If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough Florida State/Local Political Committee is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Crystal C. McCall, and its treasurer is Douglas M. Webb. Brian G. Svoboda, Esquire is representing the PC in this matter.

The PC is appealing the fine. According to Mr. Svoboda, the PC timely filed a waiver for the report on September 16, 2022. He notes that, through their initiative, they identified an omitted deposit. To ensure the report was correct and the public record complete, the committee amended their submission on September 26, 2022. Mr. Svoboda states this was done "before the November 8 election, thus ensuring that voters had access to its contributor information." They request a waiver of the fine and have provided documents to support the appeal.

- The 2022 G2 Original Report covers the period from 09/03/22-09/09/22; it was due on 09/16/22.
- The 2022 G2 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 09/16/22.¹
- Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough Florida State/Local Political Committee reported receiving 227 contributions while making zero expenditures.

- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough Florida State/Local Political Committee's 2022 G2 Report.

PRIOR CASES: None.

Political Committee (PAC 75180)

Dear Ms. Malphurs:

We are counsel to Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough Florida State/Local Political Committee and James C. Gray, Jr., Chairperson (PAC 75180) (“the Committee”). Please accept this letter as a formal notice to appeal the fine imposed by the Florida Department of State Division of Elections by letter dated November 8, 2022, which the Committee received on November 17, 2022. A copy of the notice of imposition of fine accompanies this letter as Exhibit A.

The Committee has had no prior case before the Commission. The asserted fine arises from the G2 report due on September 16, 2022. Contrary to the notice of imposition of fine issued by the Division of Elections, the Committee did, in fact, timely file. As a confirmation email demonstrates, the Committee filed a waiver with respect to the G2 report on September 16, 2022, at 10:58 a.m. See Exhibit B.

After filing the waiver on the September 16 due date, the Committee, on its own initiative, identified a deposit made on September 7, 2022. To ensure that the report was correct and the public record complete, the Committee promptly filed an amended report on September 26, 2022. See Exhibit C. The Committee has since revised its practices to ensure that all deposits are timely identified and reported.

The Committee respectfully asks the Commission to impose no fine. First, the Committee, in fact, filed. Believing in good faith that it had no activity during the period, the Committee timely filed the waiver required by Fla. Stat. Ann. 106.07(7).¹ Upon discovering the deposit, the Committee then amended the report. The Committee has no enforcement history before the Commission. It discovered the omitted deposit and corrected the report on its own initiative. It did so well before the November 8 election, thus ensuring that voters had access to its contributor information. Finally, the Committee has revised its practices to ensure that similar mistakes do not recur.

For the foregoing reasons, the Committee respectfully requests the Commission to consider and grant its appeal of the fine. If you need further information, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at (202) 434-1654.

Very truly yours,

sets forth specific rules by which incomplete reports must be accepted on a conditional basis, and by which a violation occurs only upon notice and subsequent failure to file a complete report. See Fla. Stat. Ann. § 106.07(2)(b)(1), (3). The Committee's September 16 filing is best treated as an incomplete report, for which the statute provides. Because the Committee was unaware of the September 7 deposit, and because it had no other activity, it had to file the waiver, in order to file any report at all, and thus to comply with the statute.
