Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
August 13, 2020

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

IN RE: BOBBY POWELL, JR.,
FEC Case 19-526
Appeal of Fine for Late-Filed Campaign Treasurer's Report.

Motion to Reconsider Determination that Powell's Appeal Notice
Was Not Timely Filed

Bobby Powell, Jr. ("Powell"), through undersigned counsel, moves that the Florida Elections Commission ("FEC") reconsider its determination that Powell's appeal notice was not timely filed as indicated in the attached letter of October 9, 2019 (Exhibit A).

The FEC's determination is grounded on the assertion that Powell "received a final fine notice with delivery confirmation on or around May 13, 2019."¹ This assertion is undercut by the following:

1. The delivery confirmation" does not show that the letter of May 13, 2019 was received by Powell or that it was delivered to the specific post office box to which the letter of May 13, 2019 was addressed (Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402).

¹The letter at issue was dated May 13, 2019. The delivery confirmation purports to show delivery on May 15, 2019.

2. As indicated in the appeal, Powell did not receive the correspondence from the Division "on or about May 13, 2019," as asserted, regarding the automatically assessed fine, his right to appeal, and the requirement to appeal within 20 days, because his rental of the post office box expired while he was in Tallahassee performing his duties as a member of the Florida Senate during the 2019 legislative session. The 2019 Regular Session of the Florida Legislature convened on March 5, 2019 and its adjourned sine die on May 4, 2019.

3. After learning that his rental of the post office box had expired, Powell renewed his rental of Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402, and became aware of the automatically assessed fine, his right to appeal, and the requirement to appeal within 20 days, on September 5, 2019, when he picked up his mail. Whereupon, Powell timely filed his appeal on September 24, 2019, within the statutorily required 20 days period of receiving notice of the assessment and his right to appeal the fine.

Wherefore, Powell respectfully requests that the FEC reconsider its determination that Powell's appeal notice was not timely filed as indicated in the attached letter of October 9, 2019 and take up this appeal, grant him a hearing as requested, and waive the assessed fine, in whole or in part, based on the standards set out in Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes.

Respectfully submitted this 17th day of October 2019, by:

RE: Case No.: FEC 19-526; Campaign Treasurer's Report due 03/11/19

Dear Mr. Herron:

The Florida Elections Commission received your letter appealing the fine assessed against your client for failing to timely file a required report. Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes, provides that the candidate may appeal a fine assessed by a filing officer for the late filing of a campaign treasurer's report within 20 days of the receipt of the fine notice.

It appears Senator Bobby Powell, Jr. received a final fine notice with delivery confirmation on or around May 13, 2019; the deadline for appealing the fine was June 2, 2019. Unfortunately, your appeal notice was not timely filed, as it was delivered to this office on September 24, 2019. Therefore, we are unable to accept your appeal for this late report. This case is now closed.

Payment for the late report should be made to the filing officer to avoid entry of a default final order. I urge your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Donna Ann Malphurs

It looks like the 5/13/19 Fine Letter for the 2019 M2 Report sent by certified mail was delivered. Do you have any records confirming delivery and showing who signed for the letter? Also, am I correct in assuming that if any letter sent after 5/13/19 was returned it would be logged into the campaign doc search the same way the returned mail was on 5/13?

Thank you.

BEFORE THE
STATE OF FLORIDA
FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION

IN RE: BOBBY POWELL, JR.,
Appeal of Fine for Late-Filed Campaign Treasurer's Report.

Bobby Powell, Jr. ("Powell"), through undersigned counsel, appeals the fine imposed by the Division of Elections, on or about March 27, 2019, in connection with a late filed campaign treasurer's report. With respect to this appeal, the Ms. Leyva requests a hearing before the Florida Elections Commission ("FEC").

In support of this appeal and request for hearing, Mr. Powell states:

Failure to Receive Notice of Right to Appeal

1. On or about February 5, 2019, Powell filed an appointment of campaign treasurer and designation of campaign depository (DS-DE 9) with the Division of Elections naming himself as the campaign treasurer for his 2022 campaign for re-election to the Florida Senate, District 30. The listed mailing address for the campaign was Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402 (Exhibit 1.)

2. On or about March 13, 2019, Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, sent a letter to Powell indicating that he had not filed the 2019 M2 campaign treasurer's report that was due on March 11, 2019. This letter was mailed to Powell at the following address: Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402 (Exhibit 2.)

3. On or about March 27, 2019, Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, sent a letter to Powell indicating that the 2019 M2 campaign treasurer's report that was due on March 11, 2019 had been filed on March 23, 2019 and that a late fine of $4,448.65 had been assessed. This letter was mailed to Powell at the following address: Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402 (Exhibit 3.)

4. On or about April 10, 2019, Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, sent a second letter to Powell indicating that the 2019 M2 campaign treasurer's report that was due on March 11, 2019 had been filed on March 23, 2019 and that a late fine of $4,448.65 had been assessed. This letter was mailed to Powell at the following address: Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402 (Exhibit 4.)

5. On or about April 1, 2019, Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, sent an audit letter to Powell indicating that the 2019 M2 campaign treasurer's report was incomplete and indicating that he had seven days to file an amended report to correct the noted errors or provide the missing information. This letter was mailed to Powell at the following address: Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402 (Exhibit 5.)

6. On or about April 15, 2019, Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, sent a second audit letter to Powell indicating that the 2019 M2 campaign treasurer's report was incomplete and indicating that he had seven days to file an amended report to correct the noted errors or provide the missing information. This letter was mailed to Powell at the following address: Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402 (Exhibit 6.)

7. On May 13, 2019, the March 13, 2019 letter from Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, to Powell indicating that he had not filed the 2019 M2 campaign treasurer's report that was due on March 11, 2019 (Exhibit 2) was returned as being undeliverable. (Exhibit 7.)

8. On May 13, 2019, the March 27, 2019 letter from Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, to Powell indicating that a fine of $4,448.65 had been imposed for a late filed campaign treasurer's report (Exhibit 3) was returned as being undeliverable. (Exhibit 8.)

9. On May 13, 2019, the April 1, 2019 letter from Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, to Powell indicating that the 2019 M2 report was incomplete (Exhibit 5) was returned as being undeliverable. (Exhibit 9.)

10. On May 13, 2019, the April 10, 2019 letter from Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, to Powell indicating that a fine of $4,448.65 had been imposed for a late filed campaign treasurer's report (Exhibit 4) was returned as being undeliverable. (Exhibit 10.)

11. On or about May 13, 2019, Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, sent a final notice to Powell indicating that the 2019 M2 campaign treasurer's report that was due on March 11, 2019 had been filed on March 23, 2019 and that a late fine of $4,448.65 had been assessed. This letter was mailed to Powell at the following address: Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402. (Exhibit 11.)

12. On or about June 10, 2019, Kristi Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Elections Records, referred the unpaid assessed fine of $4,448.65 to the Department of Financial Services for collection. (Exhibit 12.)

13. On June 21, 2019, United Collections Bureau forwarded correspondence to Powell demanding payment of $5,227.16, reflecting the unpaid assessed fine of $4,448.65, plus a collection fee of $778.51. (Exhibit 13.)

14. Powell received notice of these actions on September 5, 2019, when copies of some of above-referenced documents were delivered to him at Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402.

Appeal of Fine Imposed

15. Section 106.07(8), Florida Statutes, authorizes a candidate to appeal or dispute a fine imposed by the Division of Elections, based upon, but not limited to, unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date. The candidate may request and shall be entitled to a hearing before the Florida Elections Commission, which shall have the authority to waive the fine in whole or in part. The Florida Elections Commission must consider the mitigating and aggravating circumstances contained in s. 106.265(2) when determining the amount of a fine, if any, to be waived.

16. On February 5, 2019, Powell transferred $17,794.59 from his 2018 Senate District 39 campaign as funds retained pursuant to Section 106.141(6), Florida Statutes, for use in his 2022 campaign for the same office. A report of this transaction, the 2019 M2 report, was due on March 11, 2019. This was the first report due in connection with Powell's 2022 Senate campaign.

17. The 2019 Regular Session of the Florida Legislature convened on March 5, 2019. On the weekend before the start of session, Powell checked his post office box and it did not have the confirmation letter from the Division with his campaign identification number and candidate / campaign treasurer passwords. Therefore, he could not file the 2019 M2 report at that time.

18. Powell became aware that the 2019 M2 report had not been filed. He then reached out to the Division was informed that he could not be provided the information by telephone and subsequently the Division provided the information to Powell needed to file the 2019 M2 report. The report was filed on March 23, 2019.

19. Powell did not receive the correspondence from the Division regarding the automatically assessed fine, his right to appeal, and the requirement to appeal within 20 days because, at some point while in Tallahassee, his rental of Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402 expired.

20. He subsequently renewed his rental of Post Office Box 782, West Palm Beach, FL 33402, and upon receipt of notice of these actions on September 5, 2019, Powell timely filed this appeal within the statutorily required 20 days period of receiving notice.

Conclusion

Based on the foregoing, Powell respectfully requests that the FEC take up this appeal, grant him hearing a hearing as requested, and waive the assessed fine, in whole or in part, based on the standards set out in Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes.

CAN 74103

Dear Senator Powell:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was March 11, 2019.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Willis, Chief

CAN 74103

Dear Senator Powell:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was March 11, 2019.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Willis, Chief
