If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

Tim Vaccaro
Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
August 23, 2021

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

NAME: ANGELA L. HOOVER

DATE APPEAL RECEIVED: 10/07/2020

DATE REPORT DUE: 09/11/2020 (2020 G2)

DATE OF ELECTRONIC RECEIPT: 09/12/2020

NUMBER OF DAYS LATE: 1

AMOUNT OF FINE: $50.00

FINE BASED ON: (X) NUMBER OF DAYS (.) 25% OF RECEIPTS (..) 25% OF EXPENDITURES

TOTAL RECEIPTS FOR REPORTING PERIOD: $281.96

TOTAL EXPENDITURES FOR REPORTING PERIOD: $426.00¹

DATE OF FIRST NOTIFICATION: 09/14/2020 (Fine Ltr)

SUMMARY: Angela L. Hoover was a candidate for State Representative, District 3 in the 2020 elections. Ms. Hoover was her own treasurer.

Angela L. Hoover is appealing the fine claiming that multiple circumstances caused her to miss the filing deadline. According to Ms. Hoover, she "received several confusing emails around the time from the primaries to the general run-off that she lost track of their filing dates". She also notes that on September 11th, a hurricane was headed towards her area. She claims they were busy trying to prepare and help an elderly neighbor. Ms. Hoover states that her property sustained damage and notes that any fine would cause financial harm.

- The 2020 G2 Original Report covers the period from 08/22/20-09/04/20; it was due on 09/11/20.
- The 2020 G2 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 09/12/20.
- Angela L. Hoover reported receiving 14 contributions, while making 1 expenditure.
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Ms. Hoover's 2020 G2 report.

PRIOR CASES: None.

¹ The report was amended on 09/19/20 the amount of $426.00 is listed on the expenditures page.

To whom it may concern,

October 1, 2020

While I understand, as you have made clear, it is by law that I pay this fine, but I am asking for a waiver for the fee as there were many circumstances that converged to make it a missed opportunity for me to file my report only eight hours late.

I had received several confusing emails around the time from the primaries to the general run-off that I lost track of our filing dates. Then, on September 11th a hurricane was making its way to our area and we were busy trying to prepare. My elderly neighbor was in need and we were assisting her until late causing me to forget the due report until early the next morning.

At this time any fine would cause harm to me financially as we received damage by flooding, and our insurance through USAA will not cover that option.

Can you please assist me in this action?

With respect,

Angela Hoover, Candidate
