Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. Tim Vaccaro
Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
August 23, 2021

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Subject: Candidate Appeal Request

To Whom This May Concern,

I would like to move forward with filing an appeal on the late report filing amount of $1,192.92. I received notification of the imposed fine on November 23, 2020 by the Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections (see attached). At this time, I am unable to pay the fine due to an unexpected financial hardship directly related to COVID-19. On August 3rd, 2020, I was relieved from my job due to the fact that I worked in a call center setting that was no longer able to accommodate social distancing guidelines. As a result of this job loss, I was placed in a financial hardship requiring deferment of many of my financial obligations and was unable to find steady employment until November 2020. However, this employment is only part time at the moment with anticipation of a possible second shut down.

I ask that you please consider these unusual and unexpected circumstances in your final decision regarding my appeals request with hopes of being able to waive the imposed fee. Please feel free to contact me with any further questions.

Dear Ms. White,

Your campaign treasurer's PTR report, which was due on November 16, 2020, was not received as of midnight on the due date.

Florida Statute 106.07 states any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first three days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding the primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. All fines must be paid from the candidate's personal funds – not campaign funds.

The Amount of your fine is $1,192.94 based on your report having been six days late. Fines must be paid to the filing officer within 20 days of receipt of the payment due notice.

Section 106.265(1), Florida Statutes, authorizes the Florida Elections Commission to impose a civil penalty up to $1,000 per count for each willful violation of Chapter 106.

Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes, states that in the case of an unusual circumstance surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, each candidate or committee will have the option to file an appeal with the Florida Elections Commission. It is the responsibility of the candidate or committee to notify the filing officer in writing of his or her intention to submit an appeal. Any such requests shall be made within 20 days after receiving the notice of payment due.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (813) 384-3944, or via email at ewhite@hcsae.org.

Dear Ms. White,

Your campaign treasurer's PTR report, which was due on November 16, 2020, has not been received.

Florida Statute 106.07 states any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first three days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding the primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. All fines must be paid from the candidate's personal funds – not campaign funds.

Once your report is filed, our office will notify you of the specific amount of your fine. Fines must be paid to the filing officer within 20 days of receipt of the payment due notice.

Please be advised, however, that failure to file a campaign treasurer's report may constitute a violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, independent of the automatic fine violation referenced above. Therefore, if you fail to file a report, the division will turn the matter over to the Florida Elections Commission.

Section 106.265(1), Florida Statutes, authorizes the Florida Elections Commission to impose a civil penalty up to $1,000 per count for each willful violation of Chapter 106.

Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes, states that in the case of an unusual circumstance surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, each candidate or committee will have the option to file an appeal with the Florida Elections Commission. It is the responsibility of the candidate or committee to notify the filing officer in writing of his or her intention to submit an appeal. Any such requests shall be made within 20 days after receiving the notice of payment due.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (813) 384-3944, or via email at ewhite@hcsoe.org.
