Please be advised that the Commission will consider multiple cases, so you will need to wait until your case is considered. If you have any questions, please contact Commission staff at (850) 922-4539.

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION

In Re: Daniel Endonino

Case No.: FEC 20-010

STAFF RECOMMENDATION FOLLOWING INVESTIGATION

Pursuant to Section 106.25(4)(c), Florida Statutes, undersigned staff counsel files this written recommendation for disposition of the referral in this case recommending that there is no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes, and that there is probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes. Based upon a thorough review of the Report of Investigation submitted on March 13, 2020, the following facts and law support this staff recommendation:

1. On January 10, 2020, the Florida Elections Commission ("Commission") received a referral from the Department of State, Division of Elections ("Division"), alleging that Daniel Endonino ("Respondent") violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

2. Respondent is a candidate for State Representative, District 36, in the 2020 election, acting as his own treasurer. (ROI Exhibit 1)<sup>1</sup>

3. On February 6, 2020 the Executive Director notified Respondent by mail that Commission staff would investigate the following statutory provisions:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2020 candidate for State Representative, District 36, may have failed to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because he had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2019 M10 reporting period.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2020 candidate for State Representative, District 36, may have falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, during the 2019 M10 reporting period.

4. On May 17, 2019, the Division sent Respondent a letter acknowledging that the Division had received Respondent's Statement of Candidate (ROI Exhibit 1, page 1) and Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository appointing himself treasurer (ROI Exhibit 1, page 2) for the office of State Representative and placed his name on the 2020 active candidate list. (ROI Exhibit 2, page 1)

5. The acknowledgment letter advised Respondent that all the Division's publications and reporting forms were available on its website and directed Respondent to print out the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook, Calendar of Reporting Dates as well as other relevant documents, including Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. (ROI Exhibit 2, page 2)

Alleged Violation: Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes

6. Complainant alleged that Respondent violated Florida's election laws by failing to file a report after notice or failing to file a notification to the filing officer in writing that no report would be filed for the 2019 M10 reporting period.

7. Pursuant to Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes, in any reporting period during which a candidate has not received funds, made any contributions, or expended any reportable funds, the filing of the required report for that period is waived. However, the candidate is required to notify the filing officer in writing on the prescribed reporting date that no report is being filed on that date.

8. On November 15, 2019, December 11, 2019, and December 23, 2019, the Division mailed Respondent failure-to-file notices informing him that a 2019 M10 Report had not been received and of the potential penalties pertaining to Respondent's failing to file; each letter ended with the statement : "If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280." (ROI Exhibit 3, ROI Exhibit 4) The December 23rd letter was delivered to Respondent on or about December 28, 2019. (ROI Exhibit 4, page 2)

9. The Division did not receive any notification in writing from Respondent regarding the above failure-to-file letters and a subpoena was issued to Respondent's designated campaign depository, GTE Federal Credit Union, (ROI Exhibit 1, page 2) to ascertain whether any financial activity occurred during the 2019 M10 reporting period, October 1, 2019 through October 31, 2019.

10. In response to the subpoena, the campaign depository records show that there was financial activity that was required to be reported during the 2019 M10 reporting period. (ROI Exhibit 5)

11. Based on analysis of the above facts, the campaign was not required to submit a notice of no activity for the 2019 M10 reporting period as there was reportable financial activity that Respondent was required to disclose on his 2019 M10 Report.

Alleged Violation: Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes

12. On February 6, 2020, as stated previously, Respondent was notified that Commission staff would investigate a violation of Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes.

13. Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, prohibits a candidate, campaign treasurer, or person acting on behalf of a candidate, to knowingly and willfully falsely report or deliberately fail to include any information required by this chapter.

14. As previously noted, the response to the subpoena issued to Respondent's designated campaign depository, GTE Federal Credit Union, clearly shows that financial activity occurred in his campaign account during the 2019 M10 reporting period. (ROI Exhibit 5)

15. Based on having reportable financial activity during the relevant reporting period, Respondent was statutorily required to disclose that activity on his 2019 M10 Report.

16. However, Respondent did not file a 2019 M10 Report for the reporting period, October 1, 2019 through October 31, 2019. (ROI Exhibit 6, page 1 and 2). And, as of the date of the Staff Recommendation in this case, the Division's Florida Election System Reports continues to evidence that no campaign treasurer's report has been filed for the 2019 M10 reporting period.

17. Additionally, Respondent did not respond in writing or otherwise to the Complaint, the Legal Sufficiency letter, the Report of Investigation and any letters Commission staff mailed to him with those documents. Also, investigations sent Respondent a questionnaire-affidavit on two occasions which he did not return and follow-up contacts by investigations to obtain a completed questionnaire-affidavit were unsuccessful. (ROI Exhibit 7 and 8)

18. As previously noted, upon placing Respondent's name on the 2020 active candidate list, the Division advised Respondent where its publications and reporting forms were available and directed him to print out Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook, Calendar of Reporting Dates; he was also informed: "It is your responsibility to read, understand, and follow the requirements of Florida's election laws."

19. "Probable Cause" is defined as reasonable grounds of suspicion supported by circumstances sufficiently strong to warrant a cautious person in the belief that the person has committed the offense charged. Schmitt v. State, 590 So. 2d 404, 409 (Fla. 1991). Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances, of which an [investigator] has reasonably trustworthy information, are sufficient in themselves for a reasonable man to reach the conclusion that an offense has been committed. Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles v. Favino, 667 So. 2d 305, 309 (Fla. 1st DCA 1995).

20. Based on analysis of the above facts, Respondent, a candidate for State Representative, District 36, in the 2020 election, acting as his own treasurer, had reportable financial activity during the relevant reporting period which he was required to disclose on his 2019 M10 Report, and this he failed to do.

Based upon these facts and circumstances, I recommend that the Commission find no probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes, and that the Commission find probable cause to charge Respondent with violating the following:

Count 1:

On or around November 12, 2019, Daniel Endonino violated Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, when he deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, on his 2019 M10 Report.

Respectfully submitted on April 3, 2020.

OFFLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION
REPORT OF INVESTIGATION
Case No.: FEC 20-010

Respondent: Daniel Endonino

Complainant: Division of Elections

On January 10, 2020, the Florida Elections Commission (“Commission”) received a referral from the Division of Elections (“Division”) alleging that Respondent violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. Commission staff investigated whether Respondent violated the following statute(s):

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes, failure to notify filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because he had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2019 M10 reporting period; and

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, may have falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information in his 2019 M10 reporting period, as required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

I. Preliminary Information:

1. Respondent is a candidate for State Representative, District 36, in the 2020 election. This is Respondent’s first campaign for public office.
2. The Division serves as Respondent’s filing officer.
3. Respondent filed a Statement of Candidate (“DS-DE 84”) and Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for Candidates (“DS-DE 9”) on May 16, 2019 with the Division. Respondent signed the DS-DE 84 acknowledging he had been provided access to read and understand the requirements of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. Respondent appointed himself as campaign treasurer. Refer to Exhibit 1 for the DS-DE 84 and DS-DE 9 forms.
4. The Division sent a letter of acknowledgement to Respondent on May 17, 2019. The letter explained where to find publications and materials concerning Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook. The letter further explained, “It is your [Respondent] responsibility to read, understand, and follow the requirements of Florida’s election laws.” Refer to Exhibit 2 for the Division’s acknowledgement letter and the 2019 Calendar of Reporting Dates for Candidates.

II. Alleged Violation of Sections 106.07(7), and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes:

5. I investigated whether Respondent violated one of these sections of the election laws either by failing to notify his filing officer that no reportable activity occurred or by failing to file a Campaign Treasurer Report ("CTR") showing his campaign's financial activity for the 2019 M10 reporting period, which was from October 1, 2019 to October 31, 2019.

6. The Division alleged Respondent failed to file a CTR or a waiver for the 2019 M10 reporting period.

7. Respondent was notified by the Division three times to file either his 2019 M10 CTR or a waiver, whichever was applicable. The 2019 M10 report date was due November 12, 2019. On November 15, 2019, the Division mailed Respondent a notification letter stating the 2019 M10 report had not been filed. On December 11, 2019, the Division mailed Respondent a second notification letter stating that the 2019 M10 report had not been filed. On December 23, 2019, the Division mailed Respondent a final letter notifying Respondent that the 2019 M10 report had not been filed. The final letter was confirmed delivered on December 28, 2019. A CTR or a waiver was never filed. Refer to Exhibit 3 for the first and second notification letters and Exhibit 4 for the final notification letter and delivery confirmation.

8. During my investigation, Respondent's campaign depository at GTE Federal Credit Union was subpoenaed. Respondent's campaign depository records show that there was reportable financial activity during the period of October 1 to October 31, 2019, including a few expenditures. Respondent was required to report these expenditures. Refer to Exhibit 5 for Respondent's campaign depository's October bank statement.

9. At the time of writing this report, no CTR or waiver has been filed by Respondent for the 2019 M10 reporting period. Refer to Exhibit 6 for Respondent's filing history and reported finances.

10. Respondent was sent an affidavit and questionnaire. As of the date of this report, it has not been received. Despite multiple attempts of contact by telephone and email, Respondent has not provided the requested information or any substantive response to the complaint. Refer to Exhibit 7 for the investigation phone log and Exhibit 8 for email correspondence.

III. FEC History:

11. Respondent has no prior complaints filed against him with the Commission.

Dear Mr. Endonino:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was November 12, 2019.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:

$50 per day for the first 3 days late

$500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late

If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Endonino:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was November 12, 2019.

We mailed, via regular mail, the first notice of the failure to file the above-mentioned report or notification to the address on file with our office on November 15, 2019.

The first notice which we provided to you specifically explained the automatic fine provisions in the law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) for failure to file a required report. Such fines are continuing to accrue for a late-filed report. Also, that notice explained that if no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to provide notification in writing that no reportable activity occurred. Our initial notice further indicated that, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Dear Mr. Endonino:

A recent review of the Division's records show that the Division has not yet received the below-referenced campaign treasurer's report or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable, during the following cover period:

Year	Report	Cover Period
2019	M10	10/1/19 - 10/31/19

The Division has previously notified you of the unfiled report or notification. Please file your report or notification. If the report is not filed within 7 days of receipt of this letter, the Division will refer this matter to the Florida Elections Commission, which may impose civil penalties of up to $1000 per violation, apart from that automatic fine provisions of s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) that are applicable only to campaign finance reports.

As we stated in the prior notices, even if you now file the report or notification, the untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Home Equity Lines of Credit- a late fee will be charged if full payment is not received within 15 days of the due date.

RE: Case No.: FEC 20-010; Respondent: Daniel Endonino

Dear Representative Endonino:

On January 10, 2020, the Florida Elections Commission received a complaint alleging that you violated Florida's election laws. I have reviewed the complaint and find that it contains one or more legally sufficient allegations. The Commission staff will investigate the following alleged violations:

Section 106.07(7), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2020 candidate for State Representative, District 36, may have failed to notify the filing officer on the prescribed reporting date that no report would be filed on that date because he had not received funds, made contributions, or expended reportable funds during the 2019 M10 reporting period.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: As alleged in the complaint, Respondent, a 2020 candidate for State Representative, District 36, may have falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, during the 2019 M10 reporting period.

When we conclude the investigation, a copy of the Report of Investigation (ROI) will be mailed to you at the above address. Based on the results of the investigation, a staff attorney will prepare and present a written Staff Recommendation (SR) to the Commission as to whether there is probable cause to charge you, the Respondent, with violating Chapters 104 or 106, Florida Statutes. You will have an opportunity to respond to both the ROI and the SR. The Commission will then hold one or more hearings to determine whether the alleged violations occurred and, if so, the amount of the fine to be imposed upon you. Notice will be mailed to you and the Complainant at least 14 days before any hearing at which your case is to be considered.

Pursuant to Section 106.25(4)(i)3., Florida Statutes, the Commission may enter into a consent agreement with a Respondent to settle a complaint prior to a finding of probable cause. If you are interested in entering negotiations directed towards reaching a consent agreement to resolve this matter, please contact the Commission and request to speak with the attorney assigned to this case.

Please note that all documents related to this matter will be mailed to the above address unless you notify us of a new address.

Pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, complaints, investigations, investigative reports, and other documents relating to an alleged violation of Chapters 104 or 106, Florida Statutes, are confidential until the Commission finds probable cause or no probable cause, unless the Respondent files a written waiver of confidentiality with the Commission. The confidentiality provision does not apply to the Complainant or the Respondent.

Should you retain counsel, your attorney must file a notice of appearance with the Commission before any member of the commission staff can discuss this case with him or her.

For additional information, please refer to the "Frequently Asked Questions" section of the Commission's website.

If you have additional questions, please contact Brian Ayres, the investigator assigned to this case.

Sincerely,

Tim Vaccaro

Dear Mr. Endonino:

A recent review of the Division's records show that the Division has not yet received the below-referenced campaign treasurer's report or the required notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable, during the following cover period:

Year	Report	Cover Period

The Division has previously notified you of the unfiled report or notification. Please file your report or notification. If the report is not filed within 7 days of receipt of this letter, the Division will refer this matter to the Florida Elections Commission, which may impose civil penalties of up to $1000 per violation, apart from that automatic fine provisions of s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) that are applicable only to campaign finance reports.

As we stated in the prior notices, even if you now file the report or notification, the untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Willis, Chief
Bureau of Election Records
