Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: ColorOfChange PAC is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Arisha Hatch and its treasurer is Keith Goodman. This PC is being represented by David Mitrani, Associate Sandler Reiff Lamb Rosenstein & Birkenstock, P.C.

The PC is appealing the fine claiming that unusual circumstances existed that caused the 2016 D1 Report to be untimely filed. According to Mr. Mitrani, "ColorOfChange PAC filed its D1 report on November 4th, 2016. Although this filing was late, the only reportable activity was $12,444.06 in expenditures. ColorOfChange PAC was not required to disclose these expenditures on the D1 report, and could have permissibly waited until the G7 report due on November 4th, 2016 to disclose the expenditures. Therefore, the expenditures were reported on their due date. Since ColorOfChange PAC was not required to report these expenditures on the D1 report, the PAC should not be punished for voluntarily disclosing activity. ColorOfChange PAC did not receive any contributions for Florida campaign finance activity during the October 22nd to October 28th period. The State's guidance explicitly provides that expenditures are not required on the D1 report".

- The 2016 D1 Report covers the time period from 10/22/16 through 10/28/16.
- The 2016 D1 Queued-Transactions Report reflects that this report was created on 11/4/16 at approximately 5:59 pm, before being filed on 11/4/16 at approximately 6:48 pm.

Re: Appeal of ColorOfChange PAC (ID # 69417)

Ms. Malphurs,

I am writing on behalf of ColorOfChange PAC, a Political Committee registered with the Florida Division of Elections (ID # 69417). ColorOfChange PAC is a hybrid PAC and independent expenditure-only committee (commonly referred to as a "Super PAC") registered with the Federal Election Commission (Committee ID # C00428557). In September 2016, ColorOfChange PAC engaged in regulated campaign finance activity under Florida law, and registered as a state Political Committee.

On December 2nd, 2016 (and January 6th, 2017), the PAC received a late-filing and automatic penalty notice regarding its October 29th D1 report, for activity between October 22nd and October 28th, 2016. These notices, stating a $1,650 penalty, are attached to this appeal.

We request that the Florida Elections Commission ("FEC") waive all fines associated with this report, as ColorOfChange PAC did not have any receipts during this period and was not required to report its expenditures on the D1 report.

For 2016, Florida Stat. § 106.07(1)(a)(2) required that a PAC file the D1 report on October 29th to cover activity from October 22nd through October 28th.<sup>1</sup> However, this report "...need only contain information on all previously unreported contributions received as of the preceding day; however, expenditures can be reported if desired."<sup>2</sup>

ColorOfChange PAC filed its D1 report on November 4th, 2016. Although this filing was late, the only reportable activity was $12,444.06 in expenditures. ColorOfChange PAC was not required to disclose these expenditures on the D1 report, and could have permissibly waited until the G7 report due on November 4th, 2016 to disclose the expenditures.<sup>3</sup> Therefore, the expenditures were reported on their due date.

Since ColorOfChange PAC was not required to report these expenditures on the D1 report, the PAC should not be punished for voluntarily disclosing activity. ColorOfChange PAC did not receive any contributions for Florida campaign finance activity during the October 22nd to October 28th period. The State's guidance explicitly provides that expenditures are not required on the D1 report. The remainder of daily reports (D2 to D6) were filed as "Waivers" pursuant to Florida Stat. § 106.07(7).

Given that ColorOfChange PAC only made expenditures during the period of the D1 report, and reported them on the D1 even though it was not required to do so, we request that:

1. The $1,650 penalty be reduced to zero ($0); and
2. No further action be taken against our organization for the late filed D1 report.

Thank you for your assistance with this matter. Please feel free to contact me with any questions, or contact our counsel, David Mitrani of Sandler Reiff Lamb Rosenstein & Birkenstock, P.C. at 202-479-1111, or at mitrani@sanderreiff.com

Arisha Hatch

PAC 69417

Dear Mr. Goodman:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was October 29, 2016.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
  - $50 for the first 3 days late
  - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
  - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief
