Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
May 2, 2023

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

DATE OF ELECTRONIC RECEIPT: 07/04/2022

NUMBER OF DAYS LATE: 10

AMOUNT OF FINE: $626.25

TOTAL RECEIPTS FOR REPORTING PERIOD: $2,505.00

DATE OF FIRST NOTIFICATION: 06/28/2022 (Failure to File Ltr)

SUMMARY: Todd Delmay was a candidate for State Representative, District 101 in the 2022 elections. Jeffrey Delmay was his treasurer.

Todd Delmay is appealing the fine and claims his campaign was not notified of the change in reporting frequency. According to Mr. Delmay, when he called the Division, a staff member stated they should have received an email; however, upon review, he was notified that their email field for notifications was blank. Mr. Delmay states that “the field is not even a required field; therefore, campaigns through no fault of their own are not automatically notified by the Division if left blank”. He claims, “it is a simple fix to have a developer add a requirement to those field(s) so all campaigns are timely notified”.

- The 2022 P1 Original Report covers the period from 06/01/22-06/17/22; it was due on 06/24/22.
- The 2022 P1 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 07/04/22.
- Todd Delmay reported receiving 27 contributions, while making 4 expenditures.
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Todd Delmay’s 2022 P1 report.

RE: Fine Appeal

To Whom It May Concern:

I am appealing the fine for the campaign treasurer's report that was due on June 24th, 2022 and was filed on July 4th, 2022 and the subsequent assessment of a late fine of $626.25.

As you know, filings are typically due monthly, and under normal circumstances the month ends and the campaign has until the 10th day of the following month to file the report. This was the process my campaign followed for an entire year.

However, we were not informed that the month of June, 2022 was shortened and the report would be due sooner. A review of the Treasurer's Handbook reveals that it does not include this information or advisory, nor was there a letter or other email notification that a change in frequency was going to occur.

When I called to inquire about this, the responding agent told me that we should have received an email; however, upon further investigation, she noted that the email field for notifications was blank, so we never received any email notifications. She suggested I report that in this appeal letter.

In fact, you will find that that field is not even a "required" field; therefore, campaigns through no fault of their own are not automatically notified by the Division if left blank. Even though our email is known throughout the system, if that particular field is left blank, there is no notification whatsoever. It is a simple fix to have a developer add a requirement to those field(s) so all campaigns are timely notified.

Thank you for your consideration,

Todd Delmay, Former Candidate, HD101

CAN 79406

Dear Mr. Delmay:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was June 24, 2022.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:

- $50 per day for the first 3 days late

- $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late

- If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Donna S. Brown, Chief

Any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first three days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Electronic Receipts

The person submitting the report on the EFS will be issued an electronic receipt indicating and verifying the report was filed. Each campaign treasurer's report filed by means of the EFS is considered to be under oath by the candidate and campaign treasurer, and such persons are subject to the provisions of Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes.

Instructions and Assistance

An online instruction guide is available to you on the EFS to assist with navigation, data entry, and submission of reports. The Division of Elections will also provide assistance to all users by contacting the EFS Help Desk at (850) 245-6280.

All of the Division's publications and reporting forms are available on the Division of Elections' website at <https://dos.myflorida.com/elections>. It is your responsibility to read, understand, and follow the requirements of Florida's election laws. Therefore, please print a copy of the following documents: Chapters 104 and 106, Florida Statutes, Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook, Calendar of Reporting Dates, and Rule 1S-2.017, Florida Administrative Code.
