Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am in receipt of your correspondence dated August 17, 2016. In response to same, I would like to initiate the appeals process via the Florida Elections Commission.

The reason for my appeal is due to personal, unforeseen circumstances. On August 4, 2016, my brother, lost his battle with stage four cancer. In the days following my brother's untimely death, I took time off of work to both grieve and make the necessary postmortem arrangements. The day that I watched the mortician gurney my brother out of his home, I had to begin planning his celebration of life service, burial, and repast. During the week leading up to the service, I was engulfed in all of the endless tasks of planning a funeral. My tasks included paying for and overseeing the obituary, paying for and finding a location for the repast, finding a burial plot, meetings with the funeral home, meetings with the church, and slew of other tasks.

The funeral was Saturday, August 13, 2016, and while the service was immensely sad, it was beautifully executed. My brother's death is very recent and this is all still extremely heartbreaking for me. However, I do not want my candidate to be penalized for my temporary lapse. I was so riddled with grief and overwhelmed with planning that I honestly forgot about the report.

For the purposes of providing your office with documentation evidencing the reason for my appeal, I have enclosed his obituary and other relevant documents. Thank you so much for your time and consideration. If you have any questions or concerns, please call me at 407-963-5149 (cell) or e-mail me at stgray.law@gmail.com.

Yours respectfully,

Sade Tianna Gray

A Glimpse Into the Life of Kevin Shawn Blyden, Jr.

Kevin Shawn Blyden, Jr., was born in Tampa, Florida, on May 28, 1990, to Ernestine Helena Berkeley and Kevin Shawn Blyden. Better known to his family and friends by his middle name, Shawn, he was a quiet yet rambunctious child who warmed our hearts. Shawn accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at a young age; his most recent church affiliation is Faith Assembly of God in Orlando, Florida.

Early in life, Shawn developed a love for sports and excelled as an athlete on the track field, basketball court, and the football field! From Pop Warner to College, the love of football played a major role in Shawn's life. In 2008, Shawn graduated from Timber Creek High School in Orlando, Florida. Upon graduation from high school, Shawn attended Averett University in Danville, Virginia, where he played division three football. In 2013, Shawn graduated from Florida International University with his Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice. Shortly thereafter, he became a Fraud Analyst for Tracfone Wireless. Shawn was also a personal trainer who valued a healthy lifestyle and encouraged others to be their best mentally and physically.

Because of Shawn's West Indian background, he spent many summers on the island of St. Thomas in the U.S.V.I. This is where his love for the beach was fostered; Shawn was often referred to as a little fish due to his love of the water. Even as an adult, Shawn could be found relaxing on the beautiful beaches of Miami, Florida.

Shawn is remembered by all as being kind, funny, loving, humble, and an all-around great guy! Known for his many talents on and off the football field, Kevin aka Shawn aka KEVO will always be remembered as our hometown MVP.

Shawn is preceded in death by his paternal Grandfather, Abraham Blyden. Shawn is survived by his Grandmother and Grandfather, Walter and Mavis Berkeley, Grandmother, Elma Blyden, Father and Mother, Kevin Shawn Blyden and Ernestine Helena Berkeley, Siblings, Danielle Blyden, Paris Blyden, Shanice Blyden, and K'mani Blyden, Fiancé, Ivonne Narvaez, Uncles, Lacille Berkeley (Angela), Wilton Berkeley, Aunts, Andrea Ramsey (Timothy), Debi Berkeley, Lydia Berkeley, and Casey Butler, Uncles, Glen Blyden, Brent Blyden (Josette), Craig Blyden, Merv Blyden (Stephanie), Maritza Blyden, Laurelene Blyden, Yolanda Blyden, and a host of great-aunts, great-uncles, cousins, other family, and friends.

Tributes

Our grandson,

There is joy in our hearts to know that you are with our Savior. However, we are sad that we did not get enough of you. Shawn, you are just a special boy. You are peaceful, loving, kind, respectful, and altogether lovely. Today, you are painless and enjoying Jesus. It was very hard to see you go, but to know you were bound for heaven, we just had to let go. Our loss is heavens gain. So we take comfort and because our hope is in Jesus, we know that we will see you again. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. You will always be in our heart until we see you in heaven. We will miss you greatly. Especially when you asked for special treats. And of all the treats anyone gave you, Grandma's treats got the thumbs up. You and I had a very special bond, only Jesus knows. Whenever grandad approached your room, you both prayed together. Grandad's job was to rub your back and give you exercise. So we are thankful for the privilege to pamper and spoil you. "What shall separate us from the love of Christ? Nothing." Romans 8:35. Sleep on until we meet again. - Walter and Mavis Berkeley

To our brother,

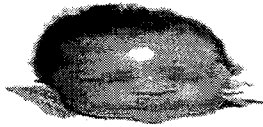

There are no words for the loss that we feel. You are our brother and things will never be the same. Time is something we all take for granted, we had so many plans, like you travelling with Danielle and Shanice on their adventures around the world, and you having the Madden Battle with K'mani; and Paris was looking forward to you seeing her walk across the Timber Creek stage and dropping her off to college at FAU. But there is never enough time to spend with the people we love, so we are comforted by all the memories we shared, and who you were as a person. The way you encouraged us to shoot for the stars, the way you got mad when Shanice, Danielle, and Paris talked about getting boyfriends, the brotherly advice you gave to K'mani about girls. This is so hard, and we are hurting without you, but we are so grateful to have experienced your beautiful soul and spirit. Let's face it, you were a brother to everyone, not just us. We will miss seeing your face, but your spirit will be here with us forever. We love you sooo much Shawn.
- Shanice, Danielle, K'Mani, and Paris Blyden

My dearest Shawn,

You have always been a well disciplined and caring child. My fondest memories of you are when you were a child. You and Danielle would stay at my home and I would sing nursery rhymes to you and do ABC and arithmetic lessons. Whenever you guys came to St. Thomas, you, Danielle, and Shanice would look forward to Grandad making "Homemade Ice Cream." You would churn the ice cream until it was ready for consumption. I remember you all going to the beach (Coki Point) with your dad and aunties. When you came home, we would give you a bath outside on the porch then eat mango from my tree. When I last saw you, you reminded me of what I always said to you all as kids. You said that whenever it was time to clean up, I would say, "What's wrong with this picture?" and you all knew right away that it was clean up time. Grandma loves you and will miss you. - Grandma Blyden

P.S. My everlasting love to my son, Kevin, Ernestine Danielle, Paris, Shanice, and K'mani

Tributes

To my only son,

It is an honor to be your mom, and I am grateful to have experienced your light here on earth. The bond we have is unbreakable and as I search for the words to describe our relationship I always come up short. Our connection was strong enough for you to spend your youngest years sleeping on my back, literally. From that time, I knew you would always protect me, and I would protect you. A mother's love is unconditional and it has no limits. Shawn I am so proud of the man you have become, and all the accomplishments you made despite the challenges laid in your path. From your first steps as a toddler, to your steps into the heavenly realm, I will always be by your side. You are my first and only son, and you always will be. — Love, Mommy

My dearest firstborn son, Shawn,

It is with the heaviest of heart that I have to write this farewell to you. I never thought I would ever be in this position, and I've come to realize it is the hardest thing I've ever experienced in my entire life. Shawn, as I saw you take your last breath, I felt as though my heart was ripped out of chest. My life will forever be left with a constant void that can never, ever be replaced. My mind is telling me you're in a better place and out of pain. I understand that. I just wish someone would explain it to my heart. Then when I think about the good times, I smile knowing that you were a wonderful son. Handsome, educated, spiritual, great personality, and most of all a great person. I don't know how I'm going to cope without you my son. I know it won't be easy. However, I know that you are out of your misery and I find comfort in that. You fought the fine fight my son and I wish I could have stood in your place to bear the brunt of it. Unfortunately, this is something I had no control over. I'm thankful for the many memories I will have to learn to depend on to get me through the rest of my days without you. A thousand wishes can't bring you back because I've tried. A thousand tears won't bring you back because I've cried. I will always love you forever and a day, my son. - Love always, Daddy

To my love,

You left me beautiful memories, your love is still my guide, and though we cannot see you, you're always at my side. You will forever be my always."- Ivonne

Pin Numbers

Pin numbers are confidential secure credentials that allow you to submit reports and update personal information. The enclosed sealed envelope contains your confidential pin numbers.

Each candidate is required to provide the Division of Elections with confidential personal information that may be used to allow access in the event that password is forgotten or lost. When you enter the campaign account screen, there will be a drop down box where you pick a question (such as What is your mother's maiden name?) and supply an answer. All passwords and answers to questions are stored as encrypted data and cannot be viewed by Division staff and given out over the phone. Please notify the Division if your credentials have been compromised.

Timely Filing

All reports filed must be completed and filed through the EFS no later than midnight, Eastern Standard Time, of the due date. Reports not filed by midnight of the due date are late filed and subject to the penalties in Section 106.07(8), Florida Statutes. In the event that the EFS is inoperable on the due date, the report will be accepted as timely filed if filed no later than midnight of the first business day the EFS becomes operable. No fine will be levied during the period the EFS was inoperable.

Any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first 3 days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Electronic Receipts

The person submitting the report on the EFS will be issued an electronic receipt indicating and verifying the report was filed. Each campaign treasurer's report filed by means of the EFS is considered to be under oath by the candidate and campaign treasurer and such persons are subject to the provisions of Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes.
