Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
August 23, 2021

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Reference: Case No. 20-401 and FEC 21-016 Cristhian Mancera Mejia Request for continuance.

To whom it may concern,

I have received in the mail a citation for a hearing for cases 20-401 and 21-016 on Tuesday May 25th, 2021, at 8:30 AM. Unfortunately, I am unable to attend and explain to the commission my case. On this date, I am starting a job and although I tried to ask my employer to allow me to attend the hearing, it is the first day on the job and must attend my new job and duties. Therefore, I am requesting this hearing be postponed for my cases since I want to address the commission myself and explain my case for your consideration. As a result, I am respectfully requesting that I be granted a continuance in these cases in order for me to be heard.

Thank you and look forward to your response,

I recently received two communications from your office establishing a sanction for delays on the campaign reporting for the last cycle 20P7 of reporting prior to the primary election for a total of $735.00. Both delays on the reporting cycles for the political action committee "committee to elect Cristhian Mancera" and the campaign Cristhian Mancera Mejia for Miami-Dade Commissioner were due to excessive work on the campaign trail. Since I was both candidate and campaign manager-treasurer, I had to do both jobs requiring additional time from me. This is not an excuse, but it was a reason to have filed these reports after the due date. The delay was always measured in the hours after the due date at midnight, and I must confess during those last days of campaigning I was worn out due to the exposure to the sun, given out flyers to voters at the early voting sites and just came home after campaigning, took a shower and laid down to rest before submitting the reports and as a result I just woke up and hours had passed to submit the report. My campaign was a transparent and honest endeavor that I mostly financed on my own due to lack of backers and support due to the corona virus pandemic. Therefore, these additional funds added as fines to my campaign for $735.00 US Dollars are almost impossible to pay at this time, and I am formally requesting to have these fees waived as I spent all my savings in my campaign, and, at this point, I am unable to finance these fees.

I know the rules and that we are supposed to follow them, and I did all I could to do so, nevertheless, my delay in submitting the reports was not due to negligence or lack of attention, I was just exhausted and this overcame me at that stage of the campaign, and I failed to report before midnight. I request that I be given the opportunity to not be subjected to these fees with the compromise of not allowing this to happen again.

I look forward to your answer and understanding with this matter. Your collaboration will be appreciated.

Thank you,

20P7 Campaign Treasurer's Report
Due Date: 8/14/2020
Period Covered: 8/1/2020 – 8/13/2020

Dear Mr. Mejia,

The 20P7 Campaign Treasurer's Report filed with our office was submitted on 8/15/2020 (#1226727). Since this report was not filed by the appropriate filing date, a fine is being assessed for each late day pursuant to Florida Statute 106.07(8)(b).

As such, for reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500.00 per day for each late day. These fines are not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. Therefore, since the report was 1 day late, the fine is $407.50, which is 25% of your Total Contributions of $1,630.00. Said fine must be received by our office at 2700 NW 87th Avenue, Miami, FL 33172 within twenty (20) days of your receipt of this notice. The check should be made payable to Miami-Dade County paid only from candidate's personal funds.

Florida Statute 106.07(8)(b) goes on to say that the fine may be appealed or disputed based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file by the designated due date. A hearing before the Florida Elections Commission may be requested, which shall have the authority to waive the fine in part or whole. Any such request must be submitted in writing and must be received by the Florida Elections Commission within 20 days of your receipt of this notice. To request an appeal, please write to the Florida Elections Commission, 107 West Gaines Street, Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, FL 32399-1050. Our office must also be notified of the intent to bring this matter before the Commission.

I urge you to promptly resolve this matter. If not, in accordance with Florida Statute 106.07(8)(d), we will be required to notify the Florida Elections Commission of this late filing and failure to pay the imposed fine.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact the Candidate Services Unit at 305-499-8410.

7. Contributions collected via Paypal or a third-party vendor to collect contributions must be reported in full (transaction fees are not deducted from the contribution amount, but rather reflected as an expenditure).
8. The person signing the check is the contributor, except for a company check that is a "Business" entity.
9. In-kind contributions are subject to contribution limitations ($1,000 per election, per contributor).
10. Candidates cannot accept contributions from an Electioneering Communications Organization (ECO).

Conversations - Financial Filer Management System

Name	Date	County Staff Person	Report Period	Notes
Cristhian David Mancera Mejia	8/24/2020	Will Castro		Mr. Mancera came to the office and paid his 20P4 and 20P6 Fines. I also printed his 20P7 fines for both his candidacy and his PC and let him know about the appeal process with the State since he asked how he can do so.
Cristhian David Mancera Mejia	4/29/2020	Yolanda Washington	20M03 (2020) Amend #2	I left a telephone message for Mr. Mejia regarding report 20M03 that was submitted blank with submission #1205061.
Cristhian David Mancera Mejia	4/29/2020	Will Castro		I received a call from Mr. Mancera informing me that he would like to remove a contribution listed as an in-kind (Sequence 5 on 20M03 Report). He told me that he spoke to the Ethics commission and did not want to take the risk of someone challenging him for this contribution.
Cristhian David Mancera Mejia	4/15/2020	Will Castro	20M03 (2020) Orig	Called and left a voicemail for Mr. Mancera. The 20M03 report that was submitted is incorrect and still needs to be amended.
Cristhian David Mancera Mejia	4/10/2020	Will Castro		Mr. Mancera sent me two e-mails. One was asking if he had to register his PC with us and the other question was regarding how we would enter a loan on his campaign finance report. I left him a voicemail with the answers to his questions.
Cristhian David Mancera Mejia	4/10/2020	Will Castro		Per Mr. Mancera's request I have rejected his 20M03 report due to improper items listed on his report that he was not aware of, I also sent him the filing paperwork for PC's as he told me he did not know if he had to register the PC before accepting contributions or making expenditures. I informed him that the PC paperwork must be filed immediately and that the PC's reports will be entirely separate than those of his candidacy.
