Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: New Voices Today Inc. is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Salim Daher and its treasurer is Daniella Leoni.

The PC is appealing the fine claiming that there were unusual circumstances. According to Mr. Yesit J Campo, CPA who represents the PC, "We experienced a sudden natural disaster with the approach of Hurricane Irma resulting in us having no control and acting according to the filing requirements. This was a sudden event that impacted the whole State of Florida and left our office without power for two weeks shortly after Hurricane Irma impacted Miami-Dade County. This direct event resulted in the failure to act according to the filing requirements. The natural event was not anticipated and besides the loss of power outage, computer and equipment failure made timely filing of the report impossible immediately after power restoration. Additionally, on September 4, 2017, Governor Rick Scott issued an Executive Order 17-235, declaring a state of emergency as a result of the threat posed to the State of Florida due to storm conditions forecast as a result of Hurricane Irma. On Sunday, September 10, 2017, Hurricane Irma initially made landfall in the state of Florida. After restoration of power, New Voices Today, Inc. sped fast to have their first monthly report transmitted on the timeliest manner possible. Nevertheless; we have taken proactive actions and remediated the reporting process so that New Voices Today, Inc., does not fall short to report on a timely basis and adhere to regulations going forward. We request that the assessed fee of $1,250 be waived and abated in lieu of the circumstances described above which prevented New Voices Today, Inc., having limited resources to fulfill their obligation of filing the monthly M8 filing."

- The 2017 M8 Report covers the time period from 08/12/2017 through 08/31/2017.
- The 2017 M8 Queued-Transactions Report reflects that this report was created on 10/10/2017 at approximately 10:09 a.m., before being filed on 10/16/2017 at approximately 10/16/2017.
- The 2017 M8 Report was originally due 09/11/17. DOS Emergency Order (Number 17-1) extended the deadline for all reports due on 9/11/17 to 09/22/2017.

PRIOR CASES: This PC has not had any prior cases before the Commission.

RE: New Voices Today, Inc

To whom it may concern:

We are respectfully communicating, on behalf of our client referred to above, to the Florida Elections Commission of Elections to appeal a retake of the fine of $1,250 assessed on the campaigns Treasurer's report that was due on September 22, 2017 for 2017 M8 which was filed on October 16, 2017. There are two captions which we hold reasons why the report was not filed in a timely manner. Attached also please find a copy of the letter received October 27, 2017 from the Florida Department of State.

- 2B-1.0055 Late-filed Reports; Unusual Circumstances.
- 2B-1.005 Appeal of Fines Imposed by Filing Officers.

The appeal falls under FL rule 2B-1.0055 Late filed reports; unusual circumstances. We experienced a sudden natural disaster with the approach of Hurricane Irma resulting in us having no control and acting according to the filing requirements. This was a sudden event that impacted the whole State of Florida and left our office without power for two weeks shortly after Hurricane Irma impacted Miami-Dade County. This direct event resulted in the failure to act according to the filing requirements.

The natural event was not anticipated and besides the loss of power outage, computer and equipment failure made timely filing of the report impossible immediately after power restoration. Additionally, on September 4, 2017, Governor Rick Scott issued an Executive Order 17-235, declaring a state of emergency as a result of the threat posed to the State of Florida due to storm conditions forecast as a result of Hurricane Irma. On Sunday, September 10, 2017, Hurricane Irma initially made landfall in the State of Florida.

After restoration of power, New Voices Today, Inc sped fast to have their first monthly report transmitted on the timeliest manner possible. Nevertheless; we have taken all proactive actions and remediated the reporting process so that New Voices Today, Inc. does not fall short to report on a timely basis and adhere to regulations going forward.

We request that the assessed fee of $1,250 be waived and abated in lieu of the circumstances described above which prevented New voices Today, Inc., having limited resources to fulfill their obligation of filing the monthly M8 filing.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. We appreciate the opportunity to work with you and look forward to a speedy resolution to this matter.

Dear Ms. Leoni:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was September 22, 2017.

We mailed, via regular mail, the first notice of the failure to file the above-mentioned report or notification to the address on file with our office on September 26, 2017.

The first notice which we provided to you specifically explained the automatic fine provisions in the law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) for failure to file a required report. Such fines are continuing to accrue for a late-filed report. Also, that notice explained that if no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to provide notification in writing that no reportable activity occurred. Our initial notice further indicated that, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

Dear Ms. Leoni:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was September 22, 2017.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
  - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
  - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
  - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.
