Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

RE: Case No.: FEC 19-592; Campaign Treasurer's Report due 11/12/19 (2019 M10)

Dear Ms. Malphurs:

I am writing in response to your letter of December 16 regarding the appeal related to the late filing of the Campaign Treasurer's Report. I have been out of town for the past month and just saw your letter when I returned home this evening.

Mr. Satterfield was, in fact, acting on my behalf when he requested the one-time appeal.

I hope this letter from me provides the information you need. Many thanks for your assistance.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Anne Barnhart". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping underline.

Florida Elections Commission

To Whom It May Concern:

Treasure Coast PAC is in receipt of your letter dated November 18, 2019 regarding the late filing of the treasurer's report due on November 12, 2019.

The PAC regrets the late filing and is writing to request the late fine of $50 be waived. The treasurer of the PAC was out sick on November 12 and was unable to access the necessary files to submit the PAC's most substantial report to date. If not for illness, the report would have been submitted on time, as compliance is important to the PAC. Upon the treasurer's return to the office, the report was submitted promptly.

Given this organization's strong history of compliance, the PAC kindly requests the late fine be removed as a one-time courtesy.

Thank you,

David Satterfield

RE: Credential Request Form
Treasurer sent a CRF signed by the chair (she said she has not received her credentials). I gave Mr. Satterfield the password and pin. He logged into the account and filed a waiver for the 2019 M5.

Re: Credentials
A man identifying himself as David Satterfield called saying he needed his credentials to log into EFS. I looked and saw that "David Satterfield" is registered as the treasurer. I looked in Imaging and told him that the acknowledgement letter along with his 4 digit pin was mailed out to him on May 17 to the post office box address he has on file. I told him that the password was given to the chair and he'd have to contact her for that. He told me that she gave him all her information. I told him that if she didn't give him her 4 digit pin and password, he wouldn't be able to file the report. He said it had been a while since checking the po box. I directed him to the EFS credential request form so that if he needed to send that in, he could do so. I also told him if the chairperson did not give him the pw or her pin, she would need to fill out one of these forms giving us permission to release her pin and pw to him. He said he'd check the mail box and check the materials given to him again. Ejr
