To Whom It May Concern,

Hello! I'm writing to you in the hopes that you will grant us the late campaign report fee or fines waiver. The new treasurer, Boris Balaban, has sent in a letters requesting a waiver of the fee or fines with explanations of why we are requesting them, but it turns out the candidate or chairman has to request such a thing. I am sorry about that.

You might recall that the previous treasurer quit without telling anyone. Barbara had to send in a formal letter notifying you, and you then notified me. Once that was done, Boris took on the job but could not log in as he did not have access to the old password that Barbara had. If you can look at your phone logs he did call in for help with the password but they said we had to get it from the previous Treasurer. Once that was resolved, he has been submitting the reports and learning how to do them along the way as quickly as possible and has been working with your office.

We are working to make sure every report is filed on time. We are very honest and are trying to do the right thing. Please forgive us on this. You might look at the report to see that we are not taking in a lot of contributions and being fined is horrible for us. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call me.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Laurel S. Bennett

Laurel S. Bennett

Dear Ms. Bennett:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was August 17, 2018.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - * $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - * $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - * If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Willis, Chief
Bureau of Election Records
