This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

Amy McKeever Toman
Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
November 1, 2016

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: WCFFL Political Committee is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Ms. Lynne J. Webb and its treasurer is Ms. Cheryl Schroeder.

The PC is appealing the fine claiming that unusual circumstances caused the 2016 P1A to be untimely filed. According to Ms. Webb, "The basis for our request is that there was no intent to violate Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. As soon as we realized that a report deadline had been missed, we immediately filed on July 13th, prior even to receiving notification from the Division of Elections on July 15, 2016, that a report had not been filed. This is the first instance of a late filing by this political committee. Secondly, this is the current Treasurer's first experience with this election year schedule—the June 8th deadline was the first reporting deadline of this modified filing schedule. While Ms. Schroeder accepts responsibility for her oversight and subsequent late filing, she laments there is not more timely notification to the political committee. It is surprising that the requirement to file electronically is not reciprocated by electronic notices of changes in the reporting schedule and/or notification that reports have not been timely filed."

- The 2016 P1A Report covers the time period 6/25/16 through 7/1/16.
- The PC reported receiving 20 contributions, while not making any expenditures during this reporting period.
- The 2016 P1A Queued-Transactions Report reflects that this report was created on 7/13/16 at approximately 11:38 am, before being filed on 7/13/16 at approximately 1:17 pm.

PRIOR CASES: This PC has no prior cases with the Commission.

RE: PAC 60723

To Whom It May Concern:

We are appealing the assessed late fee for WCFFL Political Committee, #60723, for the late filing of Report 2016 P1A due July 8th (see enclosed copy of notice from Division of Elections).

The basis for our request for appeal is that there was no intent to violate Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. As soon as we realized that a report deadline had been missed, we immediately filed on July 13th, prior even to receiving notification from the Division of Elections on July 15, 2016, that a report had not been filed. This is the first instance of a late filing by this political committee.

Secondly, this is the current Treasurer's first experience with this election year schedule--the June 8th deadline was the first reporting deadline of this modified filing schedule. While Ms. Schroeder accepts responsibility for her oversight and subsequent late filing, she laments there is not more timely notification to the political committee. It is surprising that the requirement to file electronically is not reciprocated by electronic notices of changes in the reporting schedule and/or notification that reports have not been timely filed. As you will see from the attached copies, if the error had not been discovered by the Treasurer, the report would have been filed much later.

We respectfully request the Commission consider waiving the imposed late fee as an error and certainly a lesson learned.

Sincerely,

Lynne J. Webb

Dear Ms. Schroeder:

The campaign treasurer's report that was due on July 8, 2016, was filed on July 13, 2016. By law, you are automatically assessed a late fine of $1,090.43.

*Florida Division of Elections
R.A. Gray Building, Room. 316
500 South Bronough Street
Tallahassee, Florida 32399-025011*

2. Appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission (See Rules 2B-1.005 and 2B-1.0055, Florida Administrative Code) at:

Cheryl Schroeder, Treasurer
WCFFL Political Committee
Post Office Box 76108

Dear Ms. Schroeder:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was July 8, 2016.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - $50 for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief
