In Re: Faith Olivia Babis, FEC Case 18-184 (Florida Elections Commission)

Dear Chairman Thomas:

The purpose of this correspondence is request that the Automatic Fine Hearing in the above-referenced case be continued until the next meeting of the Florida Elections Commission (FEC). The hearing is currently scheduled for November 14, 2018 at 1:30 p.m.

As you are aware, the Secretary of State has ordered machine recounts in three statewide election contests and two legislative election contests, pursuant to Section 102.141, Florida Statutes. The results of those machine recounts may lead the Secretary State to order a manual recount of one or more of those election contests pursuant to Section 102.166, Florida Statutes.

As the general counsel of the Florida Democratic Party, I will be intimately involved in the recount process between now and November 20, 2018, when the State Election Canvassing Commission is scheduled to certify the results of the 2018 general election. Because of these unforeseen developments, I am requesting that the case be continued until the next regularly scheduled meeting of the FEC.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Mark Herron

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

See further instructions on the reverse side.

Eric M. Lipman

General Counsel for Executive Director Florida Elections Commission October 29, 2018 Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Faith Olivia Babis is a candidate for State Senator in the 2018 elections. Zachary Keller is her treasurer. Attorney Mark Herron, Esquire is the representing Ms. Babis in this case.

Faith Olivia Babis is appealing the fine. According to Mark Herron, Esq., Ms. Babis initially filed as a candidate for the 2020 election. She re-designated her candidacy to the 2018 election cycle. Mr. Herron states that candidates in the 2020 election would file monthly throughout the 2018 cycle. Upon re-designating her candidacy to the 2018 cycle neither her not her campaign treasurer understood at that time that the primary filing dates were applicable to her 2018 campaign.

Mr. Herron also states that Ms. Babis seeks a reduction of the fine due to the failure of the Division to immediately notify her of her failure to timely file the 2018 P1 report. She did not receive notice until July 7, 2018 via mail (letter dated July 2nd). They also note that no phone calls or emails were received and claim that the Division of Elections has both of those points of contact on file and has used both to contact her previously.

- The 2018 P1 Original Report covers the period from 06/01/18-06/22/18; it was due on 06/29/18.
- The 2018 P1 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 07/07/18 at approximately 11:53am.
- Faith Olivia Babis reported receiving 53 contributions, while making 14 expenditures.
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Faith Olivia Babis's 2018 P1 report. However, staff received an email from the DOE Bureau Chief, Kristi R. Willis, on August 2, 2018 concerning the appeal.

PRIOR CASES: None.

Just an fyi on this one. Please provide to the person handling the appeal.

Mark Herron says that the Division delayed in notifying the Division. The report was due on Friday the 29th. The FF letter was generated and mailed on July 2nd, which was the first business day after the report was due. Also, Mr. Herron states that the Division did not notify Ms. Babis by email or telephone. Ms. Babis has not put an email in her account, thus the automatic email that goes out the day after a report is due if the candidate has not filed would not have been sent to her. Even if an email is provided on other paperwork, if it has not been put in the system, reminder emails are not sent. IT is up to the candidate or treasurer to put the email in the system and make sure that it is up to date. The division does not have the staff to individually email candidates who have not taken the time to put an email in the EFS so that they receive the automatic email blasts. All candidates and treasurers are provided a memo telling them how to put an email in the system so that they receive emails from the Division. As of this date, neither Ms. Babis nor her treasurer have bothered to put am email in the EFS.

With regard to a telephone call, with over 500 candidates, the Division does not have the time or staff to make phone calls if a candidate misses a deadline.

Regards,

Kristi Reid Willis, Chief Bureau of Election Records

Re: Appeal / Request for Hearing / Olivia Babis

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The purpose of this correspondence is to appeal the fine imposed by the Division of Elections, on July 10, 2018, on Olivia Babis in connection with a late filed 2018 P1 campaign treasurer's report. With respect to this appeal, the Ms. Babis requests a hearing before the Florida Elections Commission ("FEC").

Prior to becoming a candidate in SD 23, Ms. Babis had never been a candidate for public office and had never served as the chair or treasurer of a political committee or of a campaign. Initially, she filed as a candidate for SD 23 in the 2020 election, but with the resignation of Greg Steube, the incumbent in SD 23, to seek election to the Congress in the 2018 election cycle, she re-designated her candidacy to the 2018 election cycle.

Candidates in the 2020 election would file on a monthly basis throughout the 2018 cycle. Upon re-designating her candidacy to the 2018 cycle, since she had no primary opponent, neither she nor her campaign treasurer understood at that time that the primary filing dates were applicable to her 2018 campaign.

Ms. Babis also seeks reduction of the fine imposed due to the failure of the Division to immediately notify her of her failure to timely file the 2018 P1 report on June 29, 2018 as required by Section 106.07(8)(b), Florida Statutes. Records show that a letter was dated July 2, 2018 was mailed by the Division of Elections and was received several days later with the consequence being that the report was not filed until July 7, 2018. There was no attempt to contact me via phone or e-mail, even though the Division of Elections has both of those points of contact on file and has used both to contact me previously. If I had been notified immediately via phone, or e-mail, that the report was late, then it would have filed immediately upon notification rather than several days late.

Consequently, Ms. Babia respectfully requests that the fine imposed of $1,463.70 be waived in full by the Commission.

I trust that this filing complies with the requirements of Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes. If this is not the case or if the Commission has any additional questions or concerns regarding this appeal, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Mark Herron

Faith Olivia Babis Candidate for State Senator, District 23 672 North Jefferson Avenue Sarasota, FL 34237-4237

Dear Ms. Babis:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was June 29, 2018.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

• If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Campaign Treasurer's Reports

Your first campaign treasurer's report will be due on May 10, 2018. The report will cover the period of April 1-30, 2018 (M4). All candidates who file reports with the Division of Elections are required to file by means of the Division's Electronic Filing System (EFS).

Faith Olivia Babis April 11, 2018 Page Two

Any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first 3 days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.
