Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

I have been accessed a $55.35 fine for filing on Aug 12.

I ask to appeal the fine.

One, I was told by your office on the phone that if we filed it by the 12th "it would be fine".

Two, we went back and forth a few times for me to login. I was locked out most of the time since I started running.

Three, it was the 1st time we filed and your platform is very unfriendly.

Four, the fine was automatic. I request for grace and mercy accessed by a person. As you can see, we have raised very little money and you wish to take a 1/4 of it. Please don't take my money.

Dear Mr. Horbowy:

A recent review of the Division's records show that the Division has not yet received the below-referenced campaign treasurer's report or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable, during the following cover period:

Year	Report	Cover Period
2019	M6	6/1/19 - 6/30/19

The Division has previously notified you of the unfiled report or notification. Please file your report or notification. If the report is not filed within 7 days of receipt of this letter, the Division will refer this matter to the Florida Elections Commission, which may impose civil penalties of up to $1000 per violation, apart from that automatic fine provisions of s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) that are applicable only to campaign finance reports.

As we stated in the prior notices, even if you now file the report or notification, the untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

Dear Mr. Horbowy:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was July 10, 2019.

We mailed, via regular mail, the first notice of the failure to file the above-mentioned report or notification to the address on file with our office on July 11, 2019.

The first notice which we provided to you specifically explained the automatic fine provisions in the law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) for failure to file a required report. Such fines are continuing to accrue for a late-filed report. Also, that notice explained that if no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to provide notification in writing that no reportable activity occurred. Our initial notice further indicated that, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

Dear Mr. Horbowy:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was July 10, 2019.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was July 10, 2019.

We mailed, via regular mail, the first notice of the failure to file the above-mentioned report or notification to the address on file with our office on July 11, 2019.

The first notice which we provided to you specifically explained the automatic fine provisions in the law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) for failure to file a required report. Such fines are continuing to accrue for a late-filed report. Also, that notice explained that if no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to provide notification in writing that no reportable activity occurred. Our initial notice further indicated that, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Willis, Chief
Bureau of Election Records

cc: Nancy Horbowy, Treasurer

Outstanding Fine - 2019 M8
I contacted the treasurer, Tracy Styk, and ask if she and the candidate were aware of the outstanding fine in the amount of $6.57 for the 2019 M8 report. She said she was and that the candidate was preparing to mail a check to the Division using his personal funds. I tried to contact the candidate directly but was only able to leave a voicemail informing him of the fine. -njt 12/10/2019

RE: Treasurer Removal 9/4/2019 I attempted to make contact with Benjamin Alexander Thaddeus John Horbowy. On September 4, 2019, this office received a letter removing Nancy Horbowy as treasurer and signed by the Candidate, Mr. Horbowy. I called to informed the candidate that a new DSDE 9 form is needed in this office as soon as possible to appoint himself as treasurer as requested in the same letter. Since I did not get an answer, I had to leave a voice message. Per Dsb, I sent an email to Mr. Horbowy at <CEO@SmartGreenIndustries.com> informing him that a new DSDE 9 form (attachment) must be submitted to this office to appoint himself as treasurer. -DLH, 9/5/2019

Re: Contact from treasurer Ms. Horbowy emailed me to call her. I called her back and she asked if all the reports were good. I told her that none of the reports have been filed. I told her there were 4 months of reports that have not been filed, sitting in pending. I looked over each report and several were showing errors. She asked if I could give her the password. I told her that it had been given to her son and he would have changed it to something easier to remember. She said she wanted to be removed from this campaign. I told her that all she would need to do is to send us something in writing with her signature explaining that she resigned from this campaign. However, I pointed out that once she did that, he would not be able to file any reports as she was the only treasurer. I suggested she call the candidate, get his pin # and the password. Call me back so we can correct the errors in the reports and file these. (M4, M5, M6, and M7 all in pending.) I told her that the campaign has already been referred to the FEC for failure to file reports. I told her that unfortunately, since she is the treasurer, she will be part of the referral. She said she will hang up and attempt to contact him to get the pin and password. I will send her a credential request form in the event she can't reach the candidate. Ejr

Re CRF, 10:40 am I called the candidate. He requested that I call him back at 1:30pm, that he was currently walking around neighborhoods (campaigning I assume.) I asked him to call me when it was convenient and he said he had our number. Called at 2:30pm, left a Vmmessage for Can to call me back. He called back 8/09/19 1:30pm and I gave him his new PWD.

I told him it was a filing day, someone would be here until 6:00 pm.
