Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Dear Ms. Brown,

I am writing in response to your letter dated March 10 (Final Notice of Intent to Cancel Registration), which I received Friday, March 17. In response to that letter, I am requesting a hearing to plead the case that the Florida Bureau of Election Records not cancel the registration of the Broward Builders PAC (780). As I am located in South Florida, I will not be attending the hearing in person.

Since being made aware of the statute necessitating regular activity, the Construction Association of South Florida has made a $505 donation to the Broward Builders PAC. In recent years, CASF has directed its fundraising activities to a newly formed foundation to create scholarships for construction management programs at Florida universities. Moving forward, we will divert some of those efforts to, once again, be more active with our PAC.

I look forward to the opportunity to go into greater detail at a future hearing.

I am available any time for additional information or questions related to this matter. Thank you for your consideration.

RE: FINAL NOTICE OF INTENT TO CANCEL REGISTRATION

Dear Mr. Mackowski:

The Division of Elections is in receipt of your letter in response to the Division's Notice of Intent to Cancel Registration dated February 1, 2023. The Division has determined the documentation to be insufficient and will proceed with the cancellation of the committee's registration.

If you object to this cancellation, you must file a request for a hearing within 15 days of the date of this Final Notice of Intent to Cancel Registration (Final Notice). The request must be filed with the Florida Department of State, Division of Elections, Bureau of Election Records (use the address at the bottom of this letter) and will be forwarded to the Florida Elections Commission (FEC). The FEC will conduct a hearing based upon your request and any supporting documentation.

If you want to appear personally in the hearing, you must ask to appear in the request for the hearing. If you fail to file a request for a hearing, you waive your right to a hearing and a final order will be issued canceling the committee's registration.

You may still opt to terminate your committee's registration within 15 days of the Final Notice. You are still obligated for any fines or fees imposed automatically by law or by the FEC.

If you have any questions, please call (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

DIVISION OF ELECTIONS
TALLAHASSEE, FL

Dear Ms. Brown

I am in receipt of your Initial Notice of Intent to Cancel Registration of our Broward Builders PAC (780) due to limited financial activity during the 2021 and 2022 calendar years. I am writing to you on behalf of the PAC, as its treasurer, to object to the cancellation.

The PAC was created and is administered by the Construction Association of South Florida (CASF), a not-for-profit trade association representing the region's commercial construction industry since 1950. With the passing decades, CASF's involvement in local and state politics has fluctuated as other entities have moved into that space. Specifically, ABC and AGC, two large national associations representing commercial construction operate chapters in South Florida and lobby actively on behalf of the industry.

Accordingly, Broward Builders PAC has shifted its support to two specific areas:

1. Construction-related ballot issues at the regional and state level, and
2. Pro-construction candidates who represent or impact South Florida communities.

For example, in the 2020 Florida elections, the Broward Builders PAC donated $1,000 each to the campaigns of five South Florida politicians based on their support of the industry and the fact they were all involved in close races. They were: Esteban "Steve" Bovo (running for Miami-Dade Mayor), David Borrero (Rep. 105th Dist.), Chip La Marca (Rep. 93rd district), Ana Maria Rodriguez (Sen. 39th Dist.) and Anthony Rodriguez (Rep. 118th dist.).

In addition, we made a $5,000 donation to Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) Southeast Chapter PAC to support their efforts on behalf of then-governor-elect Ron DeSantis. That support was well placed as Gov. DeSantis labelled construction an essential business during COVID, which forestalled a disastrous shutdown of the industry.

During the most recent election cycle, Gov. DeSantis was a heavy favorite, and no other South Florida races were deemed to need critical support. Had we better versed in the use statute governing our PAC, we certainly would have made appropriate contributions.

Although the Broward Builders PAC, and CASF, are not politically active on a regular basis, both entities still serve as vital mechanisms during those occasions when industry support is needed at a political level. We have seen in recent times how close political outcomes can be, and we contend that we can best support our industry by being an available resource during these times.

Accordingly, we ask that the registration of Broward Builders PAC (780) not be cancelled. We are prepared to acquaint ourselves and comply with any regulations stipulating the frequency of PAC activity and will do so moving forward.

I am available any time for additional information or questions related to this matter. Thank you for your consideration.

1S-2.021 Cancellation of Registration of Political Committees and Electioneering Communications Organizations.

(1) Definitions:

(a) "Organization" means an electioneering communications organization.

(b) "Committee" means a political committee.

(c) "Limited activity" means:

1. For a committee, the committee's aggregate reported financial activity in each of two consecutive calendar years is $500 or less, unless the committee is only registered and required to report as the sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment by initiative who intended to seek the signatures of registered voters; and,

2. For an organization, the organization's aggregate reported financial activity in each of two consecutive calendar years is $5,000 or less.

(d) "Most recent address on file" means the address provided in the most recent statement of appointment or written statement of change filed pursuant to Section 106.022, F.S.

(2) Conduct warranting cancellation. The filing officer shall initiate the cancellation of the registration of a committee or an organization for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) The committee or organization fails to maintain a registered office and a registered agent as required by Section 106.022, F.S., including the failure to have a physical office space and hours of operation or if correspondence sent by the filing officer is returned as undeliverable;

(b) The committee or organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its treasurer;

(c) The committee fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its chairperson;

(d) The committee or organization fails to file 2 or more consecutive reports;

(e) The committee or organization has limited activity;

(f) The organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its top-ranking principal officer; or

(g) The committee or organization has an unpaid fine or civil penalty imposed under Chapter 106, F.S., which has become final, meaning all appeals regarding the imposition of the fine or civil penalty have been exhausted or the time for such appeals has passed.

(3) Cancellation procedures.

(a) Initial notice of intent to cancel. The filing officer shall notify the committee's chairperson or organization's top-ranking principal officer and its registered agent of the intent to cancel the registration and include the facts and conduct which warrant the intended cancellation. The notice shall be sent to the most recent address on file for both the chairperson or top-ranking principal officer, as applicable, and registered agent. The initial notice shall state that all future notifications regarding cancellation of the committee's or organization's registration shall be sent only to the most recent address on file for the registered agent. The committee or organization has 15 days from the date of the initial notice to provide additional documentation to the filing officer showing that the committee's or organization's registration should not be canceled.

(b) Final notice of intent to cancel. After receiving the documentation under paragraph (a), from the committee or organization or after the 15-day deadline to provide additional information, whichever occurs first, the filing officer shall review all information and determine whether the registration should still be canceled.

1. If the filing officer determines that the registration should not be canceled, then the filing officer shall notify the registered agent at the most recent address on file.

2. If the filing officer determines that the registration should be canceled, then the filing officer shall send a final notice of intent to cancel to the most recent address on file for the registered agent.

(c) Notice returned as undeliverable. If the initial notice of intent to cancel is returned as undeliverable, and the committee or organization's most recent address on file has not changed since the filing officer sent the initial notice, then the filing officer need not send a final notice of intent to cancel and shall instead send the final order of cancellation. If the initial notice of intent to cancel is returned as undeliverable, but the committee or organization's most recent address on file has changed since the filing officer sent the initial notice, then the filing officer will provide an initial notice of the intent to cancel to that updated address; thereafter, the filing officer shall follow the procedures in this rule.

(d) Final order of cancellation. The final order of cancellation shall be sent to the most recent address on file for the registered agent, notwithstanding that the final order may be returned as undeliverable due to previous undelivered notices.

(4) Appeals. Appeal of Final Notice of Intent to Cancel. A committee or organization may appeal a final notice of intent to cancel within 30 days of the date of such final notice. The appeal may be accompanied by any documentation or evidence supporting the claim. The appeal must be filed with the filing officer. The filing officer will forward the appeal to the Florida Elections Commission.

(a) Failure to timely file an appeal shall constitute a waiver of any such entitlement.

(b) A committee or organization desiring a hearing before the Florida Elections Commission must include in the appeal a request for hearing.

(c) Appeals to the Florida Elections Commission under this rule are exempt from the confidentiality provisions of Section 106.25, F.S.
