Please be advised that the Commission will consider multiple cases, so you will need to wait until your case is considered. If you have any questions, please contact Commission staff at (850) 922-4539.

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which motions to dismiss or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. Tim Vaccaro

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
February 2, 2021

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Dear Mr. Alvarez:

The campaign treasurer's report that was due on June 19, 2020, was filed on June 26, 2020. By law, you are automatically assessed a late fine of $1,187.50.

You have 20 days from the receipt of this notice to either:

1. Pay the fine to the Florida Division of Elections (For a candidate only, a fine is not an allowable campaign expenditure and must be paid from personal funds) at:

*Florida Division of Elections
R.A. Gray Building, Room. 316
500 South Bronough Street
Tallahassee, Florida 32399-025011*

2. Appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission (See Rules 2B-1.005 and 2B-1.0055, Florida Administrative Code) at:

*Florida Elections Commission

To whom it may concern:

A few months ago, the campaign decided to change the treasurer of the campaign to Anibal David Cabrera. During the transition, the email address in the treasurer portal on the Online Reporting System was not updated. All electronic correspondence with the Florida Division of Elections wasn't being sent to the new treasurer. As a result, I was not receiving the system generated emails nor the correspondence notifying me of the shift from monthly to primary filing.

Also, during the switch from monthly to primary filing of the P1 and P2, I had become the primary caregiver for my mother, who was recovering from cancer surgery in June/July. Thankfully, mom's surgery was successful and is recovering now with the assistance of my sister taken over caregiving role. With the technical and personal situation stated above, I take full responsibility for the late filing of the P1 and P2 and ask the Florida Election Commission to reduce or waive the fines issued to the candidate.

As the campaign treasurer, have been in contact with the Florida Division of Election staff and have updated all the necessary fields in the Online Reporting System so this issue does not happen again.

Thank you for your time,

Anibal David Cabrera

Dear Mr. Alvarez:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was July 3, 2020.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

I left a voicemail for Daniel Alvarez at (813) 382-1051 about the audit currently open on his campaign's M9 treasurer report. I said that his treasurer, Kristen Brand, had resigned on 11/18/19 and that the campaign currently did not have an active treasurer. I said that the next treasurer report was due on the 10th of December, and that he would need to appoint another treasurer before he can file the report. I also said that failure to file the report could result in fines and the campaign being referred to the Florida Election Commission. I asked him to contact our help desk immediately. I included the number for our help desk along with my name. -njt 12/4/19

Re: Phone call to DOE
A gentleman for Mr. Alvarez called asking what needed to be done to fix the errors on this report, compliance audit of 2019 M9. I explained he needed to be more specific about the occupations of the contributors, contributors must be reported separately, and to send a letter concerning the excessive contribution from one contributor. He gentleman told me that the excessive contribution might have been from the contributor's wife. I told him he would need to amend the report and still need to send something in writing with the candidate's signature indicating that. I also directed him to where he might find a DSDE 9 form as the treasurer resigned on 11/18/19.
