This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
August 23, 2021

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Black Jax PAC, Inc. is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Eric K. Mann, and its treasurer is Timothy H. Johnson.

The PC is appealing the fine. According to the treasurer, Mr. Johnson, the late filing was "solely due to the reporting requirements early on in the establishment of the BJP and our understanding of the EFS." He claims the PC received their EFS credentials on September 15, 2020, and notes they were instructed to file the first report on September 18, 2020. Mr. Johnson states they had difficulty mastering the EFS system and needed technical support from the Division. He notes that the 2020 G2A, 2020 G4, and 2020 G4A Reports were the first reports due by the PC. He requests a waiver of the fine.

- The 2020 G4A Original Report covers the period from 10/03/20-10/09/20; it was due on 10/16/20.
- The 2020 G4A Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 10/21/20.
- Black Jax PAC, Inc. reported receiving 1 contribution while making zero expenditures.
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Black Jax PAC, Inc.'s 2020 G4A report.

RE: PAC 78960
Ref: Appeal of Fines

I am writing with regard to fines assessed on the Black JAX PAC (BJP). And, to explain mitigating circumstances associated with these fines.

The three fines assessed on the BJP are as follows. The fines cover report periods September 5-October 9, 2020 and report deadlines of September 18, October 9 and 16, respectively. The fines are substantial and represent a substantial portion of the funds raises.

Report: 2020 - G2A, $375.00
Report: 2020 - G4, $1,150.00
Report: 2020 - G4A, $125.00

As way of background, this BJP was established by a group of 13 individuals who are dedicated to improving the overall wellbeing of Jacksonville's underprivileged and underserved communities. The BJP became an official political action committee and was given EFS access on September 15, 2020. The Division of Election acceptance letter, received by BJP on September 18, 2020, instructed the committee to begin the first campaign treasurer's report on September 18, 2020.

Please be aware that this lack of timely action on part of the BJP was in no way designed to circumvent reporting requirements, but was solely due to reporting requirements early on in the establishment of the BJP and our understanding of the EFS. These were among the first reports filed with contribution and expense details. In studying the handbook, receiving technical support from the help desk and spending hours on the EFS; it is a difficult system to master which requires experience and practice.

Our request is that you consider these circumstances and waive the fines on this new PAC.

The BJP has gained a great deal of knowledge about the EFS in the past several weeks. The BJP is up-to-date on its filings and all future actions will be consistent with policies and regulations as stated in the Political Committee handbook. Your consideration in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Mann:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was October 16, 2020.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:

- $50 per day for the first 3 days late

- $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late

- If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Willis, Chief
