NOTICE OF HEARING (AUTOMATIC FINE)

A hearing will be held in this case before the Florida Elections Commission on, August 16, 2017 at 8:30 am, or as soon thereafter as the parties can be heard, at the following location: Senate Office Building, 404 South Monroe Street, Room 110-S, Tallahassee, Florida 32399

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission on this date. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
August 1, 2017

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Florida Restaurant and Lodging Association PAC, Inc is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Ms. Carol Dover and its treasurer is Mr. Bob Dearden.

The PC is appealing the fine claiming that unusual circumstances prevented the 2017 M1 Report to be untimely filed. According to Ms. Dover, "As the Chairwoman of the Florida Restaurant & Lodging Associations Political Action Committees, I am asking for you to consider the reduction, or elimination of the late fines assessed to PAC 60630 and PAC 60632. Unfortunately, on February 10, 2017, Jason Reynolds (Deputy Treasurer) was unable to file our M1 report due to a medical situation that required him to miss work and seek a medical professional. In an effort to comply with the report deadline, and the inability to access our PAC database, he filed a waiver for PAC 60630 and PAC 60632 with the intention of amending the report when he was physically capable. When Jason was able to return to work, he amended the waiver for both reports and submitted the amended reports on February 16. Our history of compliance and minimal number of issues should demonstrate the seriousness and pride the Florida Restaurant & Lodging Association takes in our PAC's and reporting".

- The 2017 M1 Report covers the time period from 1/1/17 through 1/31/17.
- The PC reported receiving 0 contributions, while making 1 expenditure during this reporting period.
- The 2017 M1 Queued-Transactions Report reflects that this report was created on 2/10/17 at approximately 6:18 pm, before being filed on 2/10/17 at approximately 6:19 pm.
- In a 3/24/17 email with Kristi Reid-Bronson, FEC staff was informed, "Committee #60632 filed a notice of no activity (waiver) on 2/10/17. A waiver is not a report. On 2/16/17, the committee filed a report showing $10,000 of activity. The fine is based on filing a report 6 days late".

PRIOR CASES: This PC has been involved in a prior automatic fine appeal. FEC #09-206; no unusual circumstances found for alleged violation of 106.04(8)(b)/$125.00 fine paid on 1/12/10.

Re: PAC 60630 and PAC 60632 – Letter of appeal for the reduction of late fines

To Whom It May Concern:

As the Chairwoman of the Florida Restaurant & Lodging Associations Political Action Committees, I am asking for you to consider the reduction, or elimination of the late fines assessed to PAC 60630 and PAC 60632.

Unfortunately, on February 10, 2017, Jason Reynolds (Deputy Treasurer) was unable to file our M1 report due to a medical situation that required him to miss work and seek a medical professional. In an effort to comply with the report deadline, and the inability to access our PAC database, he filed a waiver for PAC 60630 and PAC 60632 with the intention of amending the report when he was physically capable.

Our history of compliance and minimal number of issues should demonstrate the seriousness and pride the Florida Restaurant & Lodging Association takes in our PAC's and reporting.

I am appealing to the Florida Elections Commission to consider the unique set of circumstances that prevented us from filing by the deadline. I have included a copy of the waiver demonstrating it was filed on February 10, 2017. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you for your consideration.
