, the Chair will read a brief statement and may ask Respondent, Complainant, and their attorneys, if an attorney is present, to state their names for the record.

Staff will then have time to summarize the case and make a recommendation to the Commission on probable cause. After staff's presentation, if the Respondent is present he or she will have time to make a statement to the Commission in the nature of an oral argument.

Pursuant to Section 106.25(4), Florida Statutes, Respondent's statement should explain how the staff erred in applying the law to the facts enumerated in the Staff Recommendation. Respondent may not testify or call others to testify or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing.

At the probable cause hearing, the Commission is not deciding whether Respondent has violated a provision of The Florida Election Code or the amount of the fine. The Commission is only deciding whether Respondent should be charged with violating a provision of the election code. Before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for a second hearing, where Respondent may testify, call others to testify on his or her behalf, and introduce documentary or other evidence that shows Respondent did not commit the violations charged.

After the presentations are concluded, the Commissioners will discuss the case and may ask questions of Respondent and staff. The Commission's decision on probable cause will be made by a majority vote of those members present and voting.

After the Commission decides whether there is or is not probable cause to believe that Respondent violated a provision of the election code, the case will become public. In some cases, the Commission may not make a decision, such as when further investigation is ordered. If the Commission does not make a decision on probable cause, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

After the Commission meeting, the Commission will send Respondent and Complainant a written order reflecting the Commission's decision on probable cause. If the Commission finds no probable cause, the case will be dismissed. If the Commission finds probable cause, Respondent will receive instructions on how to either settlement the matter or select a hearing before the Commission or the Division of Administrative Hearings. These hearings will determine whether a violation has occurred and whether a fine should be imposed.

If Respondent has not received the Staff Recommendation or if you have any questions about the procedures for the probable cause hearing, please contact Donna Malphurs at (850) 922-4539.

STATE OF FLORIDA
ELECTIONS COMMISSION

Dear Commission Members,

As the current candidate for United States Senate and former candidate for Florida Candidate, I send you this letter to inform you about the corruption at the Division of Election and to ask you to dismiss this case and find no probable cause, because I don't violate the laws. This is a plot organized by the Division employees to file a complaint against me. Therefore, my problem with the Florida Division of Elections started after I open the PACs starting by the name Billionaire Josue Larose.

After opening these PACs, I was starting to receive different phone calls from the employees of the Division of Elections requesting the monetary gifts from me as a Billionaire in Florida. They told me that the salary they receive from their job are not enough to take care their bills, they want me to give them $10,000 as a confidential gift.

Besides, I was refused to bribe the employees of the Division of Elections, because I don't want to participate in any public corruption.

One employee called me and told me if I refuse to give him $10,000 as a confidential gift, the Division of Elections will take a legal action against me by filing a complaint at the Florida Election Commission.

One month later, I receive a phone call from the following phone number (850) 245-6249 from Mr. Randal telling me that I can use my salary from the PACs to file the reports and give back the money to the PAC as a contribution, because the PACs don't raise money to pay me

Response regarding the Probable Cause Hearing from Josue Larose

This employee from the Division of Elections called me to give me the bad information, just to make me file the reports with the monetary contributions and then to find the way to file a complaint at the Florida Election Commission later. I was believed in his advices when he told me that I can get paid a salary from the PACs even they don't raise any money, then use the salary as a contribution to the PACs in the reports.

I want to tell you if I file the reports of the PACs with the Monetary contributions, it is because I was followed the advices of Mr. Randal, an employee at the Florida Division of Elections.

Then if I have a complaint filed at the Florida Election Commission against me, it is because I was refused to bribe some employees at the Division of Elections. They want to put me in trouble with the FEC.

Furthermore, I want to tell you that I am already closed all the PACs in question and some of them are revoked by the Division of Election for failing to receive a contribution of $500 for the year.

At this moment, I don't have no active PACs in the state of Florida.

In Re: Josue Larose

Case No.: FEC 10-368

STAFF RECOMMENDATION FOLLOWING INVESTIGATION

Pursuant to section 106.25(4)(c), Florida Statutes, undersigned staff counsel files this written recommendation for disposition of the complaint in this case recommending that there is probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Sections 106.07(5) and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes and no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.05, Florida Statutes. Based upon a thorough review of the Report of Investigation submitted on June 24, 2011, the following facts and law support this staff recommendation:

1. On December 3, 2010, the Florida Elections Commission (“Commission”) received information and a referral from the Division of Elections (“Division”), alleging that Josue Larose (“Respondent”) violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.¹

2. Respondent was a candidate for Governor in the 2010 elections. Respondent has been a candidate for public office on three other occasions. Respondent is currently a candidate for a seat in the United States Senate (2012 election cycle).

3. In addition to running for public office, Respondent is the chairman and treasurer of 339² political committees, 100 electioneering communications organizations, and 40 political parties.

4. By letter dated January 7, 2011, the Executive Director notified Respondent that staff would investigate the alleged violations of the following statutory provisions:

Section 106.05, Florida Statutes, failure of the treasurer of a political committee to deposit in a campaign depository all funds received by the treasurer within five business days of receipt;

Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a candidate from certifying to the correctness of a campaign treasurer's report that is incorrect, false, or incomplete;

¹ The information in the referral related only to state-wide political committees.

Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a political committee chairman from certifying to the correctness of a campaign treasurer's report that is incorrect, false, or incomplete; and

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a person or organization from falsely reporting or deliberately failing to report information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes..

5. On January 14, 2009, and February 11, 2009, Respondent filed Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for Political Committees forms (“DS-DE 6”) with the Division, forming 100 political committees.³ The first word of each of the committees is “Florida” (“Florida Committees”). This case involves Respondent’s Florida Committees’ 2009 Q2 report, 2009 Q4 report, 2010 F1 report, 2010 G1 report, and 2010 G2 report. (ROI Exhibit 1)⁴

6. According to the DS-DE 6 forms filed with the Division, Respondent appointed himself as chair and treasurer for the 100 Florida Committees, and designated TD Bank as the campaign depository for each Florida Committee.

7. On January 11, 2010, and February 2, 2010, Respondent filed 131 DE-DE 6 forms with the Division, forming another 131 political committees.⁵ The first word of each of the committees was “American.” (“American Committees”)⁶ This case involves Respondent’s American Committees’ 2010 F1, 2010 G1, and 2010 G2 reports. (ROI Exhibit 2)

8. According to the DS-DE 6 forms filed with the Division for the American Committees, Respondent appointed himself chair and treasurer, and designated AmTrust Bank as the campaign depository.

9. On May 4, 2010, Respondent filed 100 additional DS-DE 6 forms with the Division, forming 100 political committees. The first word of each of the committees was “Billionaire Josue Larose” (“Billionaire Committees”).⁷ This case involves Respondent’s Billionaire Committees’ 2010 F1, 2010 F3, 2010 G1 and 2010 G2 reports. (ROI Exhibit 3)

⁴ The Report of Investigation is referred to herein as “ROI.”

⁵ Examples of these committees are: “Florida Boxing Players Political Committee,” “Florida Economic Elites Political Committee,” and “Florida Racquetball Players Political Committee.”

⁷ Examples of these committees are: “Billionaire Josue Larose’s Best Friends Committee,” “Billionaire Josue Larose’s Dating Women Committee,” and “Billionaire Josue Larose’s Female Catholic Priests Committee.”

10. According to the DS-DE 6 forms filed with the Division, Respondent appointed himself chair and treasurer of his Billionaire Committees, and designated Bank Atlantic as the campaign depositories for each committee.

11. On October 21, 2010, Gary Holland, Assistant General Counsel of the Division, issued subpoenas to TD Bank, AmTrust Bank, and Bank Atlantic requesting copies of all bank statements, deposit items, and disbursements, for each of Respondent's political committees, or any other account on which Josue Larose was a signatory on the account. (ROI Exhibit 4)

12. On November 17, 2010, Lori Turcotte of TD Bank, responded to the Division's subpoena by providing copies of statements and transactions for one account. The account does not appear to be related to any of Respondent's political committees. The account appears to be Respondent's personal account. (ROI Exhibit 6)

13. On November 18, 2010, Laura Martini of AmTrust Bank, responded to the Division's subpoena stating that she did not locate any records or accounts in Respondent's name, or of the committees described in the subpoena. (ROI Exhibit 7)

14. On November 12, 2010, Courtney A. Sullivan of Bank Atlantic, provided copies of statements and transactions to Respondent's personal accounts. However, Ms. Sullivan did not locate any accounts for Respondent's committees as described in the subpoena. (ROI Exhibit 5)

15. Respondent was required to file periodic reports of contributions received and expenditures made by his all his political committees. Between July 23, 2009, and October 29, 2010, Respondent filed nearly 1,000 campaign reports for his committees. As the chair of each committee, Respondent certified that each report was true, correct, and complete. However, Respondent's reports were not true, correct, and complete.

16. On October 8, 2010, Respondent filed an Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository (DS-DE 9) form for his gubernatorial campaign with the Division of Elections. The DS-DE 9 listed CitiBank as his campaign depository. Respondent subsequently filed two additional (amended) DS-DE 9 forms listing AmTrust and Bank Atlantic as his campaign depositories. (ROI Exhibit 10)

17. Respondent was also required to file periodic reports of contributions received and expenditures made during his gubernatorial campaign. Between July 10, 2009, and October 29, 2010, Respondent filed 13 campaign reports. Respondent certified that each report was true, correct, and complete.

18. The following table reflects the information respondent listed on each of his campaign reports.

(ROI Exhibits 11-15)

19. Respondent certified that all of his committee reports, and reports for his gubernatorial campaign were true, correct and complete. However, during a telephone interview on February 1, 2011, Respondent admitted that he never opened campaign depositories for any of his political committees, and that he never received any contributions for any of his political committees'. (ROI Exhibit 9)

20. In an April 4, 2011 affidavit, Respondent acknowledged that he did not open a campaign depository for any of his political committees, did not receive any contributions for his gubernatorial campaign, and did not receive any contributions for any of his political committees, and did not receive a salary from any of his political committees. Additionally, Respondent admitted that when he signed the campaign reports for his gubernatorial campaign and political committees, he was aware that the information contained in the reports was inaccurate (ROI Exhibit 8)

21. Therefore, it appears that Respondent certified that his political committees' reports and his reports related to his campaign for governor were true, correct, and complete when they were not. Based upon Respondent's admissions that he never received any contributions, it does not appear that Respondent failed to deposit any funds into a campaign depository within five days of receipt.

22. "Probable cause" is defined as reasonable ground of suspicion supported by circumstances sufficiently strong to warrant a cautious person in the belief that the person has committed the offense charged. Schmitt v. State, 590 So.2d 404, 409 (Fla. 1991). Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances, of which an [investigator] has reasonably trustworthy information, are sufficient in themselves for a reasonable man to reach the conclusion that an offense has been committed. Dept. of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles v. Favino, 667 So.2d 305, 309 (Fla. 1st DCA 1995).

23. The above facts show that Respondent opened 333 state-wide political committees with the Division of elections. On or about July 29, 2009 through October 10, 2010, Respondent filed nearly 1000 campaign reports for his political committees. As chair of the committees, Respondent certified that each report was true, correct and complete. Additionally, between on or about July 10, 2009 and October 29, 2010, Respondent filed an additional 13 reports in connection with his 2010 campaign for governor. Respondent certified that each of those reports were true, correct, and complete.

24. The above facts also show that between the information received from Respondent's financial institutions, and Respondent's admissions that he knowingly certified the reports as true, correct and complete when they were not, it appears that Respondent violated Sections 106.07(5) and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes.

Based upon the foregoing, I recommend that the Commission find probable cause that Respondent committed the following violation:

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION
REPORT OF INVESTIGATION
Case No.: FEC 10-368

Respondent: Josue Larose

Complainant: Division of Elections

On December 3, 2010, the Florida Elections Commission received information from the Division of Elections alleging that Respondent violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. Commission staff investigated whether Respondent violated the following statutes:

Section 106.05, Florida Statutes, failure of the treasurer of a political committee to deposit in a campaign depository all funds received by the treasurer within five business days of receipt;

Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a candidate from certifying to the correctness of a campaign treasurer's report that is incorrect, false, or incomplete;

Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a political committee chairman from certifying to the correctness of a campaign treasurer's report that is incorrect, false, or incomplete; and

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a person or organization from falsely reporting or deliberately failing to report information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

I. Preliminary Information:

1. Respondent was a candidate in the 2010 race for Governor; he was defeated in the November 2, 2010 general election. Respondent was also a candidate in the 2009 Special Elections for State Senator, District 8; State Senator, District 28; and State Representative, District 84. He was defeated in the election for District 28, and he withdrew from the District 8 and District 84 races. Currently, Respondent is a candidate in the 2012 election for United States Senator.

2. Respondent is also the chairman and treasurer of 339 political committees; 100 electioneering communications organizations; and 40 minor political parties.¹ Of the 339 committees chaired by Respondent, the Division only provided information on 331 of the committees, which are the subject of this investigation. The Division has revoked 325 of Respondent's 339 committee registrations within the last 10 months.

¹ Gary Holland, Assistant General Counsel of the Division of Elections, states in the information referred by the Division that Respondent is the chairman and treasurer "of at least 341" political committees. However, a search of committees registered to Respondent on the Division's website lists only 339.

3. At the November 17 & 18, 2009 meeting of the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission considered Respondent's appeal of automatic fines assessed for the untimely filings of campaign treasurer's reports for 10 of Respondent's political committees. Respondent's appeals were based upon his claim that his original 2009 Q2 reports were filed one day late listing a $2,000 monetary contribution for each committee; however, the reports were amended one week later—after Respondent was notified of the assessed fine for each committee—to reflect that there were no contributions during the 2009 Q2 reporting period.

4. The Commission's vote on Respondent's appeal of the imposed fine was 4-4. Because Respondent's appeal did not receive a majority vote of the members present, the appeal was not granted and Respondent was required to pay the imposed fines. One of the issues raised by several Commissioners was that it was unclear whether the committee had any reportable financial activity during the 2009 Q2 reporting period, or at any other time during the year.

5. At the August 10, 2010 meeting the Commission considered Respondent's appeal of the Division of Elections' intent to revoke the registration of 27 of Respondent's political committees because the committees' reported financial activity during the 2009 calendar year was less than $500.

6. Respondent's appeal was based upon his claim that the original 2009 Q4 reports were filed listing no monetary contributions for the committees; however, the reports were amended one month later—after he received notice that the committees' registration would be revoked due to financial activity less than $500—to reflect monetary contributions to the committees.

7. When asked to provide the Commission with documentation of the monetary contributions, Respondent amended the reports to reflect that the contributions were in-kind. Respondent provided inconsistent explanations as to why the activity was not reported on the original reports, and why the contributions were first reported as monetary then in-kind contributions.

8. In Final Order FOFEC 10-126, the Commission ordered that the Division of Elections' revocations of the 27 political committees were upheld because Respondent's "inconsistent explanations for the Committees' misreporting do not support Appellant's contention that the Committee had more than $500 during the 2009 calendar year."

II. Alleged Violation of Section 106.05, Florida Statutes:

9. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of election laws by not depositing funds in his political committees' designated campaign depositories within five days of receipt.

10. On January 14, 2009, and February 11, 2009, Respondent filed Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for Political Committees (DS-DE 6) with the Division, forming 100 political committees referred to by Commission staff as the "Florida" series of committees. Respondent designated names such as "Florida Boxing Players Political Committee," "Florida Economic Elites Political Committee," and "Florida Racquetball Players Political Committee" to each of his committees. To view a complete listing of Respondent's "Florida" series of committees, please refer to Exhibit 1.

11. According to the DS-DE 6 forms filed with the Division, Respondent designated himself chair and treasurer, and designated TD Bank as the campaign depository for each of these committees.

12. On January 11, 2010, and February 2, 2010, Respondent filed Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for Political Committees (DS-DE 6) with the Division, forming 131 political committees referred to by Commission staff as the "American" series of committees. Respondent designated names such as "American Dating Agencies Political Action Committee," "American Modeling Agencies Political Action Committee," and "American Shoes Manufacturing Companies Political Action Committee" to each of his committees. To view a complete listing of Respondent's "American" series of committees, please refer to Exhibit 2.

13. According to the DS-DE 6 forms filed with the Division, Respondent designated himself chair and treasurer, and designated AmTrust Bank as the campaign depository for each of these committees.

14. On May 4, 2010, Respondent filed Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for Political Committees (DS-DE 6) with the Division, forming 100 political committees referred to by Commission staff as the "Billionaire Josue Larose" series of committees. Respondent designated names such as "Billionaire Josue Larose's Best Friends Committee," "Billionaire Josue Larose's Dating Women Committee," and "Billionaire Josue Larose's Female Catholic Priests Committee" to each of his committees. To view a complete listing of Respondent's "Billionaire Josue Larose" series of committees, please refer to Exhibit 3.

15. According to the DS-DE 6 forms filed with the Division, Respondent designated himself chair and treasurer, and designated Bank Atlantic as the campaign depository for each of these committees.

16. On October 21, 2010, Gary Holland, Assistant General Counsel of the Division, issued subpoenas to TD Bank, AmTrust Bank and Bank Atlantic requesting copies of all bank statements and documents reflecting transactions in the accounts, including deposits and disbursements, associated with each of Respondent's political committees, or any other account on which Josue Larose was a signatory on the account. To view copies of the subpoenas, please refer to Exhibit 4.

17. On November 12, 2010, Courtney A. Sullivan, Subpoena Analyst for Bank Atlantic, responded to the Division's subpoena by providing copies of statements and transactions of personal accounts owned by Respondent. However, Ms. Sullivan stated in her response that she did not locate any records of accounts in the names of the committees described in the subpoena. To view a copy of Ms. Sullivan's response to the Division's subpoena, please refer to Exhibit 5.

18. On November 17, 2010, Lori Turcotte, of the Research Department of TD Bank, responded to the Division's subpoena by providing copies of statements and transactions of one account owned by Respondent. The account does not appear to be related to any of Respondent's political committees.² To view a copy of Ms. Turcotte's response to the Division's subpoena, please refer to Exhibit 6.

19. On November 18, 2010, Laura Martini, Assistant Vice President of the Banking Services Department of AmTrust Bank, responded to the Division's subpoena by stating that she did not locate any records of accounts in the name of Respondent, or of the committees described in the subpoena. To view a copy of Ms. Martini's response to the Division's subpoena, please refer to Exhibit 7.

20. Respondent submitted a notarized written statement dated January 24, 2011. In his statement, Respondent states, "My name is Josue Larose, I certify that I never fail to deposit the monetary contributions for the PACs and Political Parties. Because they never receive the monetary contributions from anyone." To view a copy of Respondent's written statement, please refer to Exhibit 8.

21. During a telephone interview with Respondent on February 1, 2011, and in an affidavit submitted by Respondent dated April 4, 2011, Respondent admitted he never opened campaign depositories for any of his political committees. Respondent also admitted he never received any contributions for any of his political committees. To view a copy of Respondent's affidavit, please refer to Exhibit 9.

22. Based upon Respondent's admissions and information received in responses to the Division's subpoenas, it appears that Respondent did not open campaign depositories, nor did Respondent receive any contributions for any of his political committees.

23. No history of Respondent having previously violated this section of law was found.

III. Alleged Violation of Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes:

24. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of election laws by certifying as true campaign treasurers' reports that contained false information.

Gubernatorial Campaign:

25. In a telephone interview on February 1, 2011, Mr. Holland stated that the referral was generated due to a cursory review of Respondent's reports which disclosed several questionable contributions, including contributions from "female Catholic priests." As a result of his review, Mr. Holland felt that the information disclosed on Respondent's reports was incorrect.

26. On October 8, 2010, Respondent filed an Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository (DS-DE 9) form for his gubernatorial campaign with the Division of Elections. The DS-DE 9 listed Citi Bank as his campaign depository.

Subsequently, on January 6, 2010, and June 16, 2010, Respondent filed DS-DE 9 forms listing AmTrust and Bank Atlantic as his campaign depositories, respectively. To view copies of the DS-DE 9 forms, please refer to Exhibit 10.

27. Between July 10, 2009 and October 29, 2010, Respondent filed 13 campaign treasurer's reports for his gubernatorial campaign listing monetary and in-kind contributions, and loans ranging in amount from $95,240 to $3,000,000; and expenditures ranging in amounts from $500,000 to $10,000,000. Respondent certified that the information contained in the 13 reports was true, correct and complete. Table 1 summarizes the 13 reports filed by Respondent.

28. On his original 2009 Q2 report, Respondent listed 203 individual contributors using 15 different addresses. Respondent reported receiving $500 from each contributor. To view examples of how Respondent reported his contributors, please refer to Exhibit 11.

29. On his original 2010 F1 report, Respondent listed 360 individual contributors, including seven contributions from Catholic priests that appear to be female. To view examples of the F1 report, please refer to Exhibit 12.

30. I conducted numerous random internet searches of contributors' names and addresses that Respondent provided on his Q2 and F1 reports. Although the existence of the addresses was verified by the searches, the names of the individuals residing at the addresses did not correspond with the names listed on the reports.

31. On his original 2010 F1B report, Respondent listed in-kind contributions from political parties that Respondent has registered with the Division, and 170 individual contributors.³ To view examples of the F1B report, please refer to Exhibit 13.

32. On his original 2010 F2, F2B and F3 reports, Respondent listed contributions from federal political action committees that Respondent has registered with the Federal Elections Commission, and political parties that Respondent has registered with the Division.⁴ To view examples of the reports, please refer to Exhibit 14.

33. On his G0, G1, G1B, G2B, G3B, and G4 reports, Respondent listed millions of dollars in contributions from himself and millions of dollars in expenditures to "Universal Advertising Agency."⁵ To view examples of the reports, please refer to Exhibit 15.

34. To review the circumstances regarding the subpoenas to AmTrust and Bank Atlantic, please refer to paragraphs 16 through 19 of this report.

35. On October 21, 2010, Mr. Holland issued a subpoena to Citi Bank requesting copies of all bank statements and documents reflecting transactions in the accounts, including deposits and disbursements, associated with Respondent as a signatory on the account or his name in the title of the account. To view a copy of the subpoena, please refer to Exhibit 16.

36. On November 9, 2010, Brenda C. Guzman, of the Legal Department, Subpoena Compliance Unit for Citi Bank, responded to the Division's subpoena by providing copies of statements and transactions of personal accounts owned by Respondent. However, Ms. Guzman stated in her response that none of Respondent's accounts were campaign accounts. To view a copy of Ms. Guzman's response to the Division's subpoena, please refer to Exhibit 17.

³ Respondent admitted in his written statement (Exhibit 8) that his political parties did not receive any contributions.

37. During telephone interviews with Respondent on January 12, and February 1, 2011, Respondent admitted that he never received any of the contributions listed in the treasurer's reports for his gubernatorial campaign. Additionally, in his affidavit (Exhibit 9), Respondent admitted he was aware when he signed the reports for his gubernatorial campaign that the information contained in the reports was false.

38. Respondent explained that he greatly exaggerated the contributions listed on his reports because he believed he was being ridiculed by the local media and he wanted to get his name in the public eye. Respondent stated he wanted to make it appear as though he had financial activity on the same level as his opponents, and stated he "didn't do it to be a bad thing." Respondent further stated this was all a "mistake" and he thought it would be okay as long as he amended the reports when the campaign was done.

39. Based upon Respondent's admissions in the telephone interviews and his affidavit (Exhibit 9), it appears that Respondent did not receive any of the contributions, nor did he make any of the expenditures listed in the 13 reports filed between July 10, 2009 and October 29, 2010. It also appears that Respondent knew when he signed the reports that the information contained in the reports was false.

40. It is noted that Respondent amended all of his gubernatorial campaign treasurer's reports to reflect zero contributions and zero expenditures after the referral was received by the Commission.

"Florida" Series of Political Committees:

41. To review the circumstances regarding Respondent's political committees, please refer to paragraphs 10 through 22 of this report. The paragraphs that follow discuss only those reports which were included in the referral information from the Division.

42. On July 10, 2009, Respondent filed 2009 Q2 reports for 48 of his "Florida" series of political committees (Exhibit 1). Respondent certified that the 48 reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed monetary contributions of $1,000 for some committees, and $2,000 for others.

43. On February 3, 2010, Respondent amended 2009 Q4 reports for 52 of his "Florida" series of political committees (Exhibit 1).⁶ Respondent certified that the 52 reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed in-kind contributions of $700 for some committees, and $800 for others.

45. On September 17, 2010, Respondent filed 2010 G1 reports for 100 of his "Florida" series of political committees (Exhibit 1). Respondent certified that the 100 reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed monetary contributions of $500 for each committee.

⁶The original reports were timely filed on January 3, 2010 with no financial activity.

46. On October 1, 2010, Respondent filed 2010 G2 reports for 100 of his "Florida" series of political committees (Exhibit 1). Respondent certified that the 100 reports were true, accurate and complete. The reports listed monetary contributions of $500 for each committee.

"American" Series of Political Action Committees:

47. On July 23, 2010, Respondent filed 2010 F1 reports for 131 of his "American" series of political action committees (Exhibit 2). Respondent certified that the 131 reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed in-kind contributions ranging from $3,000 to $200,000 for each committee.

48. On September 17, 2010, Respondent filed 2010 G1 reports for 131 of his "American" series of political action committees (Exhibit 2). Respondent certified that the 131 reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed monetary contributions ranging from $1,000,000 to $50,000,000 for each committee.

49. On October 1, 2010, Respondent filed 2010 G2 reports for 78 of his "American" series of political committees (Exhibit 2). Respondent certified that the 78 reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed monetary contributions ranging from $1,000,000 to $48,000,000 for each committee.

"Billionaire Josue Larose" Series of Committees

50. On July 23, 2010, Respondent filed 2010 F1 reports for two of his "Billionaire Josue Larose" series of committees (Exhibit 3). Respondent certified that the two reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed an in-kind contribution of $1,000,000 for each committee.

51. On August 20, 2010, Respondent filed 2010 F3 reports for 71 of his "Billionaire Josue Larose" series of committees (Exhibit 3). Respondent certified that the 71 reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed monetary contributions ranging from $1,000,000 to $60,000,000 for each committee.

52. On September 17, 2010, Respondent filed 2010 G1 reports for 100 of his "Billionaire Josue Larose" series of committees (Exhibit 3). Respondent certified that the 100 reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed monetary contributions ranging from $1,000,000 to $100,000,000 for each committee.

53. On October 1, 2010, Respondent filed 2010 G2 reports for 100 of his "Billionaire Josue Larose" series of committees (Exhibit 3). Respondent certified that the 100 reports were true, correct and complete. The reports listed monetary contributions ranging from $1,000,000 to $49,000,000 for each committee.

54. During the telephone interviews on January 12, and February 1, 2011, as well as in his written statement (Exhibit 8), Respondent admitted that none of his committees ever received any of the contributions listed in the treasurer's reports. Additionally, in his affidavit (Exhibit 9), Respondent admitted he was aware when he signed the reports for the political committees that the information contained in the reports was false.

55. During the January 12, 2011 telephone interview, Respondent stated he received “bad advice” from a Division employee. When asked to explain how “bad advice” from a Division employee led him to report millions of dollars in financial activity that appeared to be non-existent, Respondent stated he called the Division and asked “What is the maximum salary a chairman can get paid?” and was told there was no maximum.

56. Respondent explained that “When you are trying to get your name out there and someone asks your salary, you can tell them anything you want to make yourself look good...if someone asks you how much money you make, no one notices if you only say thousands. But if you say you’re a millionaire, people will take notice.” However, when asked if he was paid a million dollars, Respondent stated, “No.”

57. In his notarized written statement (Exhibit 8), Respondent reiterated that he received “bad advice” from the Division. Respondent stated that the employee told him he could use his salary “as a contribution to file the reports” for his committees. Respondent further stated he was told he could choose to receive a salary from each committee, but because the committees don’t receive monetary contributions from the public, Respondent could not give a payroll check to himself, but he could “use the salary as a contribution giving back” to the committees. However, in the telephone interview on February 1, 2011, Respondent admitted he was not a billionaire, or even a millionaire.

58. Based upon Respondent’s admissions in the telephone interviews and his affidavit (Exhibit 9), it appears that none of Respondent’s political committees received any of the contributions that Respondent certified to when he filed the reports. It also appears that Respondent knew when he signed the reports that the information contained in the reports was false.

59. It is noted that Respondent amended all of his political committees’ campaign treasurer’s reports to reflect zero contributions after the referral was received by the Commission’s staff.

60. No history of Respondent having previously violated this section of law was found.

IV. Alleged Violation of Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes:

61. To review Respondent’s reporting activities for his gubernatorial campaign and political committees please refer to paragraphs 25 through 59 of this report.

62. No history of Respondent having previously violated this section of law was found.

FEC History:

63. To review Respondent’s FEC history, please refer to paragraphs 3 through 8 of this report.

Conclusion:

64. I conducted a final interview with Respondent on June 21, 2011 and gave him an opportunity to respond to the information gathered during the course of the investigation concerning the allegations made in the referral. Respondent wished to make it clear that he has allowed the Division to revoke “all” of his PACs because they did not have $500 in financial activity for the year.⁷

65. I asked Respondent to clarify whether he got the names of the contributors that he listed in his gubernatorial campaign treasurer’s reports from the telephone book or some other type of directory. Respondent admitted that he fabricated the names on the reports, using addresses of “condominiums” and other large apartment complexes in the area. Respondent stated he did not use names from the telephone book because he did not want someone to question why he would use their name. Respondent further stated, “I know it’s illegal to use somebody’s name.”

66. In his affidavit (Exhibit 9), Respondent stated he has read Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook. When asked what action he took to determine his responsibilities under Florida’s election laws, Respondent stated, “I take my responsibility to file the reports correctly and accurately. All my new reports will be better, and accurate. All my previous reports are amended with the correct infos.” (sic)

67. I interviewed Mr. Holland by telephone on February 1, 2011 and asked him to clarify Respondent’s statement (Exhibit 8) that Mr. Holland told Respondent if he amended his reports and wrote a letter to the Commission everything would be “okay with the Division” and the Commission would “dismiss this case.” Mr. Holland stated that in no way did he advise Respondent on what the Commission would do, nor did he advise Respondent to amend his reports. Mr. Holland stated he advised Respondent to close down his political committees and suggested that Respondent might want to obtain legal counsel.⁸

68. The phone log reflecting all telephone contacts by Commission staff in this matter is provided as Exhibit 18.

Respectfully submitted on June 24, 2011,

Tracie Aulet
Investigation Specialist

⁷ As of the date of this report, Respondent has 14 remaining political committees that are active.

⁸ I also interviewed Kristi Reid-Bronson of the Division on February 1, 2011. Ms. Bronson stated she specifically told Respondent that changing the reports would not alleviate the situation, as the matter had already been referred to the Commission.

Case No : FEC 10-368

STATE OF FLORIDA
DIVISION OF ELECTIONS

Dear Ms. Tracie,

Pursuant to my conversation with you 2 weeks ago by telling that I was received a bad advice from an employee from the Division of Elections, I send you this letter to inform the Florida Elections Commission about the situation.

As the treasurer of different PACs, ECOs and Minor Political Parties registered with the Division of Elections, I was needing some advices to file the reports and I was calling the Division of Elections to find the advice. I was talking to an employee of the Division of Elections who was telling me that I can use my salary as a contribution to file the reports for my PACs and for my Parties. He told me by the Florida Elections laws, I can choose to receive a salary from each PAC, each ECO and each Political Party, but because the PACs, the ECOs and Political Parties don't receive no monetary contributions from the general public, I can not give a payroll check to myself, but I can use the salary as a contribution giving back to the PACs, ECOs and the Political Parties.

Therefore, all the contributions reported to the PACs and to the Political Parties were not the monetary contributions, but they are in-kind contributions, considered as my salary receiving from them

After receiving a letter from the Florida Elections Commission regarding this matter, I was calling Mr Gary J. Holland to tell him that I was received a bad advice from an employee from the Division of Elections concerning the amounts of contributions. Mr. Gary J. Holland told me if I make a report amendment for each PAC and Political Party, everything will be okay with the Division. He told me to send a letter to the Florida Elections Commission to explain the situation and the Members will dismiss this case for me

Furthermore all the reports for the PACs and for the Political Parties are already amended since the month of December 2010. Now all the amounts for the PACs and the Political Parties are zeros, because they never receive no monetary contributions from the general public and the businesses in the United States.

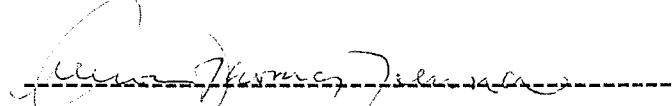

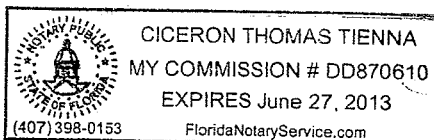

On Mr. Gary J. Holland recommendations, I send you this letter to inform the Florida Elections Commission that all reports of the PACs and the Political Parties are already amended to zero. Then you can dismiss this case, because there is no violation and I never fail to deposit the monetary contributions for the PACs.

My name is Josue Larose, I certify that I never fail to deposit the monetary contributions for the PACs and Political Parties. Because they never receive the monetary contributions from anyone.

1. Date and time: December 9, 2010 @ Approx 2:15 p.m.

Name: Kristi Reid-Bronson, Division of Elections

Phone #: 245.6295

Summary: I telephoned and asked the elections records bureau chief whether the subpoenas to Citi Bank, AmTrust Bank, and Bank Atlantic, included with the material forwarded to our office by Mr. Holland, represents all the subpoenas pertaining to Respondent's 2010 campaign for the office of Governor. Ms. Bronson advised me that it does; she said no other subpoenas were issued for this campaign. I advised Ms. Bronson that I had noted that Mr. Holland's referral letter advises our office that Respondent is the chairman and treasurer of at least 341 political committees—a number represented when totaling the names of the PCs disclosed in the appendix to the subpoenas—yet I appear to count supporting documents, reports summary etc., for but 332 PCs. Ms. Bronson said that the referral did not include Respondent's activity pertaining to all the PCs. Ms. Bronson had to get to an office meeting so that was the end of our discussion.

Name: Respondent

Phone #:

Summary: Respondent telephoned and advised me that he had received our letter and a copy of the material sent to our office from the Division of Elections; he made reference to FEC 10-368. Respondent spoke to me for 33 minutes before the telephone call was terminated; for some unknown reason my telephone line just went dead. However, while Respondent was on the telephone line, he appeared to be complaining that this is all some kind of a big mistake or misunderstanding; I was having great difficulty understanding his dialect but I got better with time. I was able to decipher "Kristi Bronson," "Division of Elections," "Told to include a bank on the form." I understood him say, "The form asks me to lie when it asks for a name." It also sounded as if Respondent was complaining about needing $500 to be a political committee. I advised Respondent that if he did not have $500 in contribution or expenditure activity, or if he did not anticipate having that level of activity, for a particular committee, then perhaps the committee is not a "political committee."

I reviewed with Respondent the definition of a political committee pursuant to Section 106.011(1)(a), Florida Statutes; it is not clear whether Respondent understood. Ten minutes or so later, Respondent declared, "I'm going to amend my reports to show nothing ..." I in turn asked Respondent, "Why would you do that"? Respondent did not offer an explanation.

EXHIBIT 18 pg. 1 of 9

I advised Respondent that I was a bit confused about what appeared to be his concern about the $500 threshold as part of the definition of a political committee. I asserted that considering the fact that he has reported millions of dollars worth of expenditures and contributions by and for his various political committees, the $500 threshold appeared to be moot. Respondent began talking about his salary. As I could best decipher, Respondent was telling me that he contributed portions of his salary to his various political committees.

I advised Respondent that he could contribute to his committees. I also explained that each of his political committees must have its own bank account—depository—to accept all monetary contributions regardless of the source. In addition, I advised Respondent that when the committee needs to purchase advertising, supplies or anything else, such expenses are to be paid for with a check drawn upon funds in the committee's depository. I advised Respondent that this principle also applies when he is a candidate for public office. For an example, I asserted that his 2010 gubernatorial campaign required its own bank account to accept the more than eight million dollars in contributions, seven million in loans, and from which to pay more than 15 million dollars in expenses as was reported to the Division of Elections.

Respondent again stated that he would amend his reports to show no activity. I told Respondent that the mere thought of such plans concerned me, greatly. I explained that his plans made no sense to me because it was difficult for me to understand how he could make such a mistake after having reported millions of dollars in activity. I asserted, "Your committees either had millions of dollars in reportable activity or they did not. But now you appear to be saying the committees had no activity." I explained that while I could understand the possibility of a contribution or an expenditure for a committee with a great deal of activity going unreported by mistake, I could not understand the extremes of millions of dollars in activity and no activity—clearly, it is one or the other. I declared that one does not make such a "mistake." Either there was a record amount of activity or there was none.

Finally, I advised Respondent that it would be helpful if he would submit a type-written response to our office pertaining to the information provided by the Division of Elections.

Joel said he would have the reports ready for me on Monday. I told him that I did not need the traditional-report format for Respondent's many political committees, at this time.

Phone #: 954-640-8440

Summary: I informed R that I was the investigator assigned to his case, and encouraged him to submit a written response as soon as possible. R stated he had spoken with Gary Holland and Mr. Holland told him to make amendments to his PC reports and write a letter to the Commission explaining what happened, and everything would be okay. I stated to R that while I was aware he had changed his many reports to reflect $0 in activity, I still had to go forward with the investigation. R stated he received bad advice from a Division employee. I asked R to explain how bad advice from an employee led him to report millions of dollars in activity in his gubernatorial and the more than 300 PC treasurer's reports. As best I could understand, R stated the following: he called the Division about four months ago and asked "what is the maximum salary a chairman can get paid;" he was told there is no maximum. When you are trying to get your name out there and someone asks your salary, you can tell them anything you want to make yourself look good. So for example, if someone asks you (meaning me) how much money you make, no one notices if you only say thousands. But if you say are a millionaire, people will take notice. I then asked R the following series of questions:

Q: Did you get paid a million dollars?

A: No.

Q: Did any of your PCs or your gubernatorial campaign receive any contributions?

A: No.

Q: Did you receive a salary from any of your PCs?

A: No.

Q: How are you employed?

A: I am self-employed.

Q: Did you receive any contributions for anything?

A: I received no monetary contributions. In-kind contributions were my own time and money. I did not receive contributions from anyone else.

Q: Don't you think there is something wrong with filing reports that appeared to contain inaccurate information?

At that point R appeared to become somewhat agitated. He stated that he was being attacked by reporters and he needed to show them that he had financial activity on the same level as his opponents. I stated I still did not understand why he would report, for example, $1,201,500 in contributions when clearly there were no contributions. R

repeated that he was given bad advice. R then attempted to discuss his wife's case. I stated I would not discuss her case with him. R stated "Valencia is very angry" because she never filed a report; she doesn't know how to file reports. R stated she gave him her PIN and he filed all his own reports. R stated that the employees at the Division "don't qualify to give advice because they don't speak English." I asked R for the number he used to call the Division; he stated 850-245-6240 but he could not remember who he spoke with. I asked R if he was ever investigated by the Federal Elections Commission; he stated no. I asked R if any of the PCs had a bank account; he stated no. I asked R what the purpose was for opening all these PCs. R stated to support state issues, amendments, candidates, and name recognition for himself. Once again, I encouraged R to submit a written response to the referral as soon as possible. I explained that once I received his response I would be sending him an affidavit to clarify any questions I may have regarding his statement, as well as other questions I may have after a more thorough review of his case. Summary: I asked Mr. Holland about R's claims that he advised R that if he amended his reports to $0 and wrote a letter explaining to the Commission explaining what happened then everything would be okay. Mr. Holland stated that in no way did he advise R on what the Commission would do, nor did he advise R to amend his reports. Mr. Holland stated he advised R to close down the PCs, and the only thing R could do as far as the referral was to write a response to the Commission that might mitigate some of the offenses committed. Mr. Holland stated he was very clear in telling R that he could not give R legal advice, and suggested that R might want to get legal counsel. Mr. Holland stated that what raised his attention to look into R contributions was a $500 contribution that was reported as coming from a female Catholic priest. Mr. Holland repeated that he told R it was up to the Commission as to what would happen with the referrals. Mr. Holland stated R told him the reason behind all the committees was to become known and run for state office. Mr. Holland stated that because of R, DOE is proposing legislation regarding the formation of political parties that would be retroactive. Mr. Holland stated he informed the statewide prosecutor's office but they declined to take action as R is not a public official and they do not have jurisdiction; he also contacted FDLE and they declined to take action because R amended the reports.

I was then transferred to Kristi Reid-Bronson who informed me while there isn't anything in the statute that limits the salary of the chair or treasurer, obviously there would have to be sufficient contributions to pay the salary, which would then be reported as an expenditure. Ms. Bronson stated she specifically told R that changing the reports would not fix the problem because it was already referred to the Commission.

Summary: R asked if I received his statement; I stated yes. R asked that since I had the statement and his reports were amended, was everything okay now. I stated no. R asked why. I reminded R that I specifically told him, as did Ms. Bronson and Mr. Holland that amending the reports and writing the statement would not stop the investigation. R became agitated and stated the following: this was all a "mistake;" DOE does not do their job; if you look online you will see many PCs with little or no contributions and more than $50,000 in expenditures, how is that possible; he is being targeted because he is black; he intends to file at least 50 complaints with the FEC because there are other PCs misreporting funds yet he is the only one that anyone is going after; reporters kept calling him so he did it to make it look like he had money and to stop discrimination against him; DOE did not notify him he was doing anything wrong. I asked R what, exactly, was DOE supposed to notify him of; he stated that in the statute it says DOE is supposed to notify you if something is wrong with your reports. I stated that while that may be true, DOE is not responsible for checking to see if you've really received all the contributions you reported. I asked R what he thought the purpose of campaign treasurer's report was; he stated so the public and DOE would know what he was doing. R stated everyday he received phone calls and he did this to stop people from thinking he never raised any money; he further stated he thought it would be okay as long as he amended the reports when the campaign was done. I then asked R the following series of questions:

Q: If you know the purpose of the reports is to inform the public of your financial activities, wouldn't filing reports that appear to be false defeat the purpose?

A: I didn't do it to be a bad thing. Reporters were calling and asking questions; I had to show them that I had money also. DOE never informed me that I was doing anything wrong.

Q: Why would DOE have reason to believe you were doing anything wrong?

A: The statute says they are supposed to notify me if there is something wrong with my reports. They never said I was reporting too much money. They don't do their job.

Q: When you signed the reports, you were certifying that the reports were true, accurate and complete. That means that anyone looking at them could infer that because your signature is on the report, that the information contained in the report is true. Why would DOE have reason to believe anything other than that?

A: There were plenty of contributions I made that I didn't even report, such as computers for the campaign that were in-kind contributions. I knew I would be keeping it after the campaign so I didn't report them because I didn't want anybody to be confused.

EXHIBIT 18 pg. 5 of 9

Q: Don't you think people will be confused when they look at your reports and see millions of dollars in contributions and expenditures all amended to $0?

A: It was a mistake.

Q: Did you receive the acknowledgement letters that tell you where to find the election law statutes and the Handbook?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you review the statutes?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you review the Handbooks?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you review the section regarding how to report in-kind contributions, so that no one would be confused about what kind of contributions they were?

A: This was all just a mistake. I didn't do this to be a bad thing.

Q: Do you recall the auto fine cases I had with you some time ago?

A: Yes.

Q: You had originally reported some activity but when you realized you were being fined for late reporting you amended the reports to waivers and you said it was a mistake. Do you remember that?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you remember the revocation cases I had with you a while ago?

A: Yes.

Q: You had originally filed waivers but when you realized your PCs were going to be revoked you amended the reports to show monetary contributions. At first you agreed to submit collaborating information regarding the contributions then you amended the reports to say they were in-kind contributions. You said that was a mistake too. Do you remember that?

A: No. That time I was confused. You had woke me up out of my sleep (sic).

Q: Well if you made similar mistakes at least twice before, why didn't you change your system so that these mistakes wouldn't be made again?

A: What did I tell you before? If you go to the Division's website, there are PCs who hardly made any money and they are reporting thousands of dollars in expenditures. Now you tell me why no one is saying anything about that.

Q: If you know of a PC that is spending more than what they receive in contributions, you are more than welcome to file a complaint.

A: I am going to file at least 50 complaints.

Q: Okay. Are you going by what they reported in a reporting period, or how much the PC has altogether? Because for one report they may have only reported $500 in contributions and $50,000 in expenditures, but in the previous report they may have received $50,000 in contributions. You don't necessarily have to spend your contributions in the same reporting period. They can be built up.

EXHIBIT 18 pg. 6 of 9

A: I am telling you; there are.

Q: Okay, why don't you send me examples of where that's happening (I gave him my fax number). How are you employed?

A: I'm a lobbyist since 2003. I represent clients to the federal government.

Q: How many clients do you have?

A: 60 clients.

Q: I will need to speak with your wife concerning her case. Would you please have her call me?

A: She just had a baby. You may send her to the hospital.

Q: How would I send her to the hospital?

A: She just had a baby. She cannot answer a whole lot of questions like this with the way you're asking questions. She may get very upset because she just had a baby. I may have to call 911 when you are finished. I don't want her to have to go to the hospital.

Q: In the revocation cases you said that she helped you file reports for all your PCs but the other day you said she does not know how to file reports. Does she know how to file reports or not?

A: She didn't file reports. She helped when the letters came in for all the PCs taking out the PINs and cleaning up papers. Everybody makes mistakes.

Q: Are you a billionaire?

A: No.

Q: Are you a millionaire?

A: No.

Q: Did you know when you signed those reports that you didn't have that money?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you know when you signed those reports that you were certifying to the correctness of reports that were not correct?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you even open a depository for any of your committees?

A: No.

Q: For your gubernatorial campaign?

A: No.

EXHIBIT 18 pg. 7 of 9

I told R that he would be receiving an affidavit from me and in the meantime would he please forward me the information on the PCs he claims are spending more money than they are making. (80 mins)

Complainant: Complainant is the Florida Division of Elections.

Respondent: Respondent was a candidate for the office of Governor; he qualified as a write-in candidate. Respondent did not fair too well, securing but 121 votes in the November 2, 2010 general election. His wife, Valencia St. Louis, served as his campaign treasurer and running mate for governor.

Respondent is also the chairman and treasurer of 341 political committees and 40 minor political parties registered with the Florida Division of Elections.

Background: Respondent has run for public office a number of times, all without success. He is known by some as a "serial candidate" and "frequent filer." It has been reported that Respondent claims to be a billionaire economist, music producer, and lobbyist.

~ ~ ~ COMPLAINT ISSUES ~ ~ ~

1. Complainant alleges that Respondent certified to the correctness of 13 campaign treasurer reports for his 2010 gubernatorial campaign while knowing that the reports were false. Complainant also appears to allege that Respondent certified to the correctness of a total of 1013 campaign treasurer reports pertaining to 331 political committees to which he serves as both the chairman and treasurer, while knowing that the reports were false.
2. Complainant alleges that Respondent failed to deposit into campaign depositories all funds received on behalf of 331 political committees.
3. Complainant alleges that Respondent made campaign expenditures from the campaign funds of his various political committees other than by checks drawn on the primary campaign depositories of the committees.

~ ~ ~ REVIEW OF COMPLAINT ISSUES ~ ~ ~

1. Complainant submitted for our review a list from its website of all the treasurer reports filed by Respondent's 2010 gubernatorial campaign, as well as 331 of Respondent's political committees. The list, downloaded from the website on November 15, 2010, discloses millions of dollars in expenditures by the gubernatorial campaign, as well as millions of dollars of contributions—monetary and in-kind—received by the gubernatorial campaign and 331 political committees. However, the banks designated as the campaign depository for the gubernatorial campaign, as well as the banks designated as the depositories for 331 political committees, have no record of such campaign activity. In addition, Commission staff has knowledge that most, if not all, information pertaining to alleged in-kind contributions is faulty, at best, or worse—false. The campaign treasurer reports at issue are as follows:

RE: PEC 10-368

Re: Division of Elections' Referral of Information to Florida Elections Commission

Dear Ms. Catalano:

The Division of Elections, Florida Department of State, refers a matter to you under section 106.25(2), Florida Statutes, for investigation and determination.

Mr. Josue Larose, who resides at 929 SW 15th Street, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33441, is the chairman and treasurer of at least 341 political committees that he has registered with the Division of Elections. Mr. Larose submitted Forms DS-DE 6 and 9 indicating he designated certain banks as his campaign depository for each of these 341 committees (Exhibit 1) and for his candidacy for Governor in 2010 (Exhibit 2); however, in response to subpoenas issued to the designated banks (Exhibit 3), the banks only found records of Mr. Larose for some personal savings and checking accounts. They did not have any records of Mr. Larose creating accounts for his political committees or his campaign for Governor (Exhibit 4).

As you are aware, pursuant to section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes, a candidate or chairman and treasurer of committees are required to certify to the correctness of regular campaign finance reports with the Division of Elections. Mr. Larose certified the correctness of the reports by electronically filing campaign finance reports with the Division. See § 106.0705(2), Fla. Stat. (2010). Based upon records obtained from the banks (Exhibit 4) (redacted to hide his social security and full bank account numbers) and in violation of section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes, Mr. Larose falsely reported contributions amounting to millions of dollars going into the bank accounts when no deposits were made because he had not established depositories for his candidacy and committees. You may find documents and campaign finance activity for all of Mr. Larose's political committees and his candidacy for office at the Division's webpage: <http://election.dos.state.fl.us/>. A summary of the campaign finance activity for his candidacy and the political committees pertaining to the subpoenaed bank records is enclosed (Exhibit 5). If, as he reported, Mr. Larose received contributions and made expenditures for his candidacy and as treasurer and chairman for the 341 political committees, he violated sections 106.05 and 106.11, Florida Statutes, in not depositing them into, or making expenditures from, properly designated campaign accounts.

Ms. Valencia St. Louis, also residing at 929 SW 15th Street, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33441, as the treasurer of Mr. Larose's campaign for Governor (see Exhibit 2), apparently also falsely certified the campaign finance reports for Mr. Larose's campaign in violation of sections 106.05, 106.07(5), and 106.11, Florida Statutes, due to campaign accounts not existing for the campaign deposits and expenditures which were reported as being made (see Exhibit 5).

The Division hereby requests that the Commission exercise its jurisdiction to investigate and determine appropriate penalties for Mr. Larose and Ms. St. Louis for any violations the Commission finds that they have committed based upon their actions as set forth in this letter and its enclosures.

Please feel free to contact Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Election Records, Division of Elections, at 850-245-6240 if you have questions about the campaign finance reports pertaining to this matter.

Sincerely,

Summary: I telephoned and asked the elections records bureau chief whether the subpoenas to Citi Bank, AmTrust Bank, and Bank Atlantic, included with the material forwarded to our office by Mr. Holland, represents all the subpoenas pertaining to Respondent's 2010 campaign for the office of Governor. Ms. Bronson advised me that it does; she said no other subpoenas were issued for this campaign. I advised Ms. Bronson that I had noted that Mr. Holland's referral letter advises our office that Respondent is the chairman and treasurer of at least 341 political committees—a number represented when totaling the names of the PCs disclosed in the appendix to the subpoenas—yet I appear to count supporting documents, reports summary etc., for but 332 PCs. Ms. Bronson said that the referral did not include Respondent's activity pertaining to all the PCs. Ms. Bronson had to get to an office meeting so that was the end of our discussion.

Name: Respondent

Phone #:

Summary: Respondent telephoned and advised me that he had received our letter and a copy of the material sent to our office from the Division of Elections; he made reference to FEC 10-368. Respondent spoke to me for 33 minutes before the telephone call was terminated; for some unknown reason my telephone line just went dead. However, while Respondent was on the telephone line, he appeared to be complaining that this is all some kind of a big mistake or misunderstanding; I was having great difficulty understanding his dialect but I got better with time. I was able to decipher "Kristi Bronson," "Division of Elections," "Told to include a bank on the form." I understood him say, "The form asks me to lie when it asks for a name." It also sounded as if Respondent was complaining about needing $500 to be a political committee. I advised Respondent that if he did not have $500 in contribution or expenditure activity, or if he did not anticipate having that level of activity, for a particular committee, then perhaps the committee is not a "political committee."

I reviewed with Respondent the definition of a political committee pursuant to Section 106.011(1)(a), Florida Statutes; it is not clear whether Respondent understood. Ten minutes or so later, Respondent declared, "I'm going to amend my reports to show nothing ..." I in turn asked Respondent, "Why would you do that"? Respondent did not offer an explanation.

I advised Respondent that I was a bit confused about what appeared to be his concern about the $500 threshold as part of the definition of a political committee. I asserted that considering the fact that he has reported millions of dollars worth of expenditures and contributions by and for his various political committees, the $500 threshold appeared to be moot. Respondent began talking about his salary. As I could best decipher, Respondent was telling me that he contributed portions of his salary to his various political committees.

I advised Respondent that he could contribute to his committees. I also explained that each of his political committees must have its own bank account—depository—to accept all monetary contributions regardless of the source. In addition, I advised Respondent that when the committee needs to purchase advertising, supplies or anything else, such expenses are to be paid for with a check drawn upon funds in the committee's depository. I advised Respondent that this principle also applies when he is a candidate for public office. For an example, I asserted that his 2010 gubernatorial campaign required its own bank account to accept the more than eight million dollars in contributions, seven million in loans, and from which to pay more than 15 million dollars in expenses as was reported to the Division of Elections.

Respondent again stated that he would amend his reports to show no activity. I told Respondent that the mere thought of such plans concerned me, greatly. I explained that his plans made no sense to me because it was difficult for me to understand how he could make such a mistake after having reported millions of dollars in activity. I asserted, "Your committees either had millions of dollars in reportable activity or they did not. But now you appear to be saying the committees had no activity." I explained that while I could understand the possibility of a contribution or an expenditure for a committee with a great deal of activity going unreported by mistake, I could not understand the extremes of millions of dollars in activity and no activity—clearly, it is one or the other. I declared that one does not make such a "mistake." Either there was a record amount of activity or there was none.

Finally, I advised Respondent that it would be helpful if he would submit a type-written response to our office pertaining to the information provided by the Division of Elections.

Summary: I telephoned and requested that Mr. Mynard download all of Respondent's contributions and expenditures for each reporting period for his 2010 gubernatorial campaign, in the traditional report format, for pickup by me sometime Monday morning. Joel said he would have the reports ready for me on Monday. I told him that I did not need the traditional-report format for Respondent's many political committees, at this time.

The Mysterious Josue Larose

Politics

Add comment

Who is this man?

Lost amid the recent mid-term election hullabaloo is a story about a virtually-unknown candidate for Governor in my home state of Florida.

Josue (sometimes known as "Joshua") Larose, of Deerfield Beach, was listed as a write-in candidate on the 2010 ballot. The South Florida Sun-Sentinel reported back in July of 2009 that Larose had created 60 Political Action Committees and 100 state PACs. At that time, he was not only running for Governor but also for the Congressional seat to be vacated by Robert Wexler and a state Senate seat vacated by Ken Priddy.

According to a profile posted on PerfectBusiness.com, Mr. Larose had this to say about himself:

Short Biography

Often described as a 'serial candidate' or 'frequent filer', Josue Larose qualified for the Congressional District 19 race as a write-in candidate. Larose's name will not appear, but the April 13 ballot will include a space for write-ins. Deerfield Beach resident Larose was also a write-in candidate in three special state legislative elections this year and has opened a 2010 campaign for governor. Haitian born and a self-described millionaire economist, music producer and lobbyist, the 28-year-old is waging three campaigns under the first names "Joshua" and "Josue" and has raised $100,000 in his bid for governor, according to the Florida Division of Elections. He has already had dramatic effect on one race. His presence as a write-in candidate in the special election for State Senate District 8 forced a Republican primary that the Duval County Supervisor of Elections said cost about $300,000 and prompted officials to consider changing the county's election rules. He has run under different names and for numerous offices. As Joshua LaRose, he ran for Miami Mayor, however a bounced check caused him to be disqualified in Sept 2009.

Our Assessment

We called the phone number on Mr. Larose's campaign for Governor website, and it was an invalid phone number. We wonder if Josue Larose is a serious candidate for any of the offices he is seeking.

Weekly Lobbying News Round-Up

Friday, July 16th, 2010 by Elise

SEC's new rule on Pay to Play becomes effective September 30. (60 days after its publication in the Federal Register)

Wiley Rein's Election Law News July 2010 (including detailed looks at the DISCLOSE Act, SEC's Pay-to-Play restrictions, Honest Services Fraud Statute, and more).

But the real question is: will DISCLOSE pass the Senate? Proponents of the measure suffered a setback when moderate Republican Scott Brown (Mass) announced his opposition to the House bill, and the Maine ladies (moderate Republican Sens. Susan Collins & Olympia Snowe) are still waffling

U.S. PIRG opposed the House measure (due to the NRA exemption),but has now (grudgingly) backed final passage in the Senate Lisa Gilbert says that "we have concluded that the greater danger is posed by an election in which voters are effectively forced to wear blindfolds as the special interests behind campaign spending are hidden from us "

Roll Call reports on a slightly strange rash of filings by Josue Larose, apparently a one-man lobbying firm with 87 new clients. Former ALL president Paul Miller, Miller/Wenhold Capitol Strategies, "said the situation sounds unbelievable ... 'If you sign up 87 new clients — I don't care if you are Patton Boggs or just one lobbyist — you are going to need a huge team.'" (Roll Call subscription required)

As listed in Lobbyists info, Larose has one client as a sole proprietor, and as the lobbyist for American Federal Lobbying Firm, has several PACs clients His organization's website makes the claim that: "The American Federal Lobbying Firm is the most powerful lobbying firm of the world and has more clients than any other lobbying firm in the United States of America "

Office of Congressional Ethics is getting investigatory again (which is their job), but this time, Capitol Hill denizens say, it's a little different – they're looking at donation/official actions correlations. The New York Times quotes Kenneth Gross (who is "fielding some of the document requests from ethics investigators"), "This is really a redefinition of the law ... To pick eight members and say they voted on legislation and political contributions came in around this time is really going places that no regulatory authority has ever gone."

Quote of the Week:

"Do I think these [de-registered lobbyists] went back to Arkansas and became farmers? No, they just weren't doing it 20 percent anymore ... I think the 20 percent rule needs to be clearly defined and also what the role of a lobbyist is." – Dave Wenhold, president, American League of Lobbyists, Washington Post, 7/12/2010

Obscure PAC Man Claims 87 New K Street Clients

By Alex Knott
Roll Call Staff
July 12, 2010, Midnight

From billionaires to beverage companies, capitalists to colleges and sheriffs to software corporations, Josue Larose appears to have become an almost overnight K Street phenomenon with an amazingly diverse clientele. But this portfolio may not be what it seems.

During five days in late May, Larose and his company, the American Federal Lobbying Firm, filed documents with Congress stating that he registered 87 new clients representing almost every sector in the country. To put that number into perspective, fewer than 20 of the 2,500-plus registered lobbying firms operating in the nation's capital have more clients than this single lobbyist registered in one week.

Larose did not return phone calls for this article. But a man who answered the phone at the Fort Lauderdale, Fla., firm and gave his name as Stanley Cater said Larose had already been in touch with the Senate about his lobbying filings.

"There is nothing wrong, and he has already talked to the U.S. Senate about that," said Cater, an assistant to Larose. "They called him and asked why he filed so much in a short period of time."

Larose's clients may have monikers that sound like typical lobbying organizations: American Private Equity Firm, United States Network Marketing Company and United States International Airlines. But public documents show that they are anything but ordinary.

For instance, there are no records of any of Larose's clients having lobbied the federal government before signing on with him. The majority of his clients are listed as political action committees on Senate records; PACs rarely lobby Congress. And nearly all 87 of Larose's clients are listed either at the address of his lobbying firm or another post office box he maintains.

Cater said that many of these PACs and organizations have the same address as Larose because Larose is the leader or chairman of these groups, which are registered at the Federal Election Commission, the state of Florida and some county offices. "He is the chairman of the PAC, and he is the lobbyist of the PAC," Cater said. "There is nothing wrong with that."

Many of Larose's clients don't appear to exist — except perhaps on paper — including Americas Elite Magazine and United States Times Newspaper.

While they are registered to lobby on an assortment of issues, at least 20 of the organizations say they are looking for federal grants. That has Washington, D.C., watchdog organizations raising questions.

"The whole situation sounds exceedingly peculiar," said Craig Holman, a lobbyist for Public Citizen.

Even stranger still, some of Larose's clients could potentially square off against each other. For instance, Larose is asking the government "to fine the BP for its oil spill disaster" on behalf of his client American Cruise Lines Companies PAC. But he also represents the American Petroleum Companies PAC (not to be confused with the Big Oil lobby American Petroleum Institute).

Larose's petroleum client isn't his only one that has a similar name to some of K Street's biggest interests. For example, the American Federal Lobbying Firm is registered to represent the American Chambers of Commerce PAC and two other PACs that sound similar to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce — the biggest client on K Street spending nearly $440 million since 1998 — or its affiliates.

Larose also registered American Pharmaceutical Laboratories PAC, similar to the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America, which has spent $180 million in the past dozen years. He also has a client named American Furniture Stores PAC, which sounds a lot like the Independent Office Products & Furniture Dealers Association.

"I am very familiar with the office furniture industry, and I have not heard of that," said Paul Miller, a partner at Miller/Wenhold Capitol Strategies. Miller, who has lobbied on behalf of the furniture industry for more than a decade and is a former president of the American League of Lobbyists, said the situation sounds unbelievable.

"If you sign up 87 new clients — I don't care if you are Patton Boggs or just one lobbyist — you are going to need a huge team," he said. "It's impossible." Miller added of Larose's one-lobbyist firm.

The FEC raised similar questions in late 2008 when Larose registered at least 60 PACs in one month. Since then, Larose has answered dozens of letters from the FEC providing Internal Revenue Service employer identification numbers for newly created organizations, a move apparently aimed at convincing the agency that he is serious about his fundraising efforts.

Since registering the organizations back in 2008, Larose's PACs have yet to collect any funds, according to FEC records. But that does not mean that these groups are not trying to get money.

"There is nothing wrong if the PACs don't receive any money," Cater said. "You are just expected to file in accordance with the law."

In a 2008 phone interview, Larose explained his PAC philosophy. "When you have so many PACs," he said, "you can contribute more and more to the candidates."

2008 does he plan on contributing (make explicit)?

Broward man forms 340 PACs, 40 political parties — and is running for governor

Deerfield Beach resident Josue Larose has filed an unprecedented amount of paperwork with elections officials

October 04, 2010 | By Jon Burstein, Sun Sentinel

He calls himself a billionaire. He is a write-in candidate to be Florida's next governor at the same time he's running for U.S. Senate in 2012. He formed a political group for female Roman Catholic priests.

Deerfield Beach resident Josue Larose may be the most interesting man in the world, if you believe the documents he's filed with Florida's Division of Elections and the Federal Election Commission

Larose's name is well known to state election officials. Within the last 18 months, he has formed 40 new political parties and at least 340 state political action committees with names ranging from the bland — American Banks Political Action Committee — to the bizarre — Billionaire Josue Larose's Dating Women Committee.

Before Larose, there were 31 political parties in Florida. By himself, Larose has more than doubled that number by submitting paperwork to launch such parties as the American Noble Persons Political Party and the American Imperialists Political Party.

First Name Last Name Age

Beyond the furious filling-out of forms, Larose seems to have left little — if any — mark on the political landscape despite claims in campaign filings that he has personally contributed nearly $7 billion to his political action committees.

Asked for explanations, Larose, 29, sent an e-mail informing the Sun Sentinel that the newspaper did not have permission to write a story about him. He took particular exception to questions on why the Deerfield Beach townhome where he lives is in foreclosure if he is a billionaire.

Florida Division of Elections spokeswoman Jennifer Krell Davis knows one thing for sure about Larose: never has one Floridian deluged her office with so much paperwork.

"Due to the unusual volume involving Mr. Larose's filings, the Division is evaluating the appropriate next steps," wrote Davis in an e-mail.

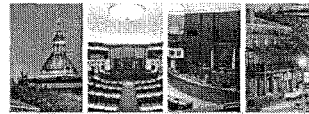

The Florida Elections Commission, the governmental agency responsible for investigating election infractions, declined to comment on whether Larose is being investigated.

"I don't think anybody has seen anything like this — the proliferation of political action committees all controlled by one guy," said Mark Herron, a Tallahassee attorney who specializes in election law. "It could be a life's work keeping up with the paperwork."

'Forget Josue Larose in Your Head,' Spokesman Tells Sunshine State News

KENRIC WARD'S BLOG | POSTED: AUGUST 30 2010 5:43 PM

Tuesday's Sunshine State News has an in-depth report on Josue Larose, a write-in candidate for governor

Most candidates of Larose's stature would be pleased to have the exposure through free media, but Larose's spokesman, Peter Lincoln, apparently didn't like the tone of our questions about his boss's finances, so he sent this e-mail (style, syntax and punctuation are his):

"Be careful in writing bad articles against Mr. Larose, because he has a good Law Firm in Florida that represents him and that is ready to sue any journalist and any media for slander and difamation against him

"Please forget Josue Larose in your head Then do not call us anymore and do not send us no more messages via Email

"Any new phone call will consider as a harassment call to Mr Josue Larose and his staff.

"Please leave Mr Larose alone "

Ballot set for special election to replace Wexler; Deutch snags labor endorsements

Friday, December 4th, 2009 by George Bennett

Seven candidates are running to replace U.S. Rep. Robert Wexler, D-Boca Raton, in an early-2010 special election. The field of candidates was set at noon today with three Republicans, two Democrats and one no-party candidate qualifying for ballot spots and frequent filer Josue Larose making a write-in bid.

Senate money blowout: Negron has 12-to-1 edge for Tuesday’s special election to replace Pruitt

Saturday, August 1st, 2009 by George Bennett

Negron (R): raised $499,685

Ramos (D): raised $40,046

Former Republican state Rep. Joe Negron of Stuart out-raised Democratic rival Bill Ramos by more than a 12-to-1 margin in their special state Senate race, final pre-election reports show.

Through Thursday, Negron raised $499,685 and spent $418,413 for Tuesday’s District 28 election to replace retiring Sen. Ken Pruitt, R-Port St. Lucie. Negron spent $173,977 on a TV ad campaign, at least $60,890 on direct mail and $4,334 on phone calls, according to his report.

Ramos raised $40,046 and spent $28,089 through Thursday. He could not afford TV ads and spent $1,464 on campaign postcards and $3,835 on signs.

Negron, Ramos make recession-tailored pitches in special Senate race to replace Pruitt

Monday, June 29th, 2009 by George Bennett

Negron (R): “This community is hurting.”

Ramos (D): “I know it. I get it.”

They feel your pain.

That’s the message Republican Joe Negron and Democrat Bill Ramos are pitching to recession-battered voters as an Aug. 4 special election approaches for a Treasure Coast-Palm Beach County state Senate seat.

Negron widens money lead in special Senate race to replace Pruitt

Saturday, June 27th, 2009 by George Bennett

Negron (R): $373,644

Former Republican state Rep. Joe Negron raised another $134,475 over the last two weeks — that’s better than a $9,600-a-day clip — to bring his contribution total to $373,644 for the special Aug. 4 election for the District 28 state Senate seat.

Negron has spent $118,267 so far, according to reports filed Friday night.

Ramos (D): $25,828

Democrat Bill Ramos has raised a total of $25,828, which includes $5,500 from the Florida Democratic Party and $1,000 from Martin County’s Democratic Executive Committee. He has spent $11,896

Negron and Ramos are on the ballot to replace retiring state Sen. Ken Pruitt, R-Port St. Lucie, in a Treasure Coast-Palm Beach County district

Write-in candidate Josue Larose, who according to voter records is a 28-year-old Deerfield Beach resident, reported that he put $50,000 of his own money into his campaign this week as an in-kind contribution for “paying the advertising.”

Larose apparently enjoys being a longshot. In addition to his write-in bid for the Senate seat, he has opened a 2010 campaign for governor.

Florida Man Running for Governor Claims Support of 40 Political Parties and $14.2 Million Warchest

Posted on September 6, 2010 by Glenn Church

Here is guy with a serious political addiction problem.

Florida resident Josue Larose started 40 political parties between June and August of 2010. He has also created 160 political action committees over the last few years. In addition, Larose is running as a write-in candidate for both Governor and Senator this year. However, he cannot officially run as a write-in candidate for Senator because Florida election law does not allow someone to run for two offices at the same time.

That should not be a problem because Larose's support is not likely to influence the election.

This year, in the April 13 special election for a House seat, Larose ran as a write-in candidate. He received zero votes.

In 2009, he ran as a write-in candidate for a State Senate seat and did considerably better. Larose received seven votes.

That has not stopped Larose from bringing in the big bucks for his campaign though. Larose reports a $14.2 million war chest that includes $5.8 million in cash, $5.4 million in in-kind contributions and $3 million in loans to himself.

Larose is heavily backed by the American Venture Capital Group which has dropped $1 million into several of his political parties and hundreds of thousands into other Larose political organizations.

And, if you believe that, the tooth fairy will be leaving you a cool $1 million under your pillow tomorrow.

The Florida Secretary of State office which refers to Larose as a "challenge."

He has 11 separate reporting violations already in the dock from the Secretary of State's office. Larose is being threatened with $500 a day fines for political reporting violations, but that should not be much of a problem with the millions that he has backing him.

Larose is a self-professed economist and "rich man" who owns 8 businesses.

Here are Larose's political parties:

- American Adventists Political Party
- American Aristocrats Political Party
- American Bankers Political Party
- American Baptists Political Party
- American Billionaires Political Party
- American Bourgeoisie Political Party
- American Business Owners Political Party
- American Capitalists Political Party
- American Catholics Political Party
- American Celebrities Political Party
- American Christians Political Party
- American Conservatives Political Party
- American Corporate Chief Executive Officers Political Party
- American Corporate Chief Financial Officers Political Party
- American Corporate Chief Operating Officers Political Party
- American Corporate Presidents Political Party
- American Diplomats Political Party
- American Economic Elites Political Party
- American Educators Political Party
- American Episcopalians Political Party
- American Film Stars Political Party
- American Freemasons Political Party
- American Health Administrators Political Party
- American Imperialists Political Party
- American Industrialists Political Party
- American Intellectual Elites Political Party
- American Investors Political Party
- American Jehovah's Witnesses Political Party
- American Lobbyists Political Party
- American Lutherans Political Party
- American Methodists Political Party
- American Multi-Millionaires Political Party
- American Music Stars Political Party
- American Noble Persons Political Party
- American Pentecostals Political Party
- American Presbyterians Political Party
- American Royal Political Party
- American Socialists Political Party
- American Sport Players Political Party
- American Wealthy Persons Political Party

As you can see, Larose has a fondness for everything with an American name.

Larose is probably the only candidate in America who can claim that he has the support of socialist, royalty, celebrity and capitalist political parties. That does not include support from just about every Christian denomination around, or the political parties of such imaginary organizations, which he appears to be the only member.

Larose claims to be President of the (you guessed it) American National Chamber of Commerce. He also claims to be "Chairman of many Federal PACs, including these richest Political Action Committees." Larose then lists five PAC's including the United States Federal Billionaires PAC. He must sit on that board with Bill Gates and Warren Buffett.

Larose seems to be a man of many abilities, but there is one thing lacking. His position on the issues is a total mystery.

RE: Case No.: FEC 10-368

Dear Mr. Larose:

The Commission staff has completed its investigation of the complaint filed against you on December 3, 2010, and is recommending the Commission find probable cause to charge you with violating Florida's election laws. As required by section 106.25, Florida Statutes, you are being provided with a copy of the Staff Recommendation. If you choose to file a response to the recommendation, you must file your response with the Commission within 14 days from the date of this letter. If you timely file a response to the staff recommendation, the Commission will consider your response when determining probable cause.

At its meeting scheduled for November 15-16, 2011, the Commission will hold a hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to charge you with violating Chapter 104 or 106, Florida Statutes. You and the complainant will receive a notice of hearing at least 14 days before the hearing. The notice of hearing will indicate the location, date, and time of your hearing. You will have the opportunity to make a brief oral statement to the Commission, but you will not be permitted to testify or call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence.

The Notice of Hearing will be mailed to the same address as this letter. Therefore, if your address changes, you must notify the Commission of your new address. Otherwise, you may not receive the correspondence from the Commission staff. Failure to receive the documents will not delay the probable cause hearing.

Unless you have waived your privilege of confidentiality, please remember that the Staff Recommendation and all other documents related to the complaint filed against you are confidential until the Commission finds probable cause or no probable cause, or unless you waive confidentiality in writing. If you retain counsel, your attorney must file a notice of appearance with the Commission before any member of the Commission staff can discuss this case with him or her.

After reviewing the Staff Recommendation, if you desire to enter negotiations directed towards reaching a settlement via consent agreement, please notify us in writing.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Patsy Rushing, Commission Clerk, at extension 103.

Sincerely,

RE: Case No.: FEC 10-368

Dear Mr. Larose:

The Commission staff has completed its investigation of the complaint filed against you on December 3, 2010. As required by section 106.25, Florida Statutes, you are being provided a copy of the Report of Investigation. Should you choose to file a response to the report, you must file your response with the Commission within 14 days from the date of this letter. If your response is timely filed, the Commission will consider it when determining probable cause.

Commission staff will review the Report of Investigation and make a written recommendation to the Commission on whether there is probable cause to charge you with violating Chapter 104 or 106, Florida Statutes. You will receive a copy of this staff recommendation and will have the opportunity to file a response. Should you choose to do so, your response must be filed with the Commission within 14 days from the date the recommendation is mailed to you. If your response is timely filed, the Commission will consider it when determining probable cause.

The Commission will then hold a hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe you have violated Chapter 104, 105 or 106, Florida Statutes. You and the complainant will receive a notice of hearing at least 14 days before the hearing. The notice of hearing will indicate the location, date, and time of your hearing. You will have the opportunity to make a brief oral statement to the Commission, but you will not be permitted to testify or call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence.

At any time before a probable cause finding, you may notify us in writing that you want to enter into negotiations directed towards reaching a settlement via consent agreement.

The Staff Recommendation and the Notice of Hearing will be mailed to the same address as this letter. Therefore, if your address changes, you must notify the Commission of your new address. Otherwise, you may not receive the correspondence from the Commission staff. Failure to receive the documents will not delay the probable cause hearing.

Under section 106.25, Florida Statutes, complaints, Commission investigations, investigative reports, and other documents relating to an alleged violation of Chapters 104 and 106, Florida Statutes, are confidential until the Commission finds probable cause or no probable cause. The confidentiality provision does not apply to the person filing the complaint. However, it does apply to you, the Respondent, unless you waive confidentiality in writing. The confidentiality provision does not preclude you from seeking legal counsel. However, if you retain counsel, your attorney must file a notice of appearance with the Commission before any member of the Commission staff can discuss this case with him or her.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Patsy Rushing, Commission Clerk, at extension 103.

Sincerely,

Multiple Violations of Section 106.05, Florida Statutes: Josue Larose, candidate for the Office of Governor and chairman and treasurer to 341 political committees and 40 minor political parties registered with the Florida Division of Elections, failed to deposit in the campaign depository all funds received within five business days of receipt as alleged in the complaint.

You may respond to the allegations above by filing a notarized statement providing any information regarding the facts and circumstances surrounding the allegations. If you choose to file a response to the complaint, you should do so within 20 days of the date you receive this letter. Your response will be included as an attachment to the investigator's report.

When we conclude the investigation, you will receive a copy of the Report of Investigation. You may file a response to the report within 14 days from the date the report is mailed to you. Based on the results of the investigation, legal staff will make a written recommendation to the Commission on whether there is probable cause to believe you have violated Chapter 104 or 106, Florida Statutes. You will receive a copy of the Staff Recommendation and may file a response within 14 days from the date the recommendation is mailed to you. Your timely filed response(s) will be considered by the Commission when determining probable cause.

The Commission will then hold a hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe you have violated Chapter 104 or 106, Florida Statutes. You and the complainant will receive a notice of hearing at least 14 days before the hearing. The notice of hearing will indicate the location, date, and time of your hearing. You will have the opportunity to make a brief oral statement to the Commission, but you will not be permitted to testify or call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence. The Commission also may allow the complainant to make a brief oral statement.

At any time before a probable cause finding, you may notify us in writing that you want to enter into negotiations directed towards reaching a settlement via consent agreement.

The Report of Investigation, Staff Recommendation, and Notice of Hearing will be mailed to the same address as this letter. Therefore, if your address changes, you must notify the investigator assigned to this case of your new address. Otherwise, you may not receive the correspondence from the staff. Failure to receive the documents will not delay the probable cause hearing.

Under section 106.25, Florida Statutes, complaints, Commission investigations, investigative reports, and other documents relating to an alleged violation of Chapters 104 and 106, Florida Statutes, are confidential until the Commission finds probable cause or no probable cause. The confidentiality provision does not apply to the person filing the complaint. However, it does apply to you, the Respondent, unless you waive confidentiality in writing. The confidentiality provision does not preclude you from seeking legal counsel. However, if you retain counsel, your attorney must file a notice of appearance with the Commission before any member of the Commission staff can discuss this case with him or her.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Tracie Aulet, the investigator assigned to this case, at extension 114.

RE: Case No.: FEC 10-368

Dear Mr. Larose:

The Florida Elections Commission has received a complaint filed against you for allegedly violating Florida's elections laws.

The Commission staff is reviewing the complaint to determine whether it is legally sufficient, warranting a further investigation. You will be notified in approximately two weeks what action, if any, will be taken regarding the complaint.

It is not necessary for you to respond to the complaint. If it is determined that an investigation is warranted, you will have the opportunity to respond at that time.

Under section 106.25, Florida Statutes, complaints, Commission investigations, investigative reports, and other documents relating to an alleged violation of Chapters 104 and 106, Florida Statutes, are confidential until the Commission finds probable cause or no probable cause. Re: Division of Elections' Referral of Information to Florida Elections Commission

Dear Ms. Catalano:

The Division of Elections, Florida Department of State, refers a matter to you under section 106.25(2), Florida Statutes, for investigation and determination.

Mr. Josue Larose, who resides at 929 SW 15th Street, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33441, is the chairman and treasurer of at least 341 political committees that he has registered with the Division of Elections. Mr. Larose submitted Forms DS-DE 6 and 9 indicating he designated certain banks as his campaign depository for each of these 341 committees (Exhibit 1) and for his candidacy for Governor in 2010 (Exhibit 2); however, in response to subpoenas issued to the designated banks (Exhibit 3), the banks only found records of Mr. Larose for some personal savings and checking accounts. They did not have any records of Mr. Larose creating accounts for his political committees or his campaign for Governor (Exhibit 4).

As you are aware, pursuant to section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes, a candidate or chairman and treasurer of committees are required to certify to the correctness of regular campaign finance reports with the Division of Elections. Mr. Larose certified the correctness of the reports by electronically filing campaign finance reports with the Division. See § 106.0705(2), Fla. Stat. (2010). Based upon records obtained from the banks (Exhibit 4) (redacted to hide his social security and full bank account numbers) and in violation of section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes, Mr. Larose falsely reported contributions amounting to millions of dollars going into the bank accounts when no deposits were made because he had not established depositories for his candidacy and committees. You may find documents and campaign finance activity for all of Mr. Larose's political committees and his candidacy for office at the Division's webpage: <http://election.dos.state.fl.us/>. A summary of the campaign finance activity for his candidacy and the political committees pertaining to the subpoenaed bank records is enclosed (Exhibit 5). If, as he reported, Mr. Larose received contributions and made expenditures for his candidacy and as treasurer and chairman for the 341 political committees, he violated sections 106.05 and 106.11, Florida Statutes, in not depositing them into, or making expenditures from, properly designated campaign accounts.

Ms. Valencia St. Louis, also residing at 929 SW 15th Street, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33441, as the treasurer of Mr. Larose's campaign for Governor (see Exhibit 2), apparently also falsely certified the campaign finance reports for Mr. Larose's campaign in violation of sections 106.05, 106.07(5), and 106.11, Florida Statutes, due to campaign accounts not existing for the campaign deposits and expenditures which were reported as being made (see Exhibit 5).

The Division hereby requests that the Commission exercise its jurisdiction to investigate and determine appropriate penalties for Mr. Larose and Ms. St. Louis for any violations the Commission finds that they have committed based upon their actions as set forth in this letter and its enclosures.

Please feel free to contact Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Election Records, Division of Elections, at 850-245-6240 if you have questions about the campaign finance reports pertaining to this matter.

Political Parties registered with the State of Florida.

RECEIVED

FEDERAL ELECTIONS COMMISSION

Dear Ms. Tracie,

Pursuant to my conversation with you 2 weeks ago by telling that I was received a bad advice from an employee from the Division of Elections, I send you this letter to inform the Florida Elections Commission about the situation.

As the treasurer of different PACs, ECOs and Minor Political Parties registered with the Division of Elections, I was needing some advices to file the reports and I was calling the Division of Elections to find the advice. I was talking to an employee of the Division of Elections who was telling me that I can use my salary as a contribution to file the reports for my PACs and for my Parties He told me by the Florida Elections laws, I can choose to receive a salary from each PAC, each ECO and each Political Party, but because the PACs, the ECOs and Political Parties don't receive no monetary contributions from the general public, I can not give a payroll check to myself, but I can use the salary as a contribution giving back to the PACs, ECOs and the Political Parties.

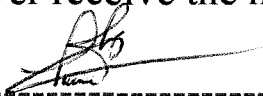

Therefore, all the contributions reported to the PACs and to the Political Parties were not the monetary contributions, but they are in-kind contributions, considered as my salary receiving from them

After receiving a letter from the Florida Elections Commission regarding this matter, I was calling Mr Gary J. Holland to tell him that I was received a bad advice from an employee from the Division of Elections concerning the amounts of contributions. Mr. Gary J. Holland told me if I make a report amendment for each PAC and Political Party, everything will be okay with the Division. He told me to send a letter to the Florida Elections Commission to explain the situation and the Members will dismiss this case for me

Furthermore all the reports for the PACs and for the Political Parties are already amended since the month of December 2010. Now all the amounts for the PACs and the Political Parties are zeros, because they never receive no monetary contributions from the general public and the businesses in the United States.

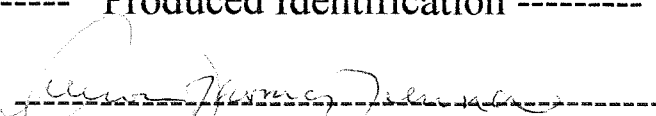

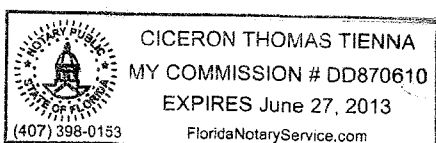

On Mr. Gary J. Holland recommendations, I send you this letter to inform the Florida Elections Commission that all reports of the PACs and the Political Parties are already amended to zero. Then you can dismiss this case, because there is no violation and I never fail to deposit the monetary contributions for the PACs.

My name is Josue Larose, I certify that I never fail to deposit the monetary contributions for the PACs and Political Parties. Because they never receive the monetary contributions from anyone.

1. Date and time: December 9, 2010 @ Approx 2:15 p.m.

Name: Kristi Reid-Bronson, Division of Elections

Phone #: 245.6295

Summary: I telephoned and asked the elections records bureau chief whether the subpoenas to Citi Bank, AmTrust Bank, and Bank Atlantic, included with the material forwarded to our office by Mr. Holland, represents all the subpoenas pertaining to Respondent's 2010 campaign for the office of Governor. Ms. Bronson advised me that it does; she said no other subpoenas were issued for this campaign. I advised Ms. Bronson that I had noted that Mr. Holland's referral letter advises our office that Respondent is the chairman and treasurer of at least 341 political committees—a number represented when totaling the names of the PCs disclosed in the appendix to the subpoenas—yet I appear to count supporting documents, reports summary etc., for but 332 PCs. Ms. Bronson said that the referral did not include Respondent's activity pertaining to all the PCs. Ms. Bronson had to get to an office meeting so that was the end of our discussion.

Summary: Respondent telephoned and advised me that he had received our letter and a copy of the material sent to our office from the Division of Elections; he made reference to FEC 10-368. Respondent spoke to me for 33 minutes before the telephone call was terminated; for some unknown reason my telephone line just went dead. However, while Respondent was on the telephone line, he appeared to be complaining that this is all some kind of a big mistake or misunderstanding; I was having great difficulty understanding his dialect but I got better with time. I was able to decipher "Kristi Bronson," "Division of Elections," "Told to include a bank on the form." I understood him say, "The form asks me to lie when it asks for a name." It also sounded as if Respondent was complaining about needing $500 to be a political committee. I advised Respondent that if he did not have $500 in contribution or expenditure activity, or if he did not anticipate having that level of activity, for a particular committee, then perhaps the committee is not a "political committee."

I reviewed with Respondent the definition of a political committee pursuant to Section 106.011(1)(a), Florida Statutes; it is not clear whether Respondent understood. Ten minutes or so later, Respondent declared, "I'm going to amend my reports to show nothing ..." I in turn asked Respondent, "Why would you do that"? Respondent did not offer an explanation.

I advised Respondent that I was a bit confused about what appeared to be his concern about the $500 threshold as part of the definition of a political committee. I asserted that considering the fact that he has reported millions of dollars worth of expenditures and contributions by and for his various political committees, the $500 threshold appeared to be moot. Respondent began talking about his salary. As I could best decipher, Respondent was telling me that he contributed portions of his salary to his various political committees.

I advised Respondent that he could contribute to his committees. I also explained that each of his political committees must have its own bank account—depository—to accept all monetary contributions regardless of the source. In addition, I advised Respondent that when the committee needs to purchase advertising, supplies or anything else, such expenses are to be paid for with a check drawn upon funds in the committee's depository. I advised Respondent that this principle also applies when he is a candidate for public office. For an example, I asserted that his 2010 gubernatorial campaign required its own bank account to accept the more than eight million dollars in contributions, seven million in loans, and from which to pay more than 15 million dollars in expenses as was reported to the Division of Elections.

Respondent again stated that he would amend his reports to show no activity. I told Respondent that the mere thought of such plans concerned me, greatly. I explained that his plans made no sense to me because it was difficult for me to understand how he could make such a mistake after having reported millions of dollars in activity. I asserted, "Your committees either had millions of dollars in reportable activity or they did not. But now you appear to be saying the committees had no activity." I explained that while I could understand the possibility of a contribution or an expenditure for a committee with a great deal of activity going unreported by mistake, I could not understand the extremes of millions of dollars in activity and no activity—clearly, it is one or the other. I declared that one does not make such a "mistake." Either there was a record amount of activity or there was none.

Finally, I advised Respondent that it would be helpful if he would submit a type-written response to our office pertaining to the information provided by the Division of Elections.

Phone #: 954-640-8440

Summary: I informed R that I was the investigator assigned to his case, and encouraged him to submit a written response as soon as possible. R stated he had spoken with Gary Holland and Mr. Holland told him to make amendments to his PC reports and write a letter to the Commission explaining what happened, and everything would be okay. I stated to R that while I was aware he had changed his many reports to reflect $0 in activity, I still had to go forward with the investigation. R stated he received bad advice from a Division employee. I asked R to explain how bad advice from an employee led him to report millions of dollars in activity in his gubernatorial and the more than 300 PC treasurer's reports. As best I could understand, R stated the following: he called the Division about four months ago and asked "what is the maximum salary a chairman can get paid;" he was told there is no maximum. When you are trying to get your name out there and someone asks your salary, you can tell them anything you want to make yourself look good. So for example, if someone asks you (meaning me) how much money you make, no one notices if you only say thousands. But if you say are a millionaire, people will take notice. I then asked R the following series of questions:

Q: Did you get paid a million dollars?

A: No.

Q: Did any of your PCs or your gubernatorial campaign receive any contributions?

A: No.

Q: Did you receive a salary from any of your PCs?

A: No.

Q: How are you employed?

A: I am self-employed.

Q: Did you receive any contributions for anything?

A: I received no monetary contributions. In-kind contributions were my own time and money. I did not receive contributions from anyone else.

Q: Don't you think there is something wrong with filing reports that appeared to contain inaccurate information?

At that point R appeared to become somewhat agitated. He stated that he was being attacked by reporters and he needed to show them that he had financial activity on the same level as his opponents. I stated I still did not understand why he would report, for example, $1,201,500 in contributions when clearly there were no contributions. R

repeated that he was given bad advice. R then attempted to discuss his wife's case. I stated I would not discuss her case with him. R stated "Valencia is very angry" because she never filed a report; she doesn't know how to file reports. R stated she gave him her PIN and he filed all his own reports. R stated that the employees at the Division "don't qualify to give advice because they don't speak English." I asked R for the number he used to call the Division; he stated 850-245-6240 but he could not remember who he spoke with. I asked R if he was ever investigated by the Federal Elections Commission; he stated no. I asked R if any of the PCs had a bank account; he stated no. I asked R what the purpose was for opening all these PCs. R stated to support state issues, amendments, candidates, and name recognition for himself. Once again, I encouraged R to submit a written response to the referral as soon as possible. I explained that once I received his response I would be sending him an affidavit to clarify any questions I may have regarding his statement, as well as other questions I may have after a more thorough review of his case. Name: Gary Holland, Division of Elections
Summary: I asked Mr. Holland about R's claims that he advised R that if he amended his reports to $0 and wrote a letter explaining to the Commission explaining what happened then everything would be okay. Mr. Holland stated that in no way did he advise R on what the Commission would do, nor did he advise R to amend his reports. Mr. Holland stated he advised R to close down the PCs, and the only thing R could do as far as the referral was to write a response to the Commission that might mitigate some of the offenses committed. Mr. Holland stated he was very clear in telling R that he could not give R legal advice, and suggested that R might want to get legal counsel. Mr. Holland stated that what raised his attention to look into R contributions was a $500 contribution that was reported as coming from a female Catholic priest. Mr. Holland repeated that he told R it was up to the Commission as to what would happen with the referrals. Mr. Holland stated R told him the reason behind all the committees was to become known and run for state office. Mr. Holland stated that because of R, DOE is proposing legislation regarding the formation of political parties that would be retroactive. Mr. Holland stated he informed the statewide prosecutor's office but they declined to take action as R is not a public official and they do not have jurisdiction; he also contacted FDLE and they declined to take action because R amended the reports.

I was then transferred to Kristi Reid-Bronson who informed me while there isn't anything in the statute that limits the salary of the chair or treasurer, obviously there would have to be sufficient contributions to pay the salary, which would then be reported as an expenditure. Ms. Bronson stated she specifically told R that changing the reports would not fix the problem because it was already referred to the Commission.

Summary: R asked if I received his statement; I stated yes. R asked that since I had the statement and his reports were amended, was everything okay now. I stated no. R asked why. I reminded R that I specifically told him, as did Ms. Bronson and Mr. Holland that amending the reports and writing the statement would not stop the investigation. R became agitated and stated the following: this was all a “mistake;” DOE does not do their job; if you look online you will see many PCs with little or no contributions and more than $50,000 in expenditures, how is that possible; he is being targeted because he is black; he intends to file at least 50 complaints with the FEC because there are other PCs misreporting funds yet he is the only one that anyone is going after; reporters kept calling him so he did it to make it look like he had money and to stop discrimination against him; DOE did not notify him he was doing anything wrong. I asked R what, exactly, was DOE supposed to notify him of; he stated that in the statute it says DOE is supposed to notify you if something is wrong with your reports. I stated that while that may be true, DOE is not responsible for checking to see if you’ve really received all the contributions you reported. I asked R what he thought the purpose of campaign treasurer’s report was; he stated so the public and DOE would know what he was doing. R stated everyday he received phone calls and he did this to stop people from thinking he never raised any money; he further stated he thought it would be okay as long as he amended the reports when the campaign was done. I then asked R the following series of questions:

Q: If you know the purpose of the reports is to inform the public of your financial activities, wouldn’t filing reports that appear to be false defeat the purpose?

A: I didn’t do it to be a bad thing. Reporters were calling and asking questions; I had to show them that I had money also. DOE never informed me that I was doing anything wrong.

Q: Why would DOE have reason to believe you were doing anything wrong?

A: The statute says they are supposed to notify me if there is something wrong with my reports. They never said I was reporting too much money. They don’t do their job.

Q: When you signed the reports, you were certifying that the reports were true, accurate and complete. That means that anyone looking at them could infer that because your signature is on the report, that the information contained in the report is true. Why would DOE have reason to believe anything other than that?

A: There were plenty of contributions I made that I didn’t even report, such as computers for the campaign that were in-kind contributions. I knew I would be keeping it after the campaign so I didn’t report them because I didn’t want anybody to be confused.

Q: Don't you think people will be confused when they look at your reports and see millions of dollars in contributions and expenditures all amended to $0?

A: It was a mistake.

Q: Did you receive the acknowledgement letters that tell you where to find the election law statutes and the Handbook?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you review the statutes?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you review the Handbooks?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you review the section regarding how to report in-kind contributions, so that no one would be confused about what kind of contributions they were?

A: This was all just a mistake. I didn't do this to be a bad thing.

Q: Do you recall the auto fine cases I had with you some time ago?

A: Yes.

Q: You had originally reported some activity but when you realized you were being fined for late reporting you amended the reports to waivers and you said it was a mistake. Do you remember that?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you remember the revocation cases I had with you a while ago?

A: Yes.

Q: You had originally filed waivers but when you realized your PCs were going to be revoked you amended the reports to show monetary contributions. At first you agreed to submit collaborating information regarding the contributions then you amended the reports to say they were in-kind contributions. You said that was a mistake too. Do you remember that?

A: No. That time I was confused. You had woke me up out of my sleep (sic).

Q: Well if you made similar mistakes at least twice before, why didn't you change your system so that these mistakes wouldn't be made again?

A: What did I tell you before? If you go to the Division's website, there are PCs who hardly made any money and they are reporting thousands of dollars in expenditures. Now you tell me why no one is saying anything about that.

Q: If you know of a PC that is spending more than what they receive in contributions, you are more than welcome to file a complaint.

A: I am going to file at least 50 complaints.

Q: Okay. Are you going by what they reported in a reporting period, or how much the PC has altogether? Because for one report they may have only reported $500 in contributions and $50,000 in expenditures, but in the previous report they may have received $50,000 in contributions. You don't necessarily have to spend your contributions in the same reporting period. They can be built up.

A: I am telling you; there are.

Q: Okay, why don't you send me examples of where that's happening (I gave him my fax number). How are you employed?

A: I'm a lobbyist since 2003. I represent clients to the federal government.

Q: How many clients do you have?

A: 60 clients.

Q: I will need to speak with your wife concerning her case. Would you please have her call me?

A: She just had a baby. You may send her to the hospital.

Q: How would I send her to the hospital?

A: She just had a baby. She cannot answer a whole lot of questions like this with the way you're asking questions. She may get very upset because she just had a baby. I may have to call 911 when you are finished. I don't want her to have to go to the hospital.

Q: In the revocation cases you said that she helped you file reports for all your PCs but the other day you said she does not know how to file reports. Does she know how to file reports or not?

A: She didn't file reports. She helped when the letters came in for all the PCs taking out the PINs and cleaning up papers. Everybody makes mistakes.

Q: Are you a billionaire?

A: No.

Q: Are you a millionaire?

A: No.

Q: Did you know when you signed those reports that you didn't have that money?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you know when you signed those reports that you were certifying to the correctness of reports that were not correct?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you even open a depository for any of your committees?

A: No.

Q: For your gubernatorial campaign?

A: No.

I told R that he would be receiving an affidavit from me and in the meantime would he please forward me the information on the PCs he claims are spending more money than they are making. (80 mins)

Obscure PAC Man Claims 87 New K Street Clients

By Alex Knott
Roll Call Staff
July 12 2010 Midnight

From billionaires to beverage companies, capitalists to colleges and sheriffs to software corporations, Josue Larose appears to have become an almost overnight K Street phenomenon with an amazingly diverse clientele. But this portfolio may not be what it seems.

During five days in late May, Larose and his company, the American Federal Lobbying Firm, filed documents with Congress stating that he registered 87 new clients representing almost every sector in the country. To put that number into perspective, fewer than 20 of the 2,600-plus registered lobbying firms operating in the nation's capital have more clients than this single lobbyist registered in one week.

Larose did not return phone calls for this article. But a man who answered the phone at the Fort Lauderdale, Fla., firm and gave his name as Stanley Cater said Larose had already been in touch with the Senate about his lobbying filings.

"There is nothing wrong, and he has already talked to the U.S. Senate about that," said Cater, an assistant to Larose. "They called him and asked why he filed so much in a short period of time."

Larose's clients may have monikers that sound like typical lobbying organizations: American Private Equity Firm, United States Network Marketing Company and United States International Airlines. But public documents show that they are anything but ordinary.

For instance, there are no records of any of Larose's clients having lobbied the federal government before signing on with him. The majority of his clients are listed as political action committees on Senate records; PACs rarely lobby Congress. And nearly all 87 of Larose's clients are listed either at the address of his lobbying firm or another post office box he maintains.

Cater said that many of these PACs and organizations have the same address as Larose because Larose is the leader or chairman of these groups, which are registered at the Federal Election Commission, the state of Florida and some county offices. "He is the chairman of the PAC, and he is the lobbyist of the PAC," Cater said. "There is nothing wrong with that."

Many of Larose's clients don't appear to exist — except perhaps on paper — including America's Elite Magazine and United States Times Newspaper.

While they are registered to lobby on an assortment of issues, at least 20 of the organizations say they are looking for federal grants. That has Washington, D.C., watchdog organizations raising questions.

"The whole situation sounds exceedingly peculiar," said Craig Holman, a lobbyist for Public Citizen.

Even stranger still, some of Larose's clients could potentially square off against each other. For instance, Larose is asking the government to fine the BP for its oil spill disaster on behalf of his client American Cruise Lines Companies PAC. But he also represents the American Petroleum Companies PAC (not to be confused with the Big Oil lobby American Petroleum Institute).

Larose's petroleum client isn't his only one that has a similar name to some of K Street's biggest interests. For example, the American Federal Lobbying Firm is registered to represent the American Chambers of Commerce PAC and two other PACs that sound similar to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce — the biggest client on K Street spending nearly $440 million since 1998 — or its affiliates.

Larose also registered American Pharmaceutical Laboratories PAC, similar to the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America, which has spent $180 million in the past dozen years.
