This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

See further instructions on the reverse side.

Tim Vaccaro

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
August 1, 2023

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

RE: 2022 G3 - Late Campaign Treasurer Report

Dear Ms. Alvarez,

This letter is to advise of the following:

Late filing of your 2022 G3 Campaign Treasurer Report

The 2022 G3 Campaign Treasurer Report was filed at 6:13 a.m. Saturday, November 5, 2022. Reports shall be filed no later than 11:59 p.m. of the day designated, which was Friday, November 4, 2022. Any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first 3 days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding each special primary election, special election, primary election, and general election, the fine is $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

All fines incurred must be paid from the candidate's personal funds - not campaign funds - and are due to the qualifying officer within 20 days of receipt of this notice. Reference Sections 106.07 (2) and (8), Fla. Stat.

The fee for filing the 2022 G3 Campaign Treasurer Report is $500.00.

($500 per day for the first 1 day late. 1 day x $500 = $500.00)

Greetings

My name is Alexandra Alvarez, and I am requesting an appeal for amount fined after turning in report 2022 G3 six hours late. I would like the amount prorated or appealed considering that it was not a full 24-hour period, and I was dealing with the effects of being harassed by two residents during this reporting period. Furthermore, as a new candidate the time frame of the report was different from what I expected considering that the last report is not filed until a few months after and a week prior we turned in a report and this was the first time I ever filed late. Please see the attached information and please feel free to reach out by phone. I can be reached at 9545599888.

Subject: Campaign Report Late Fee

Good Morning,

I hope this day finds you well. I am in receipt of the letter you provided and mailed to my address, opened on November 21, 2022. The letter states that I am to reply within 20 days. However, considering that information was not emailed (previous form of communication) and offices were closed Sunday, November 27, 2022. I am replying today and I am politely asking for a prorated amount to be charged considering that I was late for a total of six hours and 13 minutes and not a total of 24 hours on said Campaign report 2022 G3. Also, is it possible for you to provide the legislation or guide you are using for the amount indicated as it was not provided on letter mailed to my home address. In your letter you stated that my filing fee is $500.00 ($500 per day for the first day late). However, as I mentioned I was not late a full day, and I am asking for a prorated amount. Furthermore, are there any measures for getting this fee waived? Any exceptions or clarifications will be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

In Gratitude,

Dr. Alexandra Alvarez
