NOTICE OF HEARING (AUTOMATIC FINE)

A hearing will be held in this case before the Florida Elections Commission on, November 16, 2016 at 8:30 am, or as soon thereafter as the parties can be heard, at the following location: Senate Office Building, 404 South Monroe Street, Room 110-S, Tallahassee, Florida 32399

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission on this date. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

See further instructions on the reverse side.

Amy McKeever Toman
Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
November 1, 2016

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Subject: Appeal -Dan Sells-Lake County

TO: Florida Elections Commission ( e-mail letter mailed )

REF: Appeal on Lake County $150.00 Fine

The defense of my case is extremely simple! My electronic campaign report for 6-25-16 thru 7-8-16 was submitted on 7-8-16. ( Friday ) On 7-9-16 I went to the Post Office and mailed the hard copy.

The deadline for submission was 7-15-16.

On 7-14-16 Emogene W. Stegall called me at my home phone and stated the elections office had not yet received my hard copy and it was due on the 15th. I advised her it was mailed on 7-9-16 ( Saturday and the Post Office was closed. ) On 7-15-16 at approximately 3pm, Travis from the election office called my home phone and left a message

that they never received my hard copy from the Post and that I had until 5pm to deliver a copy to their office. I was in the field campaigning all day and didn't get home until after 6pm when I received the recorded message.

I called back the elections to arrange taking a copy over in person ASAP, but they had no available means to contact anyone or to leave a message.

On 7-18-16 I personally dropped off a copy and was advised

I would receive a letter for a $50.00 a day fine. I received

the letter informing me of a $150.00 fine, which included Saturday & Sunday when the office was closed.

Because my hard copy was evidently lost in the mail, I don't believe I should be fined. Also, because the office was closed over the weekend and they don't provide any possible way to pay, I don't believe the weekend should count. Also, if the election office would have called my cell

phone which they had knowledge of, and knowing that I was logically campaigning in the field, then they could have contacted me and I could of had enough time to deliver copy from 3pm ( when a message on home phone was left ) and 5pm.

However, the mailed copy has yet to surface and I wasn't able to get a mailed confirmation from the post office, I understand that I have failed responsibility, too !

finned, but,

Therefore, at best, I don't believe that I should be at the most, only $50.00 as the weekend shouldn't count as there is no legal remedy to pay this until Monday.

Respectfully,

Dan Sells, Sheriff Candidate, Lake County

Re: Certificate #7013 2630 0000 6228 0459

Dear Mr. Sells:

The campaign treasurers report (P1) which was due July 15, 2016 was received on July 18, 2016. According to Florida Statutes, Section 106.07 (8)(b) the fine shall be $50.00 per day for the first 3 late days and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day; not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding the primary and general election, the fine shall be $500.00 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Upon review of your report, your fine is $150.00. The fine must be paid to Lake County Supervisor of Elections, within 20 days of the receipt of this notice unless appealed to the Florida Elections Commission. In the case of a candidate, such fine is not an allowable campaign expenditure and shall be paid only from personal funds of the candidate.

Florida Statutes, Section 106.07(8)(c) provides for appealing or disputing the assessed fine by submitting a notice of appeal in writing within 20 days of receipt of the notice of payment due, stating definite unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date. This notice must include any and all supporting evidence. Failing to timely file such notice will constitute a waiver of the right of appeal.

Should you desire a hearing before the commission, you must so state in the notice of appeal. If no request is made, the commission's determination shall be based upon the notice and supporting evidence, but a hearing will be provided if solicited. The Supervisor of Elections must be notified in writing of your intention to file an appeal with the commission.
