Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

In Re: Mary Estimé-Irvin

Case No.: FEC 17-031

STAFF RECOMMENDATION FOLLOWING INVESTIGATION

Pursuant to Section 106.25(4)(c), Florida Statutes, undersigned staff counsel files this written recommendation for disposition of the complaint in this case recommending that there is probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Sections 106.141(1) and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, and no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes. Based upon a thorough review of the Report of Investigation submitted on January 3, 2018, the following facts and law support this staff recommendation.

1. On January 27, 2017, the Florida Elections Commission ("Commission") received a referral from the Division of Elections ("Division") alleging Mary Estimé-Irvin ("Respondent") violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

2. Respondent was a candidate for State Representative, District 107, in the 2016 primary election. Respondent's Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for Candidates form ("DS-DE 9") was filed with the Division on October 2, 2015. Respondent appointed herself as her campaign treasurer. (ROI Exhibit 1)¹

3. By letter dated October 25, 2017, the Executive Director notified Respondent that Commission staff would investigate the following alleged violations:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2016 candidate for State Representative, may have failed to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because she had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2016 termination reporting period.

Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2016 candidate for State Representative, failed to timely file her 2016 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2016 candidate for State Representative, may have falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information in one or more campaign treasurer reports, as required by Chapter 106.

4. By letter dated October 5, 2015, Kristi Reid Bronson, Division of Elections, Chief, Bureau of Election Records, notified Respondent that her name had been placed on the 2016 active candidate list. The letter advised Respondent that all candidates who file reports with the Division are required to use the electronic filing system ("EFS") and provided Respondent with a user identification number and initial password to access the EFS. (ROI Exhibit 2, page 1)²

5. Ms. Bronson's October 5, 2015 letter further advised Respondent that all the Division's publications and reporting forms were available on the Division's website and directed Respondent to print a copy of Chapters 104 and 106, Florida Statutes, the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook, and the Calendar of Reporting Dates. (ROI Exhibit 2, page 3)

6. Respondent's 2016 Termination Report ("TR") covering the dates of August 26, 2016, through November 28, 2016, was due on November 28, 2016. However, Respondent failed to timely file a 2016 TR or a notice that no reportable activity occurred during the termination reporting period. (Attachments A, B, and C)

7. On November 29, 2016, the Division sent Respondent notification that she had not filed a 2016 TR or notice that no reportable activity occurred, whichever was applicable. (ROI Exhibit 3)

8. On January 12, 2017, the Division sent a letter to Respondent marked "Final Notice." The notification stated that the Division had not yet received Respondent's 2016 TR Report or notice that no reportable activity occurred, whichever was applicable. The Division's January 12, 2017 letter was confirmed delivered on January 17, 2017. (ROI Exhibit 4)

9. Investigator Spore obtained copies of Respondent's campaign account records from BankUnited.³ Respondent's campaign account records show that Respondent had reportable financial activity during the 2016 termination reporting period. (ROI Exhibit 5)

10. On November 30, 2017, Investigator Spore attempted to contact Respondent by telephone at the phone number listed on Respondent's DS-DE 9. Investigator Spore reached a recording that stated the phone number she dialed was not accepting incoming calls at that time. Investigator Spore was not able to leave a message. (ROI Exhibit 1; Attachment D, Phone Log Entry 1)

³ Respondent's campaign bank records were provided to the Commission in a different case.

11. On January 3, 2018, Investigator Spore attempted to contact Respondent by telephone at the phone number listed on Respondent's DS-DE 9. Investigator Spore reached a recording that stated the phone number she dialed was not accepting incoming calls at that time. (ROI Exhibit 1; Attachment D, Phone Log Entry 2)

12. As of January 15, 2018, Respondent has failed to file a 2016 Termination Report. (Attachment C)⁴

13. Based on the information above, it appears Respondent did not fail to notify the filing officer on the prescribed due date for the 2016 TR that no report would be filed because she had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2016 termination reporting period. It also appears Respondent may have failed to timely file her 2016 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds and Respondent may have deliberately failed to include information required to be reported by Chapter 106 by failing to file a 2016 Termination Report.

14. "Probable Cause" is defined as a reasonable ground of suspicion supported by circumstances sufficiently strong to warrant a cautious person in the belief that the person has committed the offense charged. Schmitt v. State, 590 So.2d 404, 409 (Fla. 1991). Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances, of which an [investigator] has reasonably trustworthy information, are sufficient in themselves for a reasonable man to reach the conclusion that an offense has been committed. Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles v. Favino, 667 So.2d 305, 309 (Fla. 1st DCA 1995).

15. The above facts show Respondent was an unsuccessful candidate for State Representative, District 107, in the 2016 primary election. Respondent's 2016 Termination Report covering the dates of August 26, 2016, through November 28, 2016, was due on November 28, 2016. However, Respondent failed to timely file a 2016 Termination Report or notice that no reportable activity occurred during the 2016 termination reporting period.

16. The above facts also show that Respondent's campaign bank account records reflect that Respondent had reportable financial activity during the 2016 termination reporting period. Therefore, Respondent was required to file a 2016 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds. Additionally, Respondent deliberately failed to include information required to be reported by Chapter 106 by failing to file a 2016 Termination Report. As of January 15, 2018, Respondent has failed to file a 2016 Termination Report.

Based on the foregoing, I recommend the Commission find probable cause to charge Respondent with the following violations:

⁴ Respondent timely filed seven campaign reports prior to the report at issue in this case. (Attachment C)

Count 1:

On or about November 28, 2016, Respondent violated Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes, when Respondent failed to timely file a 2016 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining funds in her campaign account.

Count 2:

On or about November 28, 2016, Respondent violated Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, when Respondent deliberately failed include information on her 2016 Termination Report required to be reported by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, when she failed to file a 2016 Termination Report.

I further recommend the Commission find no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes.

Respectfully submitted on January 19, 2018.

General Counsel

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION
REPORT OF INVESTIGATION
Case No.: FEC 17-031

Respondent: Mary Estimé-Irvin

Complainant: Division of Elections

On January 27, 2017, the Florida Elections Commission (“Commission”) received a referral from the Division of Elections alleging that Respondent violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. Commission staff investigated whether Respondent violated the following statutes:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes, failure to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because she had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2016 termination reporting period;

Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes, failure to timely file her 2016 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds; and

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, falsely reporting or deliberately failing to include information in one or more campaign treasurer reports, as required by Chapter 106.

I. Preliminary Information:

1. Respondent was a candidate in 2016 for the office of State Representative, District 107. Respondent received 34.76% of the vote in the Democratic primary election, to finish second in a field of two candidates.
2. Complainant is the Division of Elections (Division).
3. Respondent’s filing officer is Kristi Willis, Chief, Bureau of Election Records.

II. Alleged Violation of Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes:

4. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by failing to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because she had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2016 termination reporting (TR) period.
5. On October 2, 2015, Respondent filed the Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository (DS-DE 9 form) with the Division. Respondent appointed herself as campaign treasurer. To review the DS-DE 9 form, refer to Exhibit 1.

6. On October 5, 2015, the Division mailed Respondent a letter acknowledging receipt of the DS-DE 9 form, and informing her that her name had been placed on the 2016 active candidate list. To view a copy of the October 5, 2015 acknowledgment letter, refer to Exhibit 2.

7. The 2016 TR campaign treasurer's report was due on November 28, 2016. On November 29, 2016, the Division mailed Respondent notification that the 2016 TR treasurer's report had not been filed. To review the November 29, 2016 notification, refer to Exhibit 3.

8. On January 12, 2017, the Division mailed Respondent final notification with delivery confirmation that the 2016 TR treasurer's report had not been filed. To review the January 12, 2017 final notification with delivery confirmation, refer to Exhibit 4.

9. Bank records were received as a result of a subpoena from Respondent's primary depository, BankUnited, on October 3, 2017 in regard to FEC 16-558. A review of these records reflects there was financial activity during the 2016 TR reporting period. To review the campaign account records, refer to Exhibit 5.

III. Alleged Violation of Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes:

10. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by failing to timely file her 2016 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds.

11. As previously discussed in paragraph 9, bank records reflect financial activity during the 2016 TR reporting period; Exhibit 5.

12. On January 3, 2018, the Division sent an e-mail stating as of that date, there is no record that Respondent has filed a 2016 TR campaign treasurer's report.

IV. Alleged Violation of Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes:

13. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by falsely reporting or deliberately failing to include information in one or more campaign treasurer reports, as required by Chapter 106.

14. As previously discussed in paragraph 9, bank records reflect financial activity during the 2016 TR reporting period; Exhibit 5.

Below is the web address to access the EFS and your user identification number. The enclosed sealed envelope contains your initial password. Once you have logged in using the initial password, you will be immediately prompted to change it to a confidential sign-on. Pin Numbers

Pin numbers are confidential secure credentials that allow you to submit reports and update personal information. The enclosed sealed envelope contains your confidential pin numbers.

Each candidate is required to provide the Division of Elections with confidential personal information that may be used to allow access in the event that password is forgotten or lost. When you enter the campaign account screen, there will be a drop down box where you pick a question (such as What is your mother's maiden name?) and supply an answer. All passwords and answers to questions are stored as encrypted data and cannot be viewed by Division staff and given out over the phone. Please notify the Division if your credentials have been compromised.

Timely Filing

All reports filed must be completed and filed through the EFS no later than midnight, Eastern Standard Time, of the due date. Reports not filed by midnight of the due date are late filed and subject to the penalties in Section 106.07(8), Florida Statutes. In the event that the EFS is inoperable on the due date, the report will be accepted as timely filed if filed no later than midnight of the first business day the EFS becomes operable. No fine will be levied during the period the EFS was inoperable.

Any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first 3 days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Electronic Receipts

The person submitting the report on the EFS will be issued an electronic receipt indicating and verifying the report was filed. Each campaign treasurer's report filed by means of the EFS is considered to be under oath by the candidate and campaign treasurer and such persons are subject to the provisions of Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes.

CAN 64957

Dear Ms. Estime-Irvin:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your termination report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was November 28, 2016.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as $50 per day until you file your report. The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.
- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief

Dear Ms. Estime-Irvin:

A recent review of the Division's records show that the Division has not yet received your termination report or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable.

The Division has previously notified you of the unfiled report or notification. Please file your report or notification. If the report or notification is not filed within 7 days of receipt of this letter, the Division will refer this matter to the Florida Elections Commission, which may impose civil penalties of up to $1000 per violation, apart from that automatic fine provisions of s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) that are applicable only to campaign finance reports.

As we stated in the prior notices, even if you now file the report or notification, the untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

RE: Case No.: FEC 17-031; Respondent: Mary Estime-Irvin

Dear Ms. Estime-Irvin:

On January 27, 2017, the Florida Elections Commission received a complaint alleging that you violated Florida's election laws. I have reviewed the complaint and find that it contains one or more legally sufficient allegations. The Commission staff will investigate the following alleged violations:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2016 candidate for State Representative, may have failed to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because she had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2016 termination reporting period.

Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2016 candidate for State Representative, failed to timely file her 2016 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2016 candidate for State Representative, may have falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information in one or more campaign treasurer reports, as required by Chapter 106.

When we conclude the investigation, a copy of the Report of Investigation (ROI) will be mailed to you at the above address. Based on the results of the investigation, a staff attorney will make a written recommendation (Staff Recommendation or SR) to the Commission as to whether there is probable cause to charge respondent with violating Chapters 104 or 106, Florida Statutes. You will have an opportunity to respond to both the ROI and the SR. The Commission will then hold one or more hearings to determine whether the alleged violations occurred and, if so, the amount of the fine to be imposed. You and the complainant will receive notice at least 14 days before any hearing at which your case is to be considered.

Please note that all documents related to this matter will be mailed to the above address unless you notify us of a new address. Also, please remember that complaints, Commission investigations, investigative reports, and other documents relating to an alleged violation of Chapters 104 or 106, Florida Statutes, are confidential until the Commission finds probable cause or no probable cause.

For additional information, please refer to the "Frequently Asked Questions" section of the Commission's website (www.fec.state.fl.us).

If you have additional questions, please contact Samantha Spore, the investigator assigned to this case at extension 110.

Sincerely,

Amy McKeever Toman

Below is the web address to access the EFS and your user identification number. The enclosed sealed envelope contains your initial password. Once you have logged in using the initial password, you will be immediately prompted to change it to a confidential sign-on. Pin Numbers

Pin numbers are confidential secure credentials that allow you to submit reports and update personal information. The enclosed sealed envelope contains your confidential pin numbers.

Each candidate is required to provide the Division of Elections with confidential personal information that may be used to allow access in the event that password is forgotten or lost. When you enter the campaign account screen, there will be a drop down box where you pick a question (such as What is your mother's maiden name?) and supply an answer. All passwords and answers to questions are stored as encrypted data and cannot be viewed by Division staff and given out over the phone. Please notify the Division if your credentials have been compromised.

Timely Filing

All reports filed must be completed and filed through the EFS no later than midnight, Eastern Standard Time, of the due date. Reports not filed by midnight of the due date are late filed and subject to the penalties in Section 106.07(8), Florida Statutes. In the event that the EFS is inoperable on the due date, the report will be accepted as timely filed if filed no later than midnight of the first business day the EFS becomes operable. No fine will be levied during the period the EFS was inoperable.

Any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first 3 days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Electronic Receipts

The person submitting the report on the EFS will be issued an electronic receipt indicating and verifying the report was filed. Each campaign treasurer's report filed by means of the EFS is considered to be under oath by the candidate and campaign treasurer and such persons are subject to the provisions of Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes.

CAN 64957

Dear Ms. Estime-Irvin:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your termination report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was November 28, 2016.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as $50 per day until you file your report. The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.
- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Estime-Irvin:

A recent review of the Division's records show that the Division has not yet received your termination report or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable.

The Division has previously notified you of the unfiled report or notification. Please file your report or notification. If the report or notification is not filed within 7 days of receipt of this letter, the Division will refer this matter to the Florida Elections Commission, which may impose civil penalties of up to $1000 per violation, apart from that automatic fine provisions of s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) that are applicable only to campaign finance reports.

As we stated in the prior notices, even if you now file the report or notification, the untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief
