Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: John Rodriguez was a candidate for State Representative, District 62 in the 2018 elections. Matthew Josey was his treasurer.

John Rodriguez is appealing the fine claiming that his treasurer timely filed the 2017 M6 report and later amended it once he became aware of several small in-kind donations that were not previously reported. According to the treasurer Matthew Josey, CPA, he inadvertently did not include in-kind donations of computer software, supplies, and a Chamber of Commerce membership to the campaign. He amended the report to reflect that activity.

- The 2017 M6 Original Report covers the period from 06/01/17-06/30/17; it was due on 07/10/17.
- The 2017 M6 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 07/06/17.¹
- John Rodriguez reported receiving 2 contributions, while making zero expenditures.
- FEC staff was advised, “The candidate filed a notice of no activity (waiver) on 07/06/17. A waiver is not a report. On 09/06/17, the candidate filed a report showing $348.70 of activity. The fine is based on 25% of the activity.
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to John Rodriguez’s 2017 M6report.

PRIOR CASES: None.

¹ The filing discussed in this bullet refers to the waiver that reflected zero activity.

Dear Ms. Malphurs,

I am in receipt of your letter postmarked 11/25/2019.

Please accept this email as my written request to appeal the automatic fine against me for the late filing of my 2017 M6 report.

Mr. Matthew S. Josey, CPA was indeed representing me when he wrote to the Florida Elections Commission in his letter dated September 26, 2017.

Mr. Josey was acting as my campaign treasurer and he timely filed the M6 waiver report.

Mr. Josey made an amended report when he became aware of several small in kind donations that were not previously reported.

His efforts were made in good faith and with the goal of making the report an accurate and complete reflection of all campaign finance activity.

I am available to answer any questions that you may have in this matter, and I respectfully ask that you give my appeal to abate the fine the fullest consideration.

Sincerely,

John Rodriguez

RE: John Rodriguez

Dear Ms. Willis,

This letter is in response to your notice dated September 19, 2017 (copy enclosed) to the above-mentioned candidate. The notice mentioned a fine for the late filing of the M6 campaign treasurer's report due on July 10, 2017. We respectfully request that the penalty for late filing be abated for reasonable cause.

The Treasurer inadvertently did not include in-kind donations of computer software, supplies, and a Chamber of Commerce membership to the campaign on the June campaign treasurer's report. Upon realizing the omission, the Treasurer amended the M6 waiver report to reflect these in-kind contributions. The M6 waiver report was timely filed prior to the July 10, 2017 deadline.

The M6 was amended in an effort to be compliant with the state's reporting requirements and the original M6 report was timely filed. We respectfully request that the penalty for late filing be abated. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Matthew S. Josey, CPA

Dear Mr. Rodriguez:

This will acknowledge receipt of the Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository for the office of State Representative, which was placed on file in our office on May 4, 2017. Your name has been placed on the 2018 active candidate list.

Campaign Treasurer's Reports

Your first campaign treasurer's report will be due on June 12, 2017. The report will cover the period of May 1-31, 2017 (M5). All candidates who file reports with the Division of Elections are required to file by means of the Division's Electronic Filing System (EFS).

Credentials and Sign-ons

Below is the web address to access the EFS and your user identification number. The enclosed sealed envelope contains your initial password. Once you have logged in using the initial password, you will be immediately prompted to change it to a confidential sign-on. You, your campaign treasurer, and deputy treasurers are responsible for protecting these passwords from disclosure and are responsible for all filings using these credentials, unless the Division is notified that your credentials have been compromised.

Pin Numbers

Pin numbers are confidential secure credentials that allow you to submit reports and update personal information. The enclosed sealed envelope contains your confidential pin numbers.

Each candidate is required to provide the Division of Elections with confidential personal information that may be used to allow access in the event that password is forgotten or lost. When you enter the campaign account screen, there will be a drop down box where you pick a question (such as What is your mother's maiden name?) and supply an answer. All passwords and answers to questions are stored as encrypted data and cannot be viewed by Division staff and given out over the phone. Please notify the Division if your credentials have been compromised.

Timely Filing

All reports filed must be completed and filed through the EFS no later than midnight, Eastern Standard Time, of the due date. Reports not filed by midnight of the due date are late filed and subject to the penalties in Section 106.07(8), Florida Statutes. In the event that the EFS is inoperable on the due date, the report will be accepted as timely filed if filed no later than midnight of the first business day the EFS becomes operable. No fine will be levied during the period the EFS was inoperable.

Any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first 3 days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Electronic Receipts

The person submitting the report on the EFS will be issued an electronic receipt indicating and verifying the report was filed. Each campaign treasurer's report filed by means of the EFS is considered to be under oath by the candidate and campaign treasurer and such persons are subject to the provisions of Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes.
