v.

Respondent.

Agency Case No.: FEC 14-102
F.O. No.: FOFEC 15-125W

FINAL ORDER

THIS MATTER was heard at an informal hearing held before the Florida Elections Commission (Commission) on May 20, 2015.

APPEARANCES

For Commission	Eric M. Lipman General Counsel 107 West Gaines Street Collins Building, Suite 224 Tallahassee, FL 32399
For Respondent	No Appearance

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE

Whether Respondent violated Section 106 143(1)(a), Florida Statutes, as alleged in the Commission's March 20, 2015 Order of Probable Cause

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

On April 14, 2015, the Commission received a sworn complaint alleging violations of Florida's election laws. Staff of the Commission conducted an investigation to determine whether the facts alleged in the complaint constituted probable cause to believe that Respondent violated the Florida Election Code.

On September 10, 2014, staff recommended to the Commission that there was probable cause to believe that the Florida Election Code was violated. On March 20, 2015, the Commission entered an Order of Probable Cause finding that there was probable cause to charge Respondent with the following violation:

Count 1:

On or about April 28, 2014, Respondent violated Section 106 143(1)(a), Florida Statutes, when she failed to include a proper political disclaimer on each individual web page of her website <http://www.lisamcdermott2014.com>.

Respondent did not timely elect to have a formal administrative hearing before an administrative law judge from the Division of Administrative Hearings and, therefore, the matter was set for an informal hearing before the Commission. At the informal hearing, the Commission adopted the undisputed facts set forth in the Staff's Recommendation as its findings of fact.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent was a candidate for the Brevard County Commission, District 4, in the 2014 primary election. Respondent withdrew her candidacy on June 12, 2014.
2. Respondent received a copy of the Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, and the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook (Handbook). When asked if she read the Handbook, Respondent did not provide a response.
3. Respondent maintained a website <http://www.lisamcdermott2014.com> during her campaign.

4. Respondent was required to have a political advertisement disclaimer on each web page of her website. (See DE 05-02)

5. At the time the Commission received the complaint in this case, Respondent did not have a political disclaimer on 6 of her web pages.

6. Respondent's actions were willful. Respondent received a copy of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes and the Handbook. Respondent knew or should have known that each page of her website needed a political disclaimer.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

7. The Commission has jurisdiction over the parties to and subject matter of this cause, pursuant to Section 106.26, Florida Statutes

8. Respondent's conduct was willful. Respondent committed the acts while knowing that, or showing reckless disregard for whether, the acts were prohibited, or failed to perform the acts while knowing that, or showing reckless disregard for whether, the acts were required.

9. Respondent committed 1 count of violating Section 106.143(1)(a), Florida Statutes, when she failed to have a political disclaimer on every page of her campaign website

10. In determining the amount of the civil penalty, the Commission considered the mitigating and aggravating circumstances set forth in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes.

ORDER

11. The Commission finds that Respondent has violated Section 106.143(1)(a), Florida Statutes, on 1 occasion and imposes a $50 fine for the violation.

Therefore it is ORDERED that Respondent shall remit a civil penalty in the amount of $50, inclusive of fees and costs. The civil penalty shall be paid to the Florida Elections Commission, Collins Building, Suite 224, 107 West Gaines Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, within 30 days of the date this Final Order is filed with the Commission and must be paid by money order, cashier's check or attorney trust account check.

DONE AND ORDERED by the Florida Elections Commission on May 20, 2015.
