Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

In Re: Robert Prater

Case No.: FEC 18-052

STAFF RECOMMENDATION FOLLOWING INVESTIGATION

Pursuant to Section 106.25(4)(c), Florida Statutes, undersigned staff counsel files this written recommendation for disposition of the complaint in this case recommending that there is probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.143(1)(a), Florida Statutes. Based upon a thorough review of the Report of Investigation submitted on June 4, 2019, the following facts and law support this staff recommendation:

1. On February 20, 2018, the Florida Elections Commission (“Commission”) received a sworn complaint from Claramargaret H. Groover (“Complainant”), alleging that Robert Prater (“Respondent”) violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

2. Respondent was a 2018 candidate for Chair of the Orange County School Board. (ROI Exhibit 9)¹

3. By letter dated December 18, 2018, the Executive Director notified Respondent that Commission staff would investigate the following statutory provision:

Section 106.143(1)(a), Florida Statutes: Respondent, a 2018 candidate for Chair of the Orange County School Board, paid for and distributed a political advertisement that contained express advocacy but did not include a proper disclaimer.

4. On December 27, 2017, Respondent acknowledged that he had been provided access to Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. (ROI Exhibit 9)

5. Complainant alleged that Respondent violated Florida’s election laws by failing to include a proper disclaimer on a political advertisement.

6. The political advertisement at issue is a website which contains language that expressly advocates for the election of a candidate: “VOTE FOR ORANGE COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD CHAIR ROBERT PRATER.” (ROI Exhibit 1, page 2) The printout of the website does not contain a political disclaimer but rather states that the Campaign to Elect Robert Prater is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. (ROI Exhibit 1)

7. Complainant stated that the footer of each webpage states, "Political advertisement paid for and approved by the candidate." (ROI Exhibit 2) However, Complainant did not provide a printout of the webpages that shows the actual political disclaimer.

8. Respondent stated that he created the website with his wife, which included a Donorbox account, and modeled it after another candidate's website. (ROI Exhibit 5; ROI Exhibit 6, page 1) He stated that he did not know where the 501(c)(3) wording came from but that he believes his website was hacked. (ROI Exhibit 6, page 1; Attachment A) He also stated that he had the proper disclaimer at the bottom of each webpage and provided a copy of his website and other campaign literature. (ROI Exhibit 6, page 1; ROI Exhibit 7) The website and campaign literature contain the following deficient disclaimer: "Paid for and approved by Campaign to Elect Robert Prater." (ROI Exhibit 7)

9. Candidates are required to prominently mark their political advertisements with the exact political disclaimer language as set forth under Section 106.143(1)(a), Florida Statutes. The Candidate & Campaign Treasurer Handbook also references the statutory requirement and provides examples of political disclaimers for non-incumbent candidates running for nonpartisan office. Respondent was advised to download a copy of the Handbook by his filing officer. (ROI Exhibit 8, page 2)

10. Respondent paid for and published a political advertisement that did not prominently state, "Political advertisement paid for and approved by <name of candidate>, for <office sought>" or "Paid by <name of candidate>, for <office sought>."

11. "Probable Cause" is defined as reasonable grounds of suspicion supported by circumstances sufficiently strong to warrant a cautious person in the belief that the person has committed the offense charged. Schmitt v. State, 590 So. 2d 404, 409 (Fla. 1991). Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances, of which an [investigator] has reasonably trustworthy information, are sufficient in themselves for a reasonable man to reach the conclusion that an offense has been committed. Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles v. Favino, 667 So. 2d 305, 309 (Fla. 1st DCA 1995).

12. The facts set forth above show that Respondent was a 2018 candidate for Chair of the Orange County School Board. Respondent paid for and published a political advertisement that did not include the required statutory disclaimer.

Based upon these facts and circumstances, I recommend that the Commission find probable cause to charge Respondent with violating the following:

Count 1:

On or about February 16, 2018, Robert Prater violated Section 106.143(1)(a), Florida Statutes, when he paid for and published a political advertisement that contained express advocacy but did not include the required statutory disclaimer.

Respectfully submitted on September 6, 2019.

Dear Ms. Cunningham:

Re: Case No: FEC 18-052

It has been brought to my attention you have been assigned my case. I wanted to add a few points to this case that I hope will help close out this issue.

First, I received the packet on June 13, 2019 in the mail. I've been requesting for the alleged documents or exhibits is what they are being call now, from the time this allegation was brought to my attention. This is why I'm adding or provide information that I couldn't see before, again this is the first time I'm seeing these documents.

The Gentleman (Cole Kekelis) that spoke to me first concerning this issue was more interested in getting the 250$ out of me than finding out the truth.

Exhibit 1-Page 1- only thing on this page that I made was the picture, however this is the picture from my facebook page, not the web-site. The wording I never had or used anywhere.

Exhibit 1-Page 2- I used Pay-Pal and still have and open account to this day for personal use.

Exhibit 1-Page 3 & 4- None of this information is even close to being right. In 2018 when I was running, Florida wasn't rank 27th. Teacher average salary weren't 41,125 it was actually 47,500 at the time. I never campaign on ESE issues and did even attend the ESE debate when they had it for the seat I was running for. I'm not sure what safety improvements it's referencing to, what I can tell you is I would never use a reference from 2012-2013 school year when the Parkland school shooting had just happen.

Last: I wouldn't underline the section starting with "Your Contribution and Prater would end with and "s". Also, I've never had a "twitter account" nor have I ever been non-profit for anything.

Here is the type of data I would use in my campaign

http://www.nea.org/assets/docs/2017_Rankings_and_Estimates_Report-FINAL-SECURED.pdf

It's always 2 years behind, one of the ways they keep teacher salaries down.

Teacher Salary The U.S. average public school teacher salary for 2015-16 was $58,353. State average teacher salaries ranged from those in New York ($79,152), California ($77,179), and Massachusetts

In conclusion, I started believing my site had been hacked, but never 100% sure. After finally reviewing all of these documents, I am 100% sure that I was hacked and I wouldn't be surprised if the only person who ever filed a complaint against me was the one behind the hack.

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION
REPORT OF INVESTIGATION
Case No.: FEC 18-052

Respondent: Robert Prater

Complainant: Claramargaret H. Groover

On February 20, 2018, the Florida Elections Commission (“Commission”) received a sworn complaint alleging that Respondent violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. Commission staff investigated whether Respondent violated the following statute:

Section 106.143(1)(a), Florida Statutes, failure of a candidate who made an expenditure for and published a political advertisement before the election to prominently mark the advertisement with the required disclaimer.

I. Preliminary Information:

1. Respondent was a 2018 candidate for the office of School Board Chair for Orange County. He was eliminated in the primary election, which was held on August 28, 2018.
2. Complainant is a resident of Orlando, Florida.

II. Alleged Violation of Section 106.143(1)(a), Florida Statutes:

3. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by paying for and distributing a campaign advertisement that contained express advocacy but did not include a proper political disclaimer.

4. Complainant alleges Respondent was soliciting campaign contributions through a website which did not make clear who was paying for the advertising. She attached copies of the website donor page, that is headed with an image of Respondent, and the words, “Vote for Orange County School Board Chair Robert Prater. Vote for a leader who will work for our students, parents, teachers, and administrators.” Wording to the side of this image states, “Campaign to Elect Robert Prater. A donation to our campaign means we are one step closer to putting a teacher in the School Board Chair. Your contribution will go a long way in continuing to spread the word across our School District. Helping our campaign will help elect a leader who will work for our students, parents, teachers, and administrators. We are a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. The Campaign to Elect Robert A Prater, EIN is 82-3886419. All contributions are non-tax deductible. No goods or services will be provided in exchange for this contribution.” To review a copy of the website donor page, please refer to Exhibit 1.

5. Complainant also alleges that she was not able to identify any Florida entity associated with the Federal Tax Identification Number listed in the notice, nor could she find any entity doing business as "The Campaign to Elect Robert A Prater". Due to this, she alleges that it is unclear who is actually paying for the advertisement. She does note in her complaint that the footer on each page of the website states, "Political advertisement paid for and approved by the candidate." To review a copy of the complaint, refer to Exhibit 2.

6. I researched the Donorbox website, which states that it is a "powerful fundraising software" that "seamlessly embed(s) to your website", accepts monthly recurring donations and takes "payments via cards, Apple Pay, low fee ACH bank transfers, and Paypal". Example cases include nonprofit fundraising as well as political fundraising. The Donorbox website allows prospective clients to view "live examples" of websites using the Donorbox fundraising software. A website for a candidate running for mayor of Louisville is used as a live example under the "Political Fundraising" Donorbox link. This page looks similar to Respondent's page, however, there is no notification or disclaimer language as noted on Respondent's page. To review a copy of the political fundraising example page, please refer to Exhibit 3.

7. A website for a nonprofit organization is used as a live example under the "Nonprofit Fundraising Solution" Donorbox link. This page looks like Respondent's campaign page, and also uses notification language that is similar to what was used on Respondent's Donorbox page. To review a copy of the nonprofit fundraising solution example page, please refer to Exhibit 4.

8. A search online for the Employer Identification Number (EIN) listed in the disclaimer found on Respondent's donor page did not result in any matches and does not appear to be a valid EIN.

9. Respondent sent a written response to our office on July 31, 2018. In the written response, he indicated that this was his first campaign, and everything was run by himself and his wife. He stated, "The website donor page that is in question was created by us with little background in how to actually conceive it. My wife decided to go through other similar campaigns being held to "follow in their footsteps". Though we have spent countless hours trying to figure out where we may have gotten the information we thought was necessary to add to the disclaimer, it is evident now that that disclaimer was a mistake. Since finding no such disclaimer on any other candidate sites we are not sure if it was originally tied into the creation of the website www.voteroprater.com or the conception of the Donorbox account itself." To review a copy of the July 31, 2018 written response, refer to Exhibit 5.

10. Respondent also stated in the July 31, 2018 written response that "We have since taken down the web address as well as the Donorbox account. We believe the misunderstanding stems from the "Donorbox" account that was set up. Though going through each line of the account not sure where this non-profit line came into play, as we have paid fees for any donations coming through this site"; Exhibit 5.

11. In a telephone interview on May 20, 2019, Respondent stated that he and his wife had used Nancy Robinson, another candidate for Orange County School Board's website as a template when creating his campaign site. He does not know where the non-profit language came from, as it was not in the example website that they used as the template. The best that he could figure was that his site may have been hacked, or there was a malfunction with the Donorbox link. He stated that he was always careful with making sure the proper disclaimer was on all his advertising, and that there was a disclaimer on his website, found under this name at the top of the home page, and at the bottom of his website. The miscellaneous 501(c)(3) language was attached to the Donorbox link only. To review a copy of the investigative telephone log, refer to Exhibit 6.

12. Respondent's filing history indicates the campaign made one $54.00 expenditure, and then six additional $29.00 expenditures to Online Candidate/Daley Professional Web Solutions for website hosting, spending a total of $228.00 to maintain his campaign web site during the election.

13. On June 4, 2019, Respondent sent an email, and attached copies of three political advertisements that displayed the political disclaimer that was used on his website. All three advertisements displayed the same disclaimer stating, "Paid for and approved by Campaign to Elect Robert Prater". To review the three political advertisements, refer to Exhibit 7.

14. There is no record that Respondent has previously violated this section of the election laws.

III. FEC History:

15. Respondent has had no prior cases before the Commission.

Conclusion:

16. In the telephone interview on May 20, 2019, Respondent stated he had read Chapter 106, Florida Statutes; Exhibit 6.

17. On March 22, 2019, Cindy Clark, Director of Elections for the Supervisor of Elections for Orange County returned a completed questionnaire-affidavit, stating that Respondent was advised to download copies of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes and the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook. To review a copy of the March 22, 2019 questionnaire-affidavit, refer to Exhibit 8.

18. On December 27, 2017, Respondent filed his Statement of Candidate for Orange School Board Chair acknowledging that he had been provided access to read and understand the requirements of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. To review a copy of the Statement of Candidate form, refer to Exhibit 9.

Respectfully submitted on June 4, 2019.

5 Reasons Orange County Needs
Robert Prater in the School Board Chair.

- Orange County is falling behind in education

- Despite staying in the top ten for the past few years, Florida's "Quality Counts" place has recently plummeted # 28 in the national ranking.
- Orange county public schools ranks #27 in Florida with an overall grade of B, making our lack of focused education a culprit in Florida's lower ranking.

- We have a severe shortage of highly qualified teachers

- OCPS teachers working conditions are ranked at the bottom with a C-. There is no lower grade. How can we secure qualified teachers if we're not providing them with a viable work environment?
- The average teacher salary $41,125 ($30,126-$51,302). 39 Florida counties have higher salaries. Why aren't we compensating our educators for their hard work?

- Orange County ESE Programs

- After missing goals for four years in a row, Orange County has been placed near the bottom of Florida's list.
- Special education needs are not being met and parent complaints are not being expedited and resolved.

- Our schools continuous Safety Improvements

- According to information from 2012-2013 (obtained from the Department of Education) Orange County is home to 11 of the 25 most dangerous schools, despite

- Our School System ranks at #32 in school district safety reports.

website

- The importance of an EDUCATOR as the CHAIRMAN of our Education BOARD

- The schoolboard should be focused on schools, so why is it that it's filled with politicians and lawyers instead of people who know what it takes to run a school?
- Poor education affects everyone in the county: property values go down, crime goes up, we have less qualified workers in the workforce, and taxes are raised as a result.

Your contribution can turn the tides for the Prater campaign and change the future of Orange County education. Build a brighter future for our children by putting an educator in the School Board Chair.

NARRATIVE STATEMENT OF ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF THE FLORIDA ELECTION CODE
BY CANDIDATE ROBERT A. PRATER, CANDIDATE FOR ORANGE COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD CHAIR

Please consider this statement as part of the Complaint in response to Paragraph 3 setting forth the Alleged Violations:

Section 106.143(1)(c), Florida Statutes, requires that a candidate must "state the name and address of the persons paying for the advertisement."

Mr. Prater solicits campaign contributions through a website at <http://voterobprater.com/>, page 3, which gives the following notice:

We are a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. The campaign to Elect Robert A Prater, (sic) EIN is.82-3886419. All contributions are non-tax deductible. No goods or services will be provided in exchange for this contribution.

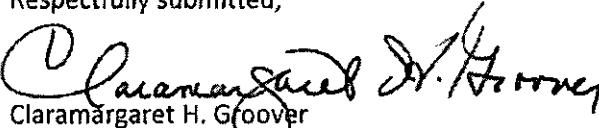

A copy of the screen shot is included with the Complaint and this Narrative as Exhibit "1." First, I have been unable to locate any entity authorized to do business either as a properly formed Florida corporation, a limited liability company, or an entity doing business as "The Campaign to Elect Robert A Prater" with a properly filed Fictitious Name Affidavit with the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations. Second, I have not been able to identify any Florida entity associated with the Federal Tax Identification Number listed.

Is Mr. Prater paying for the advertisement personally? Is a properly organized and documented campaign organization paying? If so, what is the legal name of the entity? Is the so-called 501(c)(3) paying for the advertisement? If the answer to the last question is "yes" such involvement in a political campaign would expressly violate a condition of the IRS ruling creating such a tax exempt entity.

- Why does the advertisement say that "we" are a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, a tax exempt designation, and then declare that contributions are non-tax deductible?
- Who is actually paying for the advertisement? The footer on each webpage states, "Political advertisement paid for and approved by the candidate."
- Exhibits "2", "3", and "4" are a composite print-out of Mr. Prater's website, page 3, donor page.
- Exhibit "5" is the Google index listing the donor page and showing this misrepresentation.

RE: Case No.: FEC 18-052;; Respondent: Robert Prater

To Ms. Erin Riley

After receiving Complaint case FEC 18-052 we tried very hard to find how this came about and from where. This School Board campaign is my first. It is a true grassroots operation with very little money. Being run by just myself and my wife. Unfortunate in this event it is evident we needed a bit more help.

The website donor page that is in question was created by us with little background in how to actually conceive it. My wife decided to go through other similar campaigns being held to "follow in their footsteps". Though we have spent countless hours trying to figure out where we may have gotten the information we thought was necessary to add to the disclaimer, it is evident now that that disclaimer was a mistake. Since finding no such disclaimer on any other candidate sites we are not sure if it was originally tied into the creation of the website www.voterobprater.com or the conception of the Donorbox account itself.

We have since taken down the web address as well as the Donorbox account.

We believe the misunderstanding stems from the "Donorbox" account that was set up. Though going through each line of the account not sure where this non-profit line came into play, as we have paid fees for any donations coming through this site. As of todays date 7/30/2018 and last reports filed on record with the Orange County Supervisors of Elections Office we currently have $4.00 left in account.

Please let us know if there is anything further needed on our part.

Sincerely,

Robert Prater

1. Date and time: 05/20/19- 2:40 PM

Name: Respondent

Phone #: 407-283-9142

Summary: I called and spoke with Respondent. He verified that this number was the best number to reach him on. He stated that his wife helped him with setting up some of the campaign early on. He mentioned that he and his wife used another candidate's website (Nancy Robinson) as a sort of template for creating his campaign site. They used the same company she used (Donorbox) and copied the formatting from her page. He stated that he did not know where the 501(c)(3) wording came from, and when they received a copy of the complaint in the mail, he and his wife went back through all of their paperwork and could not find where this wording was generated from. He stated he does not even know how to register as a non-profit organization, but he is aware that a campaign does not fall under the 501(c)(3) guidelines. He explained that he has read Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and knows how and when to use the proper disclaimer. He also stated that he did have the proper disclaimer on his website, under his name and at the bottom of the web page, and that he was very aware that the disclaimer should be on postcards, banners, yard signs and all advertising. He stated he has wondered if his campaign website had been hacked, or if there had been a malfunction somewhere, that added the non-profit language to his Donorbox link, as this was the only area where the miscellaneous language was found. He stated that if I had any further questions, that I could call him on this particular number.

I reached a voicemail box, and left him a message, asking him to return my call. I left my name, telephone number and extension. Respondent returned my call at 4:34 PM. He stated that he did have a copy of one of his political advertisements that showed the disclaimer his campaign used for the website and all other advertising, and that he would be able to send me a copy of this image tomorrow by email. He asked me to send him an email to robert.prater@ocps.net, and he would reply back to me via that message, with the image attached. I thanked him for his assistance in this matter.

ROBERT PRATER

FOR

ORANGE COUNTY SCHOOL
BOARD CHAIR

Elect an Educator as your School Board Chair.

About the Candidate

Paid for and approved by Campaign to Elect Robert Prater.

Robert Prater, current dean and part of the leadership team at Oak Hill Elementary, has been a committed educator and advocate for almost fifteen years. Roberts OCPS career began as a substitute back in 2005. He continued working for OCPS as a paraprofessional while he completed his degree in Education attending Nova Southeastern University.

Once in the classroom he excelled in teaching and connecting with his students and their families. He took pride watching each student develop academic gains. He still gets recognized today by students and their parents who have never forgotten his devotion and passion towards their learning.

He has served as the leader on the Faculty Advisory and School Advisory Committees. He has worked with PTA on many projects. In 2017 he was involved with the new build of Oakhill Elementary as the FF&E Coordinator.

Robert has loved his profession so much that he has also involved himself with night classes, teaching, Orange County citizens who are second language learners the basic skills for understanding the English language.

Mr. Prater is also the Partners in Education coordinator where he works with community leaders to find ways to help the students at Oak Hill Elementary.

He has spent many years as a community volunteer coaching and umpiring little league teams. He invested his time in cultivating productive student athletes as he assisted coaching the JV Baseball Team from Colonial High School for two seasons. He has devoted himself not only to his schools within Orange County, but also to the employees of Orange County Public Schools working on the Fringe Benefit committee which helped offer the best health care coverage the county could provide.

Essential factors such as retaining our highly qualified teachers, school administrators and support staff would strengthen our foundation. Extending our reach to the community through transparency and involvement efforts would impact every school and community. Having the current educational experience and background to provide real insight into today's educational issues.

RE: Case No.: FEC 18-052: Respondent: Robert Prater

Dear Mr. Prater:

On February 20, 2018, the Florida Elections Commission received a complaint alleging that you violated Florida's election laws. I have reviewed the complaint and find that it contains one or more legally sufficient allegations. The Commission staff will investigate the following alleged violation(s):

Section 106.143(1)(a), Florida Statutes: Respondent, a 2018 candidate for Chair of the Orange County School Board, paid for and distributed a political advertisement that contained express advocacy but did not include a proper disclaimer.

However, prior to an investigation, you have the option to resolve your case now by signing a minor violation consent order and paying a fine of $250, per Rule 2B-1.003, Florida Administrative Code, rather than the potential $1,000 per violation provided for in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes.

If you sign the consent order, you would not be required to admit or deny the allegation(s) in the complaint, but you would be required to immediately correct the violation, if feasible.

The signed consent order would then be considered by the Commission at its next available meeting, and would constitute final action by the Commission once it is accepted and approved by the Commission.

Please contact Cole Kekelis at 850-922-4539, extension 106, or at the address listed above, to accept this minor violation consent order offer.

If you choose not to resolve the case by consent order, an investigation will be conducted, and then the Commission will hold one or more hearings to determine whether the alleged violation(s) occurred and, if so, the amount of the fine to be imposed upon you. For more information, please see our FAQs available at <http://www.fec.state.fl.us>.

FEC Response to complaint .docx

Ms Riley,

Just wanted to make sure it got to you as it keeps getting sent back to my mail as undelivered Not sure if it is because of print screens so sending this one without those included.

We did have this complaint open for a while due to not receiving the certified mail sent two previous times. Not only was I starting a new campaign having not done this before but the oversight with the actual receipt of the complaint may have to do with the certified mail we were receiving as notifications for report amendments needed almost monthly.

Amending those said reports if we did have this notice we may have thought it the same notifications coming from our county Supervisor of Elections Office themselves as we always received a letter regularly as well as a certified notice stating the same thing.

Our apologies as it was not our intent to not address.

RE: Case No.: FEC 18-052;; Respondent: Robert Prater

To Ms. Erin Riley

After receiving Complaint case FEC 18-052 we tried very hard to find how this came about and from where. This School Board campaign is my first. It is a true grassroots operation with very little money. Being run by just myself and my wife. Unfortunate in this event it is evident we needed a bit more help.

The website donor page that is in question was created by us with little background in how to actually conceive it. My wife decided to go through other similar campaigns being held to "follow in their footsteps". Though we have spent countless hours trying to figure out where we may have gotten the information we thought was necessary to add to the disclaimer, it is evident now that that disclaimer was a mistake. Since finding no such disclaimer on any other candidate sites we are not sure if it was originally tied into the creation of the website www.voterobprater.com or the conception of the Donorbox account itself.

We have since taken down the web address as well as the Donorbox account.

We believe the misunderstanding stems from the "Donorbox" account that was set up. Though going through each line of the account not sure where this non-profit line came into play, as we have paid fees for any donations coming through this site. As of todays date 7/30/2018 and last reports filed on record with the Orange County Supervisors of Elections Office we currently have $4.00 left in account.

Please let us know if there is anything further needed on our part.

Sincerely,

Robert Prater

NARRATIVE STATEMENT OF ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF THE FLORIDA ELECTION CODE
BY CANDIDATE ROBERT A. PRATER, CANDIDATE FOR ORANGE COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD CHAIR

Please consider this statement as part of the Complaint in response to Paragraph 3 setting forth the Alleged Violations:

Section 106.143(1)(c), Florida Statutes, requires that a candidate must "state the name and address of the persons paying for the advertisement."

Mr. Prater solicits campaign contributions through a website at <http://voterobprater.com/>, page 3, which gives the following notice:

We are a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. The campaign to Elect Robert A Prater, (sic) EIN is 82-3886419. All contributions are non-tax deductible. No goods or services will be provided in exchange for this contribution.

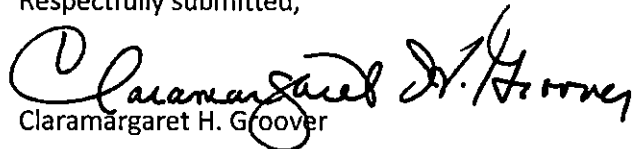

A copy of the screen shot is included with the Complaint and this Narrative as Exhibit "1." First, I have been unable to locate any entity authorized to do business either as a properly formed Florida corporation, a limited liability company, or an entity doing business as "The Campaign to Elect Robert A Prater" with a properly filed Fictitious Name Affidavit with the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations. Second, I have not been able to identify any Florida entity associated with the Federal Tax Identification Number listed.

Is Mr. Prater paying for the advertisement personally? Is a properly organized and documented campaign organization paying? If so, what is the legal name of the entity? Is the so-called 501(c)(3) paying for the advertisement? If the answer to the last question is "yes" such involvement in a political campaign would expressly violate a condition of the IRS ruling creating such a tax exempt entity.

- Why does the advertisement say that "we" are a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, a tax exempt designation, and then declare that contributions are non-tax deductible?
- Who is actually paying for the advertisement? The footer on each webpage states, "Political advertisement paid for and approved by the candidate."
- Exhibits "2", "3", and "4" are a composite print-out of Mr. Prater's website, page 3, donor page.
- Exhibit "5" is the Google index listing the donor page and showing this misrepresentation.

You may contact me at chgroover@grooverlawfirm.com and by phone at (407) 808-7656.

Respectfully submitted,

Claramargaret H. Groover

5 Reasons Orange County Needs
Robert Prater in the School Board Chair.

Page 3 of website

- Orange County is falling behind in education

- Despite staying in the top ten for the past few years, Florida's "Quality Counts" place has recently plummeted # 28 in the national ranking.
- Orange county public schools ranks #27 in Florida with an overall grade of B, making our lack of focused education a culprit in Florida's lower ranking.

- We have a severe shortage of highly qualified teachers

- OCPS teachers working conditions are ranked at the bottom with a C-. There is no lower grade. How can we secure qualified teachers if we're not providing them with a viable work environment?
- The average teacher salary $41,125 ($30,126-$51,302). 39 Florida counties have higher salaries. Why aren't we compensating our educators for their hard work?

- Orange County ESE Programs

- After missing goals for four years in a row, Orange County has been placed near the bottom of Florida's list.
- Special education needs are not being met and parent complaints are not being expedited and resolved.

- Our schools continuous Safety Improvements

- According to information from 2012-2013 (obtained from the Department of Education) Orange County is home to 11 of the 25 most dangerous schools, despite years.

- Our School System ranks at #32 in school district safety reports.

website

- The importance of an EDUCATOR as the CHAIRMAN of our Education BOARD

- The schoolboard should be focused on schools, so why is it that it's filled with politicians and lawyers instead of people who know what it takes to run a school?
- Poor education affects everyone in the county: property values go down, crime goes up, we have less qualified workers in the workforce, and taxes are raised as a result.

Your contribution can turn the tides for the Prater campaign and change the future of Orange County education. Build a brighter future for our children by putting an educator in the School Board Chair.
