Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Re: Flagler Volusia Chiropractic Society PAC (FVCS PAC) #30880 Appeal of Late Fine

May 18, 2020

To Whom It May Concern,

The purpose of this letter is to appeal the late fine of $625.00 assessed to our Flagler Volusia Chiropractic Society PAC (#30880) for the M9 report for October 2019. In reviewing the filing of the report, it was discovered that the report was initially filed on October 2nd, 2019, well before the deadline on October 10, 2019. On October 14, 2019, I discovered that a PAC contribution was mistakenly not included on the M9 report, so I amended the report to accurately reflect the PAC contribution of $2,500.00. My goal was to provide accurate documentation of contributions to our political action committee.

Today, I was in receipt of a letter from the Florida Division of Elections indicating a fine of $625.00. I am asking that you please consider the circumstances, and the fact that the initial report was filed in a timely manner. It was only upon discovery of my own error that I had mistakenly forgotten to include the PAC contribution that I amended the report on October 14, 2019. I ask that you reduce or remove the late fine of $625.00 from our PAC account. You can reach me directly at:

FVCS PAC Chairman
