If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

ORDER OF PROBABLE CAUSE

THIS MATTER was heard by the Florida Elections Commission (Commission) at its regularly scheduled meeting on November 19, 2019, in Tallahassee, Florida.

In Re: The Big Blue Tent

Case No.: FEC 19-235

STAFF RECOMMENDATION FOLLOWING INVESTIGATION

Pursuant to Section 106.25(4)(c), Florida Statutes, undersigned staff counsel files this written recommendation for disposition of the referral in this case recommending that there is probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes, and that there is no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes. Based upon a thorough review of the Report of Investigation submitted on August 19, 2019, the following facts and law support this staff recommendation:

1. On April 10, 2019, the Florida Elections Commission (“Commission”) received a referral from the Department of State, Division of Elections (“Division”), alleging that The Big Blue Tent (“Respondent”) violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

2. Respondent is a political committee registered with the Division. (ROI Exhibit 2)¹

3. By letter dated June 5, 2019, the Executive Director notified Respondent that Commission staff would investigate the following statutory provisions:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a political committee registered with the Division of Elections, failed to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because it had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2019 M1 reporting period.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a political committee registered with the Division of Elections, may have falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, when it failed to file a report on the prescribed reporting date for the 2019 M1 reporting period.

4. By letter dated June 26, 2017, Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Election Records, sent Respondent a letter acknowledging that the Division had received its Statement of Organization and Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for Political Committees forms. (ROI Exhibit 3, page 1)

5. The acknowledgment letter advised Respondent that all political committees filing reports with the Division are required to use the electronic filing system (“EFS”), and provided Respondent with a user identification number and initial password to grant access to the EFS. (ROI Exhibit 3, page 1) The letter further advised Respondent that all of the Division’s publications and reporting forms were available on its website and directed Respondent to print out the Calendar of Reporting Dates as well as other relevant documents. (ROI Exhibit 3, page 3)

6. Respondent’s 2019 M1 Report was due to be filed by February 11, 2019; however, Respondent failed to timely file the report or notify the filing officer that no report would be filed. (ROI Exhibit 8, page 1) By letters dated February 12, 2019, March 1, 2019, and March 19, 2019, the Division notified Respondent that its 2019 M1 Report had not been received. The letters also notified Respondent that it was still required to notify the Division if the committee had no reportable financial activity. (ROI Exhibits 4 & 5) The March 19, 2019 letter was confirmed delivered. (ROI Exhibit 5, page 2)

7. A subpoena was issued to Respondent’s designated campaign depository to ascertain whether any financial activity occurred during the relevant reporting period, i.e., January 1, 2019 – January 31, 2019. The financial institution was unable to locate an account in Respondent’s name. (ROI Exhibit 6)

8. Tiffany N. Barnes, chairperson and treasurer for Respondent, stated that she did not submit a notice of no activity for the relevant reporting period as it was around the time her grandfather passed away. She also stated that all notices have now been filed with the Division. (ROI, p. 3, ¶15)

9. As it appears that Respondent had no financial activity, Respondent was required to notify the filing officer in writing that it would not be filing its 2019 M1 Report on the prescribed reporting date, but failed to do so. Therewith, it does not appear that Respondent falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information in its 2019 M1 Report as the report was waived due to a lack of reportable financial activity.

10. On August 6, 2019, Respondent notified the filing officer that no report would be filed. The notification was 176 days late. (ROI Exhibit 8, page 1)

11. “Probable Cause” is defined as reasonable grounds of suspicion supported by circumstances sufficiently strong to warrant a cautious person in the belief that the person has committed the offense charged. Schmitt v. State, 590 So. 2d 404, 409 (Fla. 1991). Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances, of which an [investigator] has reasonably trustworthy information, are sufficient in themselves for a reasonable man to reach the conclusion that an offense has been committed. Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles v. Favino, 667 So. 2d 305, 309 (Fla. 1st DCA 1995).

12. The facts set forth above show that Respondent is a political committee registered with the Division. Respondent failed to timely file its 2019 M1 Report or notify the filing officer that no report would be filed. It appears that Respondent had no financial activity during the relevant reporting period, and therefore, was required to notify the filing officer in writing that it would not be filing the committee's 2019 M1 Report on the prescribed reporting date, but failed to do so. Therewith, it does not appear that Respondent falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information in its 2019 M1 Report as the report was waived due to a lack of reportable financial activity.

Based upon these facts and circumstances, I recommend that the Commission find no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, and find probable cause to charge Respondent with violating the following:

Count 1:

On or about February 11, 2019, The Big Blue Tent violated Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes, when it failed to notify the filing officer in writing on the prescribed reporting date that it would not be filing its 2019 M1 Report.

Respectfully submitted on September 10, 2019.

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION
REPORT OF INVESTIGATION
Case No.: FEC 19-235

Respondent: The Big Blue Tent

Complainant: Division of Elections

Pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, on April 10, 2019, the Florida Elections Commission (Commission) received information from the Division of Elections (Division) alleging that Respondent violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. The Division's referral was mandated pursuant to Section 106.07(8)(d), Florida Statutes. Commission staff, therefore, investigated whether Respondent violated the following statutes:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes, failure of a political committee that did not receive any contributions or make any expenditures during a reporting period to notify timely the filing officer, in writing, that no report is being filed; and

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a person or organization from falsely reporting or deliberately failing to report information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

I. Preliminary Information:

1. Respondent, The Big Blue Tent, is a political committee currently registered with the Division. Respondent's chairperson is Tiffany N. Barnes.
2. Complainant is the Division.
3. Respondent's filing officer is Kristi Reid-Willis, Chief, Bureau of Election Records.
4. On June 9, 2017, an Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for Political Committees form (DS-DE 6) was filed with the Division. Tiffany N. Barnes was appointed to serve as chairperson and treasurer for the political committee. To review the DS-DE 6 form, refer to Exhibit 1.
5. On June 23, 2017, a Statement of Organization of Political Committee form (DS-DE 5) was filed with the Division. Respondent's area, scope and jurisdiction are listed as, "Statewide political committee to support or oppose candidates for statewide, multicity, legislative, county, and municipal offices, and other activities not prohibited by Chapter 106 FS." To review the DS-DE 5 form, refer to Exhibit 2.

6. On June 26, 2017, Ms. Willis sent Ms. Barnes, in her capacity as Respondent's chairperson, a letter acknowledging Respondent had been placed on the active committee list. The letter advised Ms. Barnes that all committees filing reports with the Division are required to file by means of the Division's electronic filing system (EFS). Ms. Barnes was provided a user identification number and initial password allowing her access to the EFS.

7. The letter also advised Respondent's chairperson that all of the Division's publications and reporting forms are available on their website, including Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, the Political Committee Handbook, and the Calendar of Reporting Dates. The letter further advised Ms. Barnes that it was her responsibility to read, understand, and follow the requirements of Florida's election laws. To review the acknowledgement letter, refer to Exhibit 3.

8. On February 12 and March 1, 2019, the Division sent Respondent's chairperson letters stating she had not filed either a campaign report or notification that no reportable activity occurred and reminded her that the filing date was February 11, 2019. The letters were mailed to her at the address provided on the committee's DS-DE 5 form. To review a copy of the Division's letters, refer to Exhibit 4.

9. On March 19, 2019, the Division sent Respondent's chairperson a letter marked "Final Notice" stating that the committee's 2019 M1 report, or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, had not been filed. The Final Notice was mailed to her at the address provided on the committee's DS-DE 5 form (Exhibit 2) and was delivered on March 20, 2019. To review the letter marked "Final Notice" as well as delivery confirmation, refer to Exhibit 5.

10. On April 10, 2019, the Commission received a referral from the Division alleging that Respondent failed to report campaign activity during the 2019 M1 reporting period, or in the alternative, failed to notify the filing officer that no report would be filed. The allegations will be discussed in the paragraphs that follow.

II. Alleged Violation of Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes:

11. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by not notifying the filing officer, in writing, with a notification-of-no-activity that no report would be filed due to not receiving any contributions or making any expenditures during the 2019 M1 reporting period.

12. As per paragraph four, Respondent's DS-DE 6 form was filed with the Division on June 9, 2017; Respondent's chairperson designated Capital City Bank as the campaign depository. A subpoenaed was issued to the designated campaign depository for Respondent's campaign account records. Valerie Gould, a representative with the bank, provided a letter stating, in part, "We do not have any records documenting a client with the name as specified on the subpoena¹." To review a copy of the letter from the bank, refer to Exhibit 6.

¹ The subpoena requested documents from an account titled, "The Big Blue Tent," as specified on the political committee's DS-DE 5 and DS-DE 6 forms on file with the Division.

13. Based on the letter from the campaign depository, it appears that Respondent's chairperson was required to notify the filing officer, in writing, with a notification-of-no-activity for the 2019 M1 reporting period.

14. Respondent's chairperson did not provide a written response to the referral.

15. In a telephone interview on August 15, 2019, Ms. Barnes was asked why a notification-of-no-activity was not filed during the reporting period. She said that it was around the time of when her grandfather passed away. Ms. Barnes added that all reports have now been filed with the Division.

16. In an e-mail dated August 15, 2019, Ms. Willis stated that a notification-of-no-activity was filed covering the 2019 M1 reporting period. To review a copy of the e-mail from Ms. Willis, refer to Exhibit 7.

17. According to Respondent's filing history, the notification-of-no-activity was filed with the Division on August 6, 2019, 176 days late. To review Respondent's filing history, refer to Exhibit 8.

18. No record was found to indicate that Respondent has previously violated this section of the election laws.

III. Alleged Violation of Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes:

19. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by not reporting campaign activity during the 2019 M1 reporting period.

20. To review the circumstances regarding Respondent's campaign activity, please refer to paragraphs 12 and 13.

21. No record was found to indicate that Respondent has previously violated this section of the election laws.

IV. FEC History:

22. Respondent has no prior history with the Florida Elections Commission.

Conclusion:

23. On August 15, 2019, I interviewed Respondent's chairperson by telephone for the purpose of providing her with a brief overview of the case and to afford her an opportunity for questions or comments. Ms. Barnes said that she had nothing to add to the case at this time but added that she is in the process of taking steps to disband the political committee.

24. In addition to serving as chairperson and treasurer for Respondent, Ms. Barnes also served as the chairperson and treasurer for Florida Democratic Women's Caucus, a political committee registered with the Division. Further, Ms. Barnes was a 2016 candidate for the Wakulla County Commission, District 3; she was defeated.

Respectfully submitted on August 19, 2019.

Dear Ms. Barnes:

This will acknowledge receipt of the Statement of Organization and Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for The Big Blue Tent, which were placed on file in our office on June 23, 2017. This information appears to comply with the requirements of Section 106.03, Florida Statutes, and the name of this organization has been placed on our active committee list as a political committee.

Campaign Treasurer's Reports

Your first campaign treasurer's report will be due on July 10, 2017. The report will cover the period of June 1-30, 2017 (M6). All political committees that file reports with the Division of Elections are required to file by means of the Division's Electronic Filing System (EFS).

Credentials and Sign-ons

Below is the web address to access the EFS and the committee's user identification number. The enclosed sealed envelope contains the committee's initial password. Once you have logged in using the initial password, you will be immediately prompted to change it to a confidential sign-on. The chairperson, campaign treasurer, and deputy treasurers are responsible for protecting this password from disclosure and are responsible for all filings using these credentials, unless the Division is notified that your credentials have been compromised.

Pin Numbers

Pin numbers are confidential secure credentials that allow you to submit reports and update information. The enclosed sealed envelopes contain your confidential pin numbers.

Each political committee chairperson is required to provide the Division of Elections with confidential personal information that may be used to allow access in the event that the password is forgotten or lost. When you enter the campaign account screen, there will be a drop down box where you pick a question (such as What is your mother's maiden name?) and supply an answer. All passwords and answers to questions are stored as encrypted data and cannot be viewed by Division staff and given out over the phone. Please notify the Division if your credentials have been compromised.

Timely Filing

All reports must be completed and filed through the EFS not later than midnight, Eastern Standard Time, of the due date. Reports not filed by midnight, Eastern Standard Time, of the due date are late filed and subject to the penalties in Section 106.07(8), Florida Statutes. In the event that the EFS is inoperable on the due date, the report will be accepted as timely filed if filed no later than midnight, Eastern Standard Time, of the first business day the EFS becomes operable. No fine will be levied during the period the EFS was inoperable.

Any political committee failing to file a report on the designated due date is subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first 3 days and, thereafter, $500 per day for each day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Electronic Receipts

The person submitting the report on the EFS will be issued an electronic receipt indicating and verifying the report was filed. Each campaign treasurer's report filed by means of the EFS is considered to be under oath by the chairperson and campaign treasurer and such persons are subject to the provisions of Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes.

Dear Ms. Barnes:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was February 11, 2019.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Dear Ms. Barnes:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was February 11, 2019.

We mailed, via regular mail, the first notice of the failure to file the above-mentioned report or notification to the address on file with our office on February 12, 2019.

The first notice which we provided to you specifically explained the automatic fine provisions in the law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) for failure to file a required report. Such fines are continuing to accrue for a late-filed report. Also, that notice explained that if no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to provide notification in writing that no reportable activity occurred. Our initial notice further indicated that, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

Dear Ms. Barnes:

A recent review of the Division's records show that the Division has not yet received the below-referenced campaign treasurer's report or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable, during the following cover period:

Year	Report	Cover Period
2019	M1	1/1/19 - 1/31/19

The Division has previously notified you of the unfiled report or notification. Please file your report or notification. If the report is not filed within 7 days of receipt of this letter, the Division will refer this matter to the Florida Elections Commission, which may impose civil penalties of up to $1000 per violation, apart from that automatic fine provisions of s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) that are applicable only to campaign finance reports.

As we stated in the prior notices, even if you now file the report or notification, the untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

RE: Case No.: FEC 19-235; Respondent: The Big Blue Tent

Dear Ms. Barnes:

On April 10, 2019, the Florida Elections Commission received a complaint alleging that your committee violated Florida's election laws. I have reviewed the complaint and find that it contains one or more legally sufficient allegations. The Commission staff will investigate the following alleged violations:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a political committee registered with the Division of Elections, failed to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because it had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2019 M1 reporting period.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a political committee registered with the Division of Elections, may have falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, when it failed to file a report on the prescribed reporting date for the 2019 M1 reporting period.

When we conclude the investigation, a copy of the Report of Investigation (ROI) will be mailed to you at the above address. Based on the results of the investigation, a staff attorney will make a written recommendation (Staff Recommendation or SR) to the Commission as to whether there is probable cause to charge respondent with violating Chapters 104 or 106, Florida Statutes. You will have an opportunity to respond to both the ROI and the SR. The Commission will then hold one or more hearings to determine whether the alleged violations occurred and, if so, the amount of the fine to be imposed. You and the complainant will receive notice at least 14 days before any hearing at which your case is to be considered.

Please note that all documents related to this matter will be mailed to the above address unless you notify us of a new address. Also, please remember that complaints, Commission investigations, investigative reports, and other documents relating to an alleged violation of Chapters 104 or 106, Florida Statutes, are confidential until the Commission finds probable cause or no probable cause.

For additional information, please refer to the "Frequently Asked Questions" section of the Commission's website (www.fec.state.fl.us).

If you have additional questions, please contact Keith Smith, the investigator assigned to this case.

Dear Ms. Barnes:

A recent review of the Division's records show that the Division has not yet received the below-referenced campaign treasurer's report or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable, during the following cover period:

Year	Report	Cover Period

The Division has previously notified you of the unfiled report or notification. Please file your report or notification. If the report is not filed within 7 days of receipt of this letter, the Division will refer this matter to the Florida Elections Commission, which may impose civil penalties of up to $1000 per violation, apart from that automatic fine provisions of s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) that are applicable only to campaign finance reports.

As we stated in the prior notices, even if you now file the report or notification, the untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.
