If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
August 1, 2023

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Friends of Linda Chaney is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Linda Chaney, and its treasurer is Michael Millner.

The PC is appealing the fine claiming the 2022 G6 Report was timely filed as a notice of no activity. According to Representative Chaney, the treasurer found a check that should have been reported during the 2022 G6 period and amended the submission to reflect the single contribution. The treasurer believed this "was the proper thing to do under the circumstances" and made the submission in good faith. The treasurer searched the Florida Statutes and Political Committee Handbook and did not find references that discouraged how the matter was handled.

- The 2022 G6 Original Report covers the period from 10/22/22-11/03/22; it was due on 11/04/22.
- The 2022 G6 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 11/04/22.¹
- Friends of Linda Chaney reported receiving 1 contribution while making zero expenditures.
- FEC staff was advised, "The committee filed a notice of no activity (waiver) on 11/04/22. A waiver is not a report. On 11/06/22, the committee filed a report showing $1,000.00 of activity. The fine is based on 25% of the activity."
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Friends of Linda Chaney's 2022 G6 Report.

PRIOR CASES: None.

¹ The filing discussed in this bullet refers to the waiver that reflected zero activity.

Dear Election Commission:

In reference to your letter dated November 8th, 2022, I would like to appeal your fine that you are imposing on PAC #79225, Friends of Linda Chaney.

Our G6 report was filed as a waiver on November 4th, 2022, and on time, however, after my treasurer went through her desk, she found a check that was not included that should have been reported during the G6 period. Since this check was received on the 3rd, and the check date was before the 3rd, it was her understanding that she needed to immediately amend the G6 report. She did this on November 6th and included one contribution.

In good faith, she believed that was the proper thing to do under the circumstances. She tried to reference any Florida Statue that discourages the way this was handled, and other than the FAQ section in the Political Committee handbook, she could not find any specific rules regarding filing amendments. She did not maliciously misplace this contribution and believed she was doing the right thing by reporting it on the report that it should have been on, that is the purpose of the amend option, right?

Another option is if the Commission believes that she should not have accepted the contribution, she would be willing to immediately return the contribution and remove it from the amended report.

Thank you for your time and hopefully I have explained the facts to help you better understand the situation.

Best Regards,

Representative Linda Chaney
