NOTICE OF HEARING (AUTOMATIC FINE)

A hearing will be held in this case before the Florida Elections Commission on, November 16, 2016 at 8:30 am, or as soon thereafter as the parties can be heard, at the following location: Senate Office Building, 404 South Monroe Street, Room 110-S, Tallahassee, Florida 32399

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission on this date. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

See further instructions on the reverse side.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

November 1, 2016

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Psychologists of Florida Political Action Committee is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Ms. Regina Mendoza and its treasurer is Dr. Carolyn Stimel.

The PC is appealing the fine claiming that unusual circumstances caused the untimely filing of the 2016 P1 Report. According to Dr. Stimel, "In the past two years our small organizations have experienced multiple turnovers in Executive Directors. The high turnover created a delay in reporting due to lost log-ins and lack of resources. Our organization is almost entirely made up of volunteers. Despite the challenges, we have filed reports timely over the past two years and will continue to do so. However, the inherent challenges due to change in leadership has resulted in a late filing of the P1 report due 7/1/16. Subsequent to receiving the email notice we immediately contacted the Department of Elections and filed our campaign reports which reported, collectively, less than $700 in contributions to our PACs. We are requesting an abatement of the fees in light of these issues. To ensure that the organization will not fail to file reports we have put in place the following safeguards: 1. Timely selection of an acting director in the event of unexpected turnover. 2. Log-in information will be kept secure by more than one officer."

- The 2016 P1 Report covers the time period from 6/1/16 through 6/24/16.
- The PC reported receiving 4 contributions, while making 1 expenditure during this reporting period.
- The 2016 P1 Queued-Transactions Report reflects that this report was created on 6/2/16 at approximately 10:32 am, before being filed on 7/12/16 at approximately 5:24 pm.
- On 8/12/16, Ms. Mendoza sent in a letter to the FEC ensuring staff that she was aware of this appeal for an automatic fine

PRIOR CASES: This PC has had two prior cases before the Commission. FEC 14-076; no unusual circumstances found for a violation of 106.07(8)(b)/fined $925.00/fine paid on 10/7/14. 02-037; found unusual circumstances/fine fully waived.

RE: Psychologist of Florida Political Action Committee #60807
Florida Psychologist for Prescriptive Authority #60894

The purpose of this letter is to request an abatement of the automatic penalties discussed in the attached notice.

In the past two years our small organizations have experienced multiple turnovers in Executive Directors. The high turnover created a delay in reporting due to lost log-ins and lack of resources. Our organization is almost entirely made up of volunteers. Despite the challenges, we have filed reports timely over the past two years and will continue to do so. However, the inherent challenges due to change in leadership has resulted in a late filing of the P1 report due 7/1/16. Subsequent to receiving the email notice we immediately contacted the Department of Elections and filed our campaign reports which reported, collectively, less than $700 in contributions to our PACs. We are requesting an abatement of the fees in light of these issues.

To ensure that the organization will not fail to file reports we have put in place the following safeguards:

1. Timely selection of an acting director in the event of unexpected turnover
2. Log-in information will be kept secure by more than one officer

Please accept my petition for abatement of penalties.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Stimel, Ph.D, ABPP

Re: Case No.: FEC 16-227; Respondent: Psychologists of Florida Political Action Committee; Campaign Treasurer's Report due 07/01/16 (2016 P1)

Dear Ms. Riley,

I received your letter regarding the appeal for a fine sent by our treasurer, Carolyn Stimel. I can confirm that Dr. Stimel is our Political Committee's treasurer and she is authorized to send that letter on our behalf.

We completed the necessary steps for Dr. Stimel to be listed as our treasurer many months ago and she has been receiving correspondence from the Elections Commission as such.

Again, please accept her letter of appeal of the fine as authorized. If I can be of further assistance, do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Regina Mendoza, Chair
Psychologists of Florida Political Action Committee

Dear Ms. Stimel:

The campaign treasurer's report that was due on July 1, 2016, was filed on July 12, 2016. By law, you are automatically assessed a late fine of $125.00.

You have 20 days from the receipt of this notice to either:

1. Pay the fine to the Florida Division of Elections (For a candidate only, a fine is not an allowable campaign expenditure and must be paid from personal funds) at:

*Florida Division of Elections
R.A. Gray Building, Room 316
500 South Bronough Street
Tallahassee, Florida 32399-025011*

2. Appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission (See Rules 2B-1.005 and 2B-1.0055, Florida Administrative Code) at:

*Florida Elections Commission
107 West Gaines Street, Ste. 224
Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0150*

If you appeal, please send a copy also to the Florida Division of Elections so that you will not receive further notices from the Division about this matter.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Stimel, Treasurer
Psychologists of Florida Political Action Committee

Tallahassee, FL 32301-2301

PAC 60807

Dear Ms. Stimel:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was July 1, 2016.

We mailed, via regular mail, the first notice of the failure to file the above-mentioned report or notification to the address on file with our office on July 5, 2016.

The first notice which we provided to you specifically explained the automatic fine provisions in the law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) for failure to file a required report. Such fines are continuing to accrue for a late-filed report. Also, that notice explained that if no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to provide notification in writing that no reportable activity occurred. Our initial notice further indicated that, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Carolyn Stimel, Treasurer
Psychologists of Florida Political Action Committee

Dear Ms. Stimel:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was July 1, 2016.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
  - $50 for the first 3 days late
  - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
  - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.
