If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
August 23, 2021

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Kristopher Colin Knudson,
Respondent.

ORDER OF PROBABLE CAUSE

THIS MATTER was heard by the Florida Elections Commission (“Commission”) at its regularly scheduled meeting on May 25, 2021, in Tallahassee, Florida.

On January 5, 2021, Staff recommended to the Commission that there was probable cause to believe that the Florida Election Code was violated. The facts articulated in Staff’s Recommendation are adopted by reference and incorporated herein. Based on the Complaint, Report of Investigation, Staff’s Recommendation, and oral statements (if any) made at the probable cause hearing, the Commission finds that there is probable cause to charge Respondent with the following violation(s):

Count 1:

On or about September 20, 2018, Kristopher Colin Knudson violated Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes, when he failed to file the campaign’s 2018 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds within 90 days after being eliminated as a candidate.

Count 2:

On or around September 20, 2018, Kristopher Colin Knudson violated Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, when he deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, on the campaign's 2018 Termination Report.

The Commission finds that there is no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
February 2, 2021

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION

In Re: Kristopher Colin Knudson

Case No.: FEC 18-476

STAFF RECOMMENDATION FOLLOWING INVESTIGATION

Pursuant to Section 106.25(4)(c), Florida Statutes, undersigned staff counsel files this written recommendation for disposition of the referral in this case recommending that there is probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Sections 106.141(1) and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, and no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes. Based upon a thorough review of the Report of Investigation submitted on December 7, 2020, the following facts and law support this staff recommendation:

1. On December 14, 2018, the Florida Elections Commission (“Commission”) received a referral from the Department of State, Division of Elections (“Division” or “Complainant”), alleging that Kristopher Colin Knudson (“Respondent”) violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

2. Respondent was a 2018 candidate for State Representative, District 106. Respondent’s Statement of Candidate form (“DS-DE 84”) was filed on July 27, 2017. (ROI Exhibit 3)¹

3. By letter dated January 17, 2019, the Executive Director notified Respondent that Commission staff would investigate the following statutory provisions:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2018 candidate for State Representative, District 106, may have failed to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because he had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2018 termination reporting period.

Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2018 candidate for State Representative, District 106, failed to timely file his 2018 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2018 candidate for State Representative, District 106, may have falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information in his 2018 Termination Report, as required by Chapter 106.

4. On July 24, 2017, Respondent filed his Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for Candidates form (“DS-DE 9”) appointing himself as treasurer for his campaign. (ROI Exhibit 2)

5. By letter dated July 24, 2017, Kristi Reid Willis, Chief, Bureau of Election Records, sent Respondent a letter acknowledging that the Division had received his DS-DE 9 and that his name was placed on the 2018 active candidate list. (ROI Exhibit 4, page 1)

6. The acknowledgment letter advised Respondent that all candidates filing reports with the Division are required to use the electronic filing system (“EFS”) and provided Respondent with a user identification number and initial password to grant access to the EFS. (ROI Exhibit 4, page 1) The letter further advised Respondent that all of the Division’s publications and reporting forms were available on its website and directed Respondent to print out Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and the Calendar of Reporting Dates, as well as other relevant documents. (ROI Exhibit 4, page 2)

Alleged Violation: Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes

7. Complainant alleged that Respondent violated Florida’s election laws by failing to timely file the campaign’s 2018 Termination Report.

8. Respondent did not qualify and was eliminated as a candidate. Respondent was required to dispose of the funds on deposit in his campaign account and file the campaign’s 2018 Termination Report within 90 days after being eliminated as a candidate. (ROI Exhibit 1)

9. On September 21, 2018, November 7, 2018, and November 20, 2018, the Division sent letters notifying Respondent that his report had not been received. (ROI Exhibits 5 & 6)

10. A subpoena was issued to Respondent’s designated campaign depository to ascertain whether any financial activity occurred during the relevant reporting period, i.e., June 23, 2018 – September 20, 2018. Respondent’s bank records show two expenditures totaling $98, which were transfers to another account, three bank fees totaling $15, and one deposit totaling $10. (ROI Exhibit 7) (See ROI, page 2)

11. Respondent stated that the allegations are accurate. He stated that he recently divorced, and certain medical issues caused the neglect of important tasks. (ROI Exhibit 8)

12. As it appears that Respondent had reportable financial activity during the relevant reporting period, Respondent was required to file the campaign’s 2018 Termination Report within 90 days after being eliminated as a candidate but failed to do so.

Alleged Violation: Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes

13. Complainant alleged that Respondent violated Florida's election laws by falsely reporting or deliberately failing to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, on the campaign's 2018 Termination Report.

14. Based on the above analysis, Respondent had reportable financial activity during the relevant reporting period. Therefore, Respondent was required to disclose the financial activity on the campaign's 2018 Termination Report.

15. Regarding Respondent's deliberate failure to include information on the campaign's report, Respondent received three notices that his report was overdue. He may have failed to disclose the campaign's financial activity as the funds were not disposed of properly pursuant to sections 106.141(4)(a), and 106.11(5), Florida Statutes, but were transferred to another account. (ROI Exhibit 7)

16. Respondent deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, on the campaign's 2018 Termination Report.

Alleged Violation: Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes

17. Complainant alleged that Respondent violated Florida's election laws by failing to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed for the 2018 Termination reporting period.

18. Based on the above analysis, the campaign was not required to submit a notice of no activity for the 2018 Termination reporting period as there was reportable financial activity that Respondent was required to disclose on his 2018 Termination Report.

19. "Probable Cause" is defined as reasonable grounds of suspicion supported by circumstances sufficiently strong to warrant a cautious person in the belief that the person has committed the offense charged. Schmitt v. State, 590 So. 2d 404, 409 (Fla. 1991). Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances, of which an [investigator] has reasonably trustworthy information, are sufficient in themselves for a reasonable man to reach the conclusion that an offense has been committed. Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles v. Favino, 667 So. 2d 305, 309 (Fla. 1st DCA 1995).

20. The facts set forth above show that Respondent was a 2018 candidate for State Representative, District 106. Respondent failed to file the campaign's 2018 Termination Report within 90 days after being eliminated as a candidate. Respondent deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, on the campaign's 2018 Termination Report. Respondent was not required to notify the filing officer that he would not be filing his 2018 Termination Report because the campaign had reportable financial activity.

Based upon these facts and circumstances, I recommend that the Commission find no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes, and find probable cause to charge Respondent with violating the following:

Count 1:

On or about September 20, 2018, Kristopher Colin Knudson violated Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes, when he failed to file the campaign's 2018 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds within 90 days after being eliminated as a candidate.

Count 2:

On or around September 20, 2018, Kristopher Colin Knudson violated Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, when he deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, on the campaign's 2018 Termination Report.

Respectfully submitted on January 5, 2021.

Mattie T. Clay
Attorney

Report of Investigation
Sections 106.07(7), 106.141(1), and 106.19(1)(c), F.S.

Case Number: FEC 18-476

Respondent: Kristopher Colin Knudson

Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes, failure of a candidate to dispose of funds remaining in his campaign account within 90 days after he withdrew, became unopposed, was eliminated, or elected and to file a termination report (TR) reflecting the disposition of all remaining funds.

Division of Elections (Division)

Referral Filed: December 14, 2018

Sections 106.07(7), and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, failure of a candidate who did not receive any contributions or make any expenditures during the TR reporting period to notify timely the filing officer, in writing, that no TR is being filed or failure to file the TR to reflect financial activity.

I. Preliminary Information:

1. Respondent was a 2018 candidate for State Representative, District 106; he failed to qualify. Respondent was a first-time candidate. To review the Division’s memorandum to 2018 candidates who failed to qualify, refer to Exhibit 1.

2. An Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository form (DS-DE 9) was filed on July 24, 2017. Respondent appointed himself as campaign treasurer. To review the DS-DE 9, refer to Exhibit 2.

3. Respondent filed a Statement of Candidate with the Division on July 27, 2017 in which he certified he had been provided access to read and understand Chapter 106, F.S. To review the Statement of Candidate, refer to Exhibit 3.

4. An acknowledgement letter was mailed to the address provided on the DS-DE 9 on July 24, 2017. The letter advised Respondent that all candidates filing reports with the Division are required to file by means of the Division’s electronic filing system (EFS). Respondent was provided with a user identification number and initial password allowing him access to the EFS.

5. The acknowledgement letter also advised Respondent that all the Division’s publications and reporting forms are available on their website, including Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook and the Calendar of Reporting Dates. The letter further advised Respondent that it was his responsibility to read, understand, and follow the requirements of Florida’s election laws. To review the acknowledgement letter, refer to Exhibit 4.

6. The Division sent correspondence to Respondent notifying him that he had not filed either a termination report or notification that no reportable activity occurred and reminded him that the filing date was September 20, 2018. The correspondence was mailed to Respondent at the address provided on the DS-DE 9. To review the failure to file correspondence, refer to Exhibit 5.

7. On November 20, 2018, the Division sent Respondent a letter marked “Final Notice” with delivery confirmation stating that his 2018 termination report, or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, had not been filed. The letter was mailed to Respondent at the address provided on the DS-DE 9, and it was confirmed delivered on November 24, 2018. To review the letter marked “Final Notice” and delivery confirmation, refer to Exhibit 6.

II. Alleged Violation of Sections 106.07(7), 106.141(1), and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes:

8. I investigated whether Respondent violated these sections of the election laws by not notifying the filing officer, in writing, that no TR would be filed due to not receiving any contributions or making expenditures during the TR reporting period or by not filing a TR to reflect financial activity during the TR reporting period. I also investigated whether Respondent violated Section 106.141, Florida Statutes, by not disposing of all remaining campaign funds within 90 days of failing to qualify.

Report	Report Cover Period	Due Date	Report or Waiver Required	¹ Exhibit #
2018 TR	06/22/18- 09/20/18	09/20/18	Report	7

9. Campaign account records disclose that two expenditures transpired during the TR period in amounts of $30.00 and $68.00 for “Electronic Banking,” (electronic transfer of the funds to another account), there were three $5.00 monthly bank fees, and one deposit was made in the amount of $10.00. To review the bank records, refer to Exhibit 7.

10. On the date the TR was due, campaign account records reflect that the balance was $-3.20.² To review the relevant bank statement, refer to Exhibit 7, page 7.

11. Respondent did respond to the referral. Respondent said the allegations made in the notice letter are accurate. He explained that he went through a divorce, took himself off medication and, "...fell into a bad spiral of disassociation and self-destructive behavior." Respondent said this behavior included putting off important tasks, not checking his mail and letting bills become overdue. Respondent expressed his desire to be cooperative and helpful through this process and come to a conclusion where he can make amends with the State. To review Respondent’s response to the referral, refer to Exhibit 8.

12. Respondent did not respond to a questionnaire-affidavit. Because the affidavit has not been returned, I am unable to ascertain whether he has read Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and/or the Candidate & Campaign Treasurer Handbook.

13. I attempted to contact Respondent on 3 occasions to give him an opportunity to discuss the allegations made in the referral. However, it appears the phone number is no longer in service. As of the date of this report, I have been unable to reach Respondent by phone. To review a copy of the phone log, refer to Exhibit 9.

SIGNATURE OF INVESTIGATOR: Helen Hanson Date: December 7, 2020

¹I subpoenaed Respondent’s campaign account records for the designated campaign depository.

²Campaign account records show that the account remained open until October 4, 2018 when it was taken to a $0.00 balance.

Kristopher Colin Knudson
Candidate for State Representative, District 106
1151 Bluebird Avenue
Marco Island, FL 34145-4145

Dear Mr. Knudson:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your termination report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was September 20, 2018.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as $50 per day until you file your report. The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.
- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Knudson:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your termination report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was September 20, 2018.

We mailed, via regular mail, the first notice of the failure to file the above-mentioned report or notification to the address on file with our office on September 21, 2018.

The first notice which we provided to you specifically explained the automatic fine provisions in the law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) for failure to file a required report. Such fines are continuing to accrue for a late-filed report. Also, that notice explained that if no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to provide notification in writing that no reportable activity occurred. Our initial notice further indicated that, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

CAN 69970

Dear Mr. Knudson:

A recent review of the Division's records show that the Division has not yet received your termination report or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable.

The Division has previously notified you of the unfiled report or notification. Please file your report or notification. If the report or notification is not filed within 7 days of receipt of this letter, the Division will refer this matter to the Florida Elections Commission, which may impose civil penalties of up to $1000 per violation, apart from that automatic fine provisions of s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) that are applicable only to campaign finance reports.

As we stated in the prior notices, even if you now file the report or notification, the untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Case No FEC18-476 - Kris Knudson

Kris Knudson

to:

Hide Details

From: "Kris Knudson" <knudson.kris@gmail.com>

To: fec@myfloridalegal.com

Hey, this is Kris. This is the 14th day since I've received the letter in regards to my violation. Obviously, I'm in some trouble here.

I can't contest what the letter stated, because it is accurate. I'm not going to make a bunch of excuses. But as a little background, this past year and more specifically the past few months were tumultuous for me. After my divorce I went off my anti-depressant medication (wellbutrin). It was giving me delusions of grandeur and making my decisions incredibly impulsive, for instance running for public office. Obviously this was not a medically sound move and I fell into a bad spiral of disassociation and self destructive behavior. This behavior including putting off important tasks, not checking my mail and letting bills become overdue.

Again, I'm not trying to absolve myself of responsibility, just to paint a better picture for you.

So, long story short, I've gotten back on my medication and am trying to pull everything back out of the gutter, this issue included.

What I want to express is my desire to be cooperative and helpful throughout whatever legal proceedings come next. I know I've crossed the Rubicon, I can't just wash my hands of it. Hopefully we'll be able to come to a satisfying conclusion where I can make amends with the state.

Thank you for your time,
Kris

RE: Case No.: FEC 18-476; Respondent: Kristopher Colin Knudson

Dear Mr. Knudson:

On December 14, 2018, the Florida Elections Commission received a complaint alleging that you violated Florida's election laws. I have reviewed the complaint and find that it contains one or more legally sufficient allegations. The Commission staff will investigate the following alleged violations:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2018 candidate for State Representative, District 106, may have failed to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because he had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2018 termination reporting period.

Section 106.141(1), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2018 candidate for State Representative, District 106, failed to timely file his 2018 Termination Report reflecting the disposition of all remaining campaign funds.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2018 candidate for State Representative, District 106, may have falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information in his 2018 Termination Report, as required by Chapter 106.

When we conclude the investigation, a copy of the Report of Investigation (ROI) will be mailed to you at the above address. Based on the results of the investigation, a staff attorney will make a written recommendation (Staff Recommendation or SR) to the Commission as to whether there is probable cause to charge respondent with violating Chapters 104 or 106, Florida Statutes. You will have an opportunity to respond to both the ROI and the SR. The Commission will then hold one or more hearings to determine whether the alleged violations occurred and, if so, the amount of the fine to be imposed. You and the complainant will receive notice at least 14 days before any hearing at which your case is to be considered.

Please note that all documents related to this matter will be mailed to the above address unless you notify us of a new address. Also, please remember that complaints, Commission investigations, investigative reports, and other documents relating to an alleged violation of Chapters 104 or 106, Florida Statutes, are confidential until the Commission finds probable cause or no probable cause.

For additional information, please refer to the "Frequently Asked Questions" section of the Commission's website (www.fec.state.fl.us).

If you have additional questions, please contact Helen Hinson, the investigator assigned to this case at extension 115.

Sincerely,

Tim Vaccaro

Hey, this is Kris. This is the 14th day since I've received the letter in regards to my violation. Obviously, I'm in some trouble here.

I can't contest what the letter stated, because it is accurate. I'm not going to make a bunch of excuses. But as a little background, this past year and more specifically the past few months were tumultuous for me. After my divorce I went off my anti-depressant medication (wellbutrin). It was giving me delusions of grandeur and making my decisions incredibly impulsive, for instance running for public office. Obviously this was not a medically sound move and I fell into a bad spiral of disassociation and self destructive behavior. This behavior including putting off important tasks, not checking my mail and letting bills become overdue.

Again, I'm not trying to absolve myself of responsibility, just to paint a better picture for you.

So, long story short, I've gotten back on my medication and am trying to pull everything back out of the gutter, this issue included.

What I want to express is my desire to be cooperative and helpful throughout whatever legal proceedings come next. I know I've crossed the Rubicon, I can't just wash my hands of it. Hopefully we'll be able to come to a satisfying conclusion where I can make amends with the state.

Thank you for your time,
Kris

Dear Mr. Knudson:

A recent review of the Division's records show that the Division has not yet received your termination report or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable.

The Division has previously notified you of the unfiled report or notification. Please file your report or notification. If the report or notification is not filed within 7 days of receipt of this letter, the Division will refer this matter to the Florida Elections Commission, which may impose civil penalties of up to $1000 per violation, apart from that automatic fine provisions of s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) that are applicable only to campaign finance reports.

As we stated in the prior notices, even if you now file the report or notification, the untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Willis, Chief
Bureau of Election Records
