NOTICE OF HEARING (AUTOMATIC FINE)

A hearing will be held in this case before the Florida Elections Commission on, November 14, 2018 at 1:30 pm, or as soon thereafter as the parties can be heard, at the following location: Senate Office Building, 404 South Monroe Street, Room 110-S, Tallahassee, Florida 32399.

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission on this date. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

See further instructions on the reverse side.

Eric M. Lipman
General Counsel for Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
October 29, 2018

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

DATE OF ELECTRONIC RECEIPT: 07/05/18

NUMBER OF DAYS LATE: 6¹

AMOUNT OF FINE: $1650.00

FINE BASED ON: (X) NUMBER OF DAYS (.) 25% OF RECEIPTS (..) 25% OF EXPENDITURES

TOTAL RECEIPTS FOR REPORTING PERIOD: $16,057.50

TOTAL EXPENDITURES FOR REPORTING PERIOD: $1,000.00

DATE OF FIRST NOTIFICATION: 07/02/18

SUMMARY: Rhoda Ann Sokoloff is a candidate for County Court Judge, Group 17 in the 2018 elections. Ms. Sokoloff is her own treasurer.

Rhoda Ann Sokoloff is appealing the fine claiming that she was out of the country for most of June and did not realize the reporting periods changed. She thought they were still due on the 10th of the month. According to Ms. Sokoloff, she filed the report on July 3rd and disputes that it was 6 days late as fined by the filing officer. She has attached the letter from the Supervisor of Elections that states that the report was received on July 3, 2018.

- The 2018 P1 Original Report covers the period from 06/01/18-06/22/18; it was due on 06/29/18.
- The 2018 P1 Original Report shows that it was filed on 07/05/18.
- Rhoda Ann Sokoloff reported receiving 3 contributions, while making 1 expenditure.
- The SOE's office does not have any notes that pertain to Rhoda Sokoloff's 2018 P1 report.

PRIOR CASES: None.

¹ The 2018 P1 report shows that it was submitted online on 7/5/18. The fine letter imposes a (6) day fine for the late report but states that the report was filed on 7/3/18 (which is 4 days late). The fine for a 4-day late report is $650.

Re: Rhoda Ann Sokoloff, 2018 Candidate

Treasurer's Report - Late Fees

Dear Mr. Way:

I acknowledge receipt of your Memorandum dated July 13, 2018 regarding filing my report late. A copy of your Memorandum is attached. First, I apologize. I was out of the country for most of June and, unfortunately, did not realize that the reporting periods changed. I thought they were still on the 10th of the month. I had filed my June report early prior to leaving to make sure it was filed timely.

In any event, I realize I was late. However, I dispute that I was six (6) days late. The filing deadline was June 29, 2018 and I filed my report on July 3, 2018 (please see your memorandum attached). Accordingly, I was late for three (3) days, not six (6) days (June 30, July 1 and July 2, 2018). As a result, I would owe a total sum of $150.00, not $1,650.00.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Rhoda Ann Sokoloff

MEMORANDUM

To: Rhoda Ann Sokoloff, 2018 Candidate
County Court, Group 17

Thru: Brenda C. Snipes, Ed. D.
Supervisor of Elections

From: John Way
Public Services Director/Candidate Qualifying Officer

Date: July 13, 2018

Subject: Treasurer's Report

Your Campaign Treasurer's Report (P1) which was due June 29, 2018, covering the period June 1 to June 22, 2018 was not received until July 3, 2018. According to Section 106.07(8)(b), Florida Statutes, a fine of $50 per day for the first three days late and $500 each day thereafter, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report shall be assessed. Therefore, you are fined $1650.00 for the 6 (six) days that the Report was late.

The fine shall be paid to the Supervisor of Elections within 20 days of receipt of this notice unless appealed to the Florida Elections Commission, 107 West Gaines Street, Suite 224, Tallahassee, FL 32399-1050. Section 106.7(8)(c), Florida Statutes, provides for appealing or disputing the assessed fine by submitting a notice of appeal in writing to the Florida Elections Commission within 20 days of the date of receipt of the notice of payment due, stating any unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date. A failure to file such notice will constitute a waiver of the right of appeal.

Moreover, the notice of appeal must be accompanied by any and all supporting evidence you wish the Commission to consider in making its determination. Examples of such evidence that the Florida Elections Commission will consider are: 1) an affidavit attesting, in specific detail, to a timely mailing; 2) an affidavit or letter from the post office documenting a mailing problem; or 3) an affidavit or statement from an attending physician or a hospital bill, setting forth specific dates, if there is a health-related reason as to why your report was not timely filed.

If you fail to submit documentation or evidence demonstrating the unusual circumstances which prevented you from timely filing your report within the 20 day period stated above, no documentation or evidence submitted thereafter will be considered by the Florida Elections Commission.

You also have the right to a hearing before the Commission. However, if you desire a hearing before the Commission, you must request such hearing in the notice of appeal within the 20 days of receipt of this notice. If no timely request for hearing is made in your notice of appeal, you will be deemed to have waived your right to a hearing and the Commission's determination shall be based upon the written record.

We urge your prompt attention to this matter.

Subject: Delinquent Report

Please be advised that your Treasurer's Report (P1) which was due June 29, 2018, covering the period June 1 through June 22 has not been received by this office. Section 106.07(8)(b), Florida Statutes, requires that the filing officer notify you of the failure to file said report and that a fine of $50 per day for the first three days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each day late will be assessed; however, the fine may not exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. Once your report is received, this office will notify you of the specific amount of your fine. Fines must be paid to the filing officer within 20 days of receipt of the payment due notice, unless appealed to the Florida Elections Commission. Section 106.7(8)(c), Florida Statutes, provides for appealing or disputing the assessed fine by submitting a notice of appeal in writing to the Florida Elections Commission within 20 days of the date of receipt of the notice of payment due. A failure to file such notice will constitute a waiver of the right of appeal.

Please be advised that a willful failure to file a campaign treasurer's report constitutes a violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, independent of the automatic fine violation referenced above. Therefore, if you fail to file a report, such failure will be considered a willful violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and this office will turn the matter over to the Florida Elections Commission for prosecution. Section 106.265(1), Florida Statutes, authorizes the Florida Elections Commission, upon finding a willful violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, to impose a civil penalty up to $1,000.00 per count for each willful violation of Chapter 106. Moreover, pursuant to Section 106.19, Florida Statutes, the knowing, willful and deliberate failure to file a report constitutes a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in Sections 775.082 or 775.083, Florida Statutes.

We urge your prompt attention to this matter.
