FINAL ORDER

THIS MATTER was heard at an informal hearing held before the Florida Elections Commission (Commission) on February 24, 2015

APPEARANCES

For Commission	Jaakan A. Williams Assistant General Counsel 107 West Gaines Street Collins Building, Suite 224 Tallahassee, FL 32399
For Respondent	No appearance

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE

Whether Respondent violated Section 104.011(1), Section 104.011(2), and Section 104.15, Florida Statutes, as alleged in the Order of Probable Cause

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

On March 4, 2013, the Commission received a sworn complaint alleging violations of Florida's election laws. Staff of the Commission conducted an investigation to determine whether the facts alleged in the complaint constituted probable cause to believe that Respondent violated the Florida Election Code.

On April 16, 2014, staff recommended to the Commission that there was probable cause to believe that the Florida Election Code was violated. On October 28, 2014, the Commission entered an Order of Probable Cause finding that there was probable cause to charge Respondent with the following violations:

Count 1:

On or about September 1, 2012, Kenneth L. Hill violated Section 104.011(1), Florida Statutes, when he willfully swore or affirmed falsely to an oath or affirmation in connection with voting or elections.

Count 2:

On or about September 1, 2012, Kenneth L. Hill violated Section 104.011(2), Florida Statutes, when he submitted false voter registration information.

Count 3:

On or about November 6, 2012, Kenneth L. Hill violated Section 104.15, Florida Statutes, when he willfully voted in the 2012 general election while knowing he was not a qualified elector.

Count 4:

On or about November 6, 2012, Kenneth L. Hill violated Section 104.011(1), Florida Statutes, when he signed a Voter's Certificate and Affirmation, affirming that he was a qualified elector in order to cast a ballot for the 2012 general election.

Respondent did not timely elect to have a formal administrative hearing before an administrative law judge from the Division of Administrative Hearings and, therefore, the matter was set for an informal hearing before the Commission. At the informal hearing, the Commission adopted the undisputed facts set forth in the Staff's Recommendation as its findings of fact.

Respondent did not appear at the informal hearing.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent was convicted of a 2nd degree felony offense in 1998 in Bradford County, Florida, and was also convicted of an unrelated 3rd degree felony offense in 2008 in Union County, Florida.

2. On September 1, 2012, Respondent completed and submitted a Florida Voter Registration Application for the 2012 general election. Respondent placed a hand-written checkmark in the box next to the statement, "I affirm that I am not a convicted felon, or if I am, my right to vote has been restored."

3. On November 6, 2012 while at his polling place, Respondent signed an oath on the EVID affirming that he was a qualified elector in the 2012 election and that he was a registered voter of Putnam County, Florida.

4. According to the Florida Parole Commission, Office of Executive Clemency's prisoner database, Respondent has not had his civil rights restored, and Respondent does not have an application pending for clemency at this time.

5. Despite being a twice-convicted felon and not having his civil rights restored, Respondent voted in the 2012 general election on November 6, 2012.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

6. The Commission has jurisdiction over the parties to and subject matter of this cause, pursuant to Section 106 26, Florida Statutes.

7. Respondent's conduct was willful. Respondent committed the acts while knowing that, or showing reckless disregard for whether the acts were prohibited, or failed to commit an act while knowing that or showing reckless disregard for whether the acts were required

8. Respondent committed 1 count of violating Section 104.011(1), Florida Statutes, when he willfully swore or affirmed falsely to an oath or affirmation in connection with voting or elections; Respondent committed 1 count of violating Section 104.011(2), Florida Statutes, when he submitted false voter registration information; Respondent committed 1 count of violating Section 104.15, Florida Statutes, when willfully voted in the 2012 general election while knowing he was not a qualified elector; and Respondent committed 1 violation of Section 104.011(1), Florida Statutes, when he signed a Voter's Certificate and Affirmation, affirming that he was a qualified elector in order to cast a ballot for the 2012 general election.

9. In determining the amount of the civil penalty, the Commission considered the mitigating and aggravating circumstances set forth in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes.

ORDER

The Commission finds that Respondent has violated the following provisions of Chapter 104, Florida Statutes

A. Respondent violated Section 104.011(1), Florida Statutes, on 1 occasion when he willfully swore or affirmed falsely to an oath or affirmation in connection with voting or elections.
