Ms. Kling, we cannot tell you whether or not you should attend the hearing. Attending the hearing is your choice. However, the attorney assigned to the case will review the materials in order to prepare for case presentation. But, again, we cannot tell you whether or not the documents you submit are sufficient. Only the members of the Commission as a body can rule on a case.

As a reminder, Ms. Pelican requested a "written appeal," not a hearing. However, ALL cases must be heard by the Commission which is called a hearing. I hope this helps. Let me know if you have any other questions.

To Whom It may concern;

This is in reference to Sarah Pelican's campaign and the explanation for being late hence this hearing. I have included a note from Dr. Miller and without getting into personal medical information this explanation is what I am comfortable giving.

On November 4, 2011, I started going over receipts and deposits to match all of them prior to the computer entry. About 10:40pm I started having a severe reaction to the new medication Dr. Miller prescribed. During the next several hours I was unable to perform any tasks. It was almost 2am when I was well enough to finish the reports for electronic filing. I entered the necessary information for the completion of the reports and filed them approximately 3am.

I do apologize for the delay but with circumstances beyond my control I completed the necessary filing a matter of hours late.

In the event you should have any questions please feel free to call me. This trip to Tallahassee will be a difficult one but in the case it is not dismissed prior to the hearing I will attend.

Sincerely,

Michele Kling

STATE OF FLORIDA
FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION

In Re: Sarah Pelican.

Case No.: FEC 11-298

NOTICE OF HEARING ON APPEAL OF AUTOMATIC FINE

TO: Sara Pelican
425 North Fletcher Avenue
Fernandina Beach, Florida 32034

Mary L. Mercer, City Clerk
City of Fernandina Beach
204 Ash Street
Fernandina Beach, Florida 32034

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on February 21, 2012, at 8:30 a.m. or thereafter as the parties can be heard, the Florida Elections Commission will consider the Respondent's appeal of the automatic fine imposed by the filing officer. The Commission will meet at: City Hall, City Commission Chambers, 300 S. Adams Street, Tallahassee, Florida.

Although you did not request a hearing, this notice is to inform you that your case will be discussed at the meeting taking place on the above date and place. All documents you want the Commission to consider must be submitted at least 10 days prior to the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 48 hours before the hearing.

PLEASE GOVERN YOURSELF ACCORDINGLY.

Dated on January 19, 2012.

Rosanna Catalano
Executive Director

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HEARING ON APPEAL OF AUTOMATIC FINE

Please be advised that other cases have been scheduled for the same time. Therefore, your case may not be called exactly at the time set forth on this notice.

At the automatic fine hearing, the Florida Elections Commission will decide whether Respondent's campaign treasurers report was timely filed or whether there were unusual circumstances that excuse his failure to timely file his report.

Rule 2B-1.0055, Florida Administrative Code, defines unusual circumstances as "uncommon, rare or sudden events over which the actor has no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements. Circumstances which allow for time in which to take those steps necessary to assure compliance with the filing requirement shall be deemed not to constitute unusual circumstances."

The hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes, if Respondent is a candidate, a political committee, or an electioneering communications organization; Section 106.04(8)(c), Florida Statutes, if Respondent is a committee of continuous existence; or Section 106.29(3)(c), Florida Statutes, if Respondent is a political party; and Commission Rules 2B-1.005, 1.0052, & 1.0055, Florida Administrative Code.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

Before making a decision, the Commission will review the written documents submitted by Respondent and staff at least ten days before the hearing and the information presented at the hearing. Rule 2B-1.005, Florida Administrative Code, provides that unless good cause is shown, the Commission will not consider any written document unless it has been filed with the Commission Clerk at least ten days before the hearing.

When the case is called, the Chair will read a brief statement and may ask the Respondent and his attorney, if one is present, to state their names for the record. Respondent will then have time to present his case to the Commission. Witnesses may be called to testify under oath on Respondent's behalf. If Respondent calls witnesses, the staff attorney may cross-examine those witnesses after Respondent's questioning is finished. After Respondent's presentation, staff will have the same amount of time to present its case. If the staff attorney calls witnesses, Respondent may cross-examine those witnesses after staff's questioning is finished.

At any time during the presentations the Commissioners may ask questions of Respondent, his attorney, the witnesses, and staff. After the presentations are concluded, the Commissioners will discuss the case and decide whether Respondent's report was timely filed or whether there were unusual circumstances that excuse his failure to file timely his report. The Commission will make a decision by a majority vote of those members present and voting.

After the Commission meeting, the Commission will send Respondent a written order reflecting the Commission's decision. If the Commission upholds the fine, Respondent will have 30 days to pay the fine.

If you have any questions about the procedures for the hearing, please contact Donna Malphurs at 107 W. Gaines Street Collins Building, Suite 224 Tallahassee, FL 32399-1050, phone number: (850) 922-4539.

RE: LATE CAMPAIGN TREASURER REPORT

Dear Ms. Mercer:

In reference to the filing of City Commission Candidate Sarah Pelican's Campaign Treasurer's Report that was due by 11:59 PM on Friday, November 4, 2011, I actually filed her report as her Campaign Treasurer at 3:14 AM on Saturday, November 5, 2011.

Due to circumstances beyond my control, I was medically unable to file the report at 11:59 PM. I have attached a copy of a statement written by my physician regarding a medical issue I was having.

Therefore, in accordance with Florida Statute 106.07 8(a)(2)(c), due to this unusual circumstance, we plan to bring the appeal before the Florida Elections Commission.

If you have any questions, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Michele Kling
Campaign Treasurer for Candidate Sarah Pelican

OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK

November 17, 2011

Ms. Sarah Pelican
Candidate for City Commission, Group 3
425 North Fletcher Avenue
Fernandina Beach, FL 32034

RE: LATE CAMPAIGN TREASURER REPORT

Dear City Commission Candidate Pelican:

It has been brought to our attention that you failed to file your Campaign Treasurer Report that was due on Friday, November 4, 2011 by 11:59 PM but did file your Campaign Treasurer Report at 3:14 AM on November 5, 2011.

In accordance with Section 106.07, Florida Statutes, "reports, certification and filing", subsection 8(a)(2)(b) (copy attached) states that reports must be filed immediately preceding each primary and general election, and if not filed in time, a fine of $500 per day for each late day shall be assessed, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

In accordance with subsection 106.07 8(a)(2)(c), Florida Statutes, a candidate may appeal or dispute the fine, based upon, but not limited to, unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and shall be entitled to a hearing before the Florida Elections Commission, which shall have the authority to waive the fine in whole or in part. The candidate shall, within the 20 day period, notify the filing officer in writing of his/her intention to bring the matter before the Florida Elections Commission.

Therefore, you must pay a fine of $500 to the filing officer or City Clerk within 20 days after receipt of this notice of payment due, unless appeal is made to the Florida Elections Commission pursuant to subsection 106.07 8(a)(2)(c), Florida Statutes. In such case, you shall within the 20 day period, notify the filing officer or City Clerk in writing of your intention to bring the appeal before the Florida Elections Commission.

If you choose to pay the $500 fine, such fine shall be paid only from personal funds of the candidate, payable to the City of Fernandina Beach, which will be deposited into City's General Revenue Fund, pursuant to Florida Statutes.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to let us know.

Sincerely,

CITY OF FERNANDINA BEACH

RE: Case No.: FEC 11-298; Campaign Treasurer's Report due 11/04/11

Dear Ms. Pelican:

The Florida Elections Commission received your letter appealing the fine assessed against you for failing to timely file your campaign treasurer's report. I anticipate that the Commission will hear your case at its next meeting, which is presently scheduled for February 21 and 22, 2012, in Tallahassee. However, please call our office to verify when your case will be heard.

In reaching its decision, the Commission will consider the documents gathered by Commission staff and any documents you submit for the Commission's consideration before its meeting. Unless good cause is shown, the Commission will not consider any written document unless it has been filed with the Commission Clerk at least ten days before the meeting. Rules 2B-1.005, 1.0052, and 1.0055, Florida Administrative Code, are the Commission's rules on the appeal of automatic fines.

The Commission will uphold the fine imposed by the filing officer unless you provide credible evidence that the report was timely filed or credible evidence that unusual or other circumstances caused the report to be filed late.

If you are a county, municipal, or special district candidate or committee and your report was received by the filing officer without a postmark or with an illegible postmark more than five days after the due date or it was delivered to the filing officer by a mail delivery service other than the United States Postal Service, it will not be found timely filed unless you submit a copy of a proof of mailing or at a hearing before the Commission, presents the oral testimony of the person who timely mailed the report.

The proof of mailing submitted shall reflect that it was obtained from the United States Postal Service or other mail delivery service at the time of mailing and shall reflect that the report was mailed before midnight on the due date. A metered postage mark does not constitute a postmark or a proof of mailing.

If you cannot show that your report was timely filed, the Commission may still grant you relief, but only if you show unusual circumstances. Unusual circumstances is defined in Rule 2B-1.005(4), Florida Administrative Code, to mean “uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the actor has no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements.” Unusual circumstances must occur within a time period that would clearly have prevented you from filing the report in a timely manner. Unusual circumstances shall not include the failure of the United States Postal Service or other mail delivery service to postmark an envelope, legibly postmark an envelope, or timely deliver mail. Further, unusual circumstances shall not include the failure of the sender to affix sufficient postage to a report that is being mailed.

Without credible evidence, the Commission will not find unusual circumstances. The following circumstances may constitute unusual circumstances so long as credible evidence is presented that unusual circumstances caused the report to be filed late.

1. Natural disaster or other emergency that prevented timely filing. Evidence submitted must include copies of newspaper reports or other documents from an independent and reliable source that shows the nature, date, and location of the natural disaster or emergency.
2. Death of the candidate or campaign treasurer or an immediate family member of the candidate or campaign treasurer. Evidence submitted must include a copy of the death certificate, newspaper obituary, or funeral program, or notice.
3. Serious illness, disability or non-elective surgery of the candidate or campaign treasurer. Evidence submitted must include a physician's certification on professional letterhead stationery that includes the dates of the illness, disability, or surgery; a statement regarding the period of time that the patient was incapacitated; and a statement that surgery, if any, was not elective. Copies of hospital records reflecting the dates of hospitalization may also show the period of incapacitation.
4. Serious illness, disability, or non-elective surgery of the immediate family member of the candidate or campaign treasurer. Evidence submitted must include evidence of the relationship of the candidate or treasurer to the family member, the location of the family member, and the reason the presence of the candidate or campaign treasurer was required. Evidence submitted must also include a physician's certification on professional letterhead stationery that includes the dates of the illness, disability or surgery; a statement regarding the period of time that the patient was incapacitated; a statement that surgery, if any, was not elective; and a statement that the patient required the care of a family member.
5. Computer or equipment failure caused by events that could not have been anticipated and that made timely filing of the report impossible. Power outages or program failure does not constitute unusual circumstances unless it is established that reasonable precautions to assure the safety of the equipment or the ability of the program to perform as anticipated were taken before the events causing failure of the equipment or program. Evidence must include a written statement made under oath in the presence of a notary or other person authorized to administer oaths indicating the cause and the duration of the power outage and the reasonable precautions taken to assure the safety of the equipment or the ability of the program to perform as anticipated.

6. The abrupt and unexpected loss of the campaign treasurer, over which you had no control. The loss of the campaign treasurer does not constitute unusual circumstances if the appealing party failed to monitor the campaign treasurer's performance before his or her departure or if the appealing party failed to assure prompt preparation of the report after the treasurer's departure. Evidence must include a written statement made under oath in the presence of a notary or other person authorized to administer oaths explaining the departure of your treasurer and the steps taken to monitor the treasurer's performance before his or her departure.

You may, of course, send any additional evidence that you believe supports your position that your report was timely filed or that unusual circumstances cause your report to be filed late. Rule 2B-1.005(3), Florida Administrative Code, provides that if you send additional documentary evidence, the Commission must receive it no later than 20 days from the date of this letter. Remember that the Commission will not consider any written document unless it has been filed with the Commission Clerk at least ten days before the meeting, unless good cause is shown. If the documentary evidence is timely received, it will be presented to the Commission when it considers your appeal of the assessed fine.

It is your responsibility to provide the Commission with credible evidence that the report was timely filed or credible evidence that unusual circumstances caused the report to be filed late. If you do not provide the evidence requested in this letter or in the Commission rules, the Commission will uphold the fine assessed by the filing officer.

Should you have any questions, please contact Tracie Aulet, Investigator, at extension 114.

Sincerely,

Donna Ann Malphurs
Agency Clerk

RE: LATE CAMPAIGN TREASURER REPORT

Dear City Commission Candidate Pelican:

It has been brought to our attention that you failed to file your Campaign Treasurer Report that was due on Friday, November 4, 2011 by 11:59 PM but did file your Campaign Treasurer Report at 3:14 AM on November 5, 2011.

In accordance with Section 106.07, Florida Statutes, "reports, certification and filing", subsection 8(a)(2)(b) (copy attached) states that reports must be filed immediately preceding each primary and general election, and if not filed in time, a fine of $500 per day for each late day shall be assessed, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

In accordance with subsection 106.07 8(a)(2)(c), Florida Statutes, a candidate may appeal or dispute the fine, based upon, but not limited to, unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and shall be entitled to a hearing before the Florida Elections Commission, which shall have the authority to waive the fine in whole or in part. The candidate shall, within the 20 day period, notify the filing officer in writing of his/her intention to bring the matter before the Florida Elections Commission.

Therefore, you must pay a fine of $500 to the filing officer or City Clerk within 20 days after receipt of this notice of payment due, unless appeal is made to the Florida Elections Commission pursuant to subsection 106.07 8(a)(2)(c), Florida Statutes. In such case, you shall within the 20 day period, notify the filing officer or City Clerk in writing of your intention to bring the appeal before the Florida Elections Commission.

If you choose to pay the $500 fine, such fine shall be paid only from personal funds of the candidate, payable to the City of Fernandina Beach, which will be deposited into City's General Revenue Fund, pursuant to Florida Statutes.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to let us know.

Sincerely,

CITY OF FERNANDINA BEACH

Mary L. Mercer

RE: LATE CAMPAIGN TREASURER REPORT

Dear Ms. Mercer:

In reference to the filing of City Commission Candidate Sarah Pelican's Campaign Treasurer's Report that was due by 11:59 PM on Friday, November 4, 2011, I actually filed her report as her Campaign Treasurer at 3:14 AM on Saturday, November 5, 2011.

Due to circumstances beyond my control, I was medically unable to file the report at 11:59 PM. I have attached a copy of a statement written by my physician regarding a medical issue I was having.

Therefore, in accordance with Florida Statute 106.07 8(a)(2)(c), due to this unusual circumstance, we plan to bring the appeal before the Florida Elections Commission.

If you have any questions, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Michele Kling
Campaign Treasurer for Candidate Sarah Pelican
