FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION
CASE SUMMARY ON REVOCATION
Case No.: FEC 15-335

Appellant: Floridians for a Conservative Future

On April 27, 2015, the Florida Elections Commission ("Commission") received information from the Division of Elections ("DOE") stating the intent to revoke Floridians for a Conservative Future registration as a political committee, pursuant to Section 106.03(7), Florida Statutes. Commission staff gathered information to determine whether the committee's registration should be revoked based on the committee's failure to meet the following criteria:

The committee's aggregate reported financial activity during the 2014 calendar year was less than $500.

I. Preliminary Information:

1. Floridians for a Conservative Future is a political committee ("PC") registered with the state of Florida since June 30, 2014. According to the committee's Statement of Organization of Political Committee (DS-DE 5) form filed June 30, 2014, the area, scope, and jurisdiction of the committee are "STATEWIDE POLITICAL COMMITTEE TO SUPPORT OR OPPOSE CANDIDATES FOR STATEWIDE, MULTI-COUNTY LEGISLATIVE, COUNTY & MUNICIPAL OFFICE AND OTHER ACTIVITIES NOT PROHIBITED BY CHAPTER 106 F.S." The organization's special interest is "POLITICAL." Eric Robinson is identified as its Chairman. To view a copy of the PC's Form DS-DE 5, refer to Exhibit 1.

2. On June 27, 2014, Eric Robinson accepted appointment as the PC's campaign treasurer. The PC's Form DS-DE 6 was filed with the DOE on June 30, 2014. To review a copy of the PC's Form DS-DE 6, refer to Exhibit 2.

3. The committee's filing officer is Kristi Reid-Bronson, Chief, Bureau of Election Records, Division of Elections.

II. Revocation of Registration of Political Committee:

4. On July 2, 2014, an acknowledgement letter was mailed to the address provided on Respondent's Form DS-DE 5, advising Respondent that all of the Division's publications and reporting forms are available on its website including: Chapter 106, Florida Statutes; the 2014 Committee and Campaign Treasurer Handbook; and the 2014 Calendar of Reporting Dates. To review a copy of the acknowledgement letter, refer to Exhibit 3.

5. The PC filed 26 reports during the 2014 calendar year which covered the period of January 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014.¹ All 26 reports were waivers-of-reports reflecting no contributions or expenditures during the year. The table summarizes the reports filed by the PC. To view a copy of the PC's campaign finance activity, refer to Exhibit 4.

¹ Note for the first five months of the 2014 calendar year the PC did not exist

6. On March 25, 2015, the DOE sent Eric Robinson, the committee's chair, a Notice of Intent to Revoke stating that the committee's registration as a political committee was being revoked because the committee's financial activity during calendar year 2014 was less than $500. The notice advised Mr. Robinson that he had 30 days to provide documentation showing the registration should not be revoked. To view a copy of the March 25, 2015 notice, refer to Exhibit 5.

7. On March 31, 2015, the DOE received a letter from Mr. Robinson wherein he stated the committee requested that the PC be left open. Mr. Robinson further stated the PC recently had significant funds deposited into its account and it will remain active for the next few years. To view a copy of Mr. Robinson's letter, refer to Exhibit 6.

8. On April 1, 2015, the DOE sent Mr. Robinson a Final Notice of Intent to Revoke stating the explanation was determined to be insufficient and that the Division would proceed with the revocation of the committee's registration. The notice advised Mr. Robinson to file a request for hearing within 30 days if he objected to the revocation of the political committee. To view a copy of the April 1, 2015 letter, refer to Exhibit 7.

9. On April 24, 2015, the DOE received a letter from Mr. Robinson objecting to the DOE's plan to move forward with the revocation of the committee's registration. In the letter Mr. Robinson requested a hearing to object to the revocation. He noted the PC has timely filed all reports since June 30, 2014, and had responded timely to the DOE's first notice as requested in its letter. Mr. Robinson stated, "We simply ask that this committee be left open." He included a copy of the PC's March 31, 2015 monthly bank statement showing a beginning balance of $ 00 and an ending balance of $251,000.00. To view a copy of Mr. Robinson's April 23, 2015 letter, refer to Exhibit 8.

10. I interviewed Eric Robinson, Chairman, by telephone on June 19, 2015. Mr. Robinson stated this will be an administrative nightmare if the PC's registration is revoked. I asked Mr. Robinson why there was no activity during the 2014 calendar year; he said they did not wish to participate in the 2014 election cycle. To review the phone log, refer to Exhibit 9, entry number 2.

11. I subpoenaed bank records from SunTrust Bank, the campaign depository listed on the committee's most recent Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository form filed with the Division on June 30, 2014. Review of the bank records reflects the PC did not open its campaign depository until March 16, 2015; it appears the PC did not receive any contributions or make any expenditures during the 2014 calendar year. (Note for the first five months of the 2014 calendar year the PC did not exist.) To view relevant pages of the PC's bank records, refer to Exhibit 10.

Conclusion:

12. Based upon information gathered by staff, it appears the PC did not have aggregate reported financial activity of more than $500 during the 2014 calendar year.

Helen Hinson

FLORIDA
DIVISION OF ELECTIONS

1S-2.021 Revocation of Registration of Political Committees and Electioneering Communications Organizations.

(1) Definition: "Most recent address on file" means, as applicable, the last address provided in a written statement of change to the filing officer for the registered agent pursuant to Section 106.022, F.S., or the last address provided to the filing officer for the committee's chairperson or organization's top-ranking official as contained in the statement of organization or in any written statement of change to the statement of organization made pursuant to Section 106.03, F.S.

(2) Conduct warranting revocation. The filing officer shall revoke the registration of a political committee (hereinafter committee) or an electioneering communications organization (hereinafter organization) for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) The committee or organization fails to maintain a registered office and a registered agent as required by Section 106.022, F.S.;

(b) The committee or organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its treasurer;

(c) The committee fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its chairperson;

(d) The committee or organization fails to file treasurers' reports for more than 6 months;

(e) The committee's aggregate reported financial activity during the calendar year of an even-numbered year is less than $500 unless the committee is only registered and required to report as the sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment by initiative who intended to seek the signatures of registered voters;

(f) The organization's aggregate reported financial activity during the calendar year of an even-numbered year is $5000 or less;

(g) The organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its top-ranking principal officer; or

(h) The committee or organization has an unpaid fine or civil penalty imposed under Chapter 106, F.S., which has become final, meaning all appeals regarding the imposition of the fine or civil penalty have been exhausted or the time for such appeals has passed

(3) Revocation procedures

(a) Initial notice of intent to revoke. The filing officer shall notify the committee's chairperson or organization's top-ranking principal officer and its registered agent of the intent to revoke the registration and include the facts and conduct which warrant the intended revocation. The notice shall be sent to the most recent address on file for both the chairperson or top-ranking principal officer, as applicable, and registered agent. The initial notice shall state that all future notifications regarding revocation of the committee's or organization's registration shall be sent only to the most recent address on file for the registered agent. The committee or organization has 30 days from the date of the initial notice to provide additional documentation to the filing officer showing that the committee's or organization's registration should not be revoked.

(b) Final notice of intent to revoke. After receiving the documentation under paragraph (a) from the committee or organization or after the 30-day deadline to provide additional information, whichever occurs first, the filing officer shall review all information and determine whether the registration should still be revoked.

1. If the filing officer determines that the registration should not be revoked, then the filing officer shall send notification to the most recent address on file for the registered agent.

2. If the filing officer determines that the registration should be revoked, then the filing officer shall send a final notice of intent to revoke to the most recent address on file for the registered agent.

(c) Notice returned as undeliverable. If the initial notices of intent to revoke are returned as undeliverable, and the committee or organization's most recent address on file has not changed since the filing officer sent the initial notices, then the filing officer need not send a final notice of intent to revoke and shall instead send the final order of revocation. If the initial notices of intent to revoke are returned as undeliverable, but the committee or organization's most recent address on file has changed since the filing officer sent the initial notices, then the filing officer will provide an initial notice of the intent to revoke to that updated address; thereafter, the filing officer shall follow the procedures in this rule.

(d) Final order of revocation. The final order of revocation shall be sent to the most recent address on file for the registered agent, notwithstanding that the final order may be returned as undeliverable due to previous undelivered notices.

(4) Appeals

(a) Appeal of Final Notice of Intent to Revoke. A committee or organization may appeal a final notice of intent to revoke within 30 days of the date of such final notice. The appeal may be accompanied by any documentation or evidence supporting the claim.

The appeal must be filed with the filing officer. The filing officer will forward the appeal to the Florida Elections Commission.

1. Failure to timely file an appeal shall constitute a waiver of any such entitlement.
2. A committee or organization desiring a hearing before the Florida Elections Commission must include in the appeal a separate request for hearing.
3. Appeals to the Florida Elections Commission under this rule are exempt from the confidentiality provisions of Section 106 25, F.S.

(b) Appeal of Final Order. A committee or organization may appeal the Division of Elections' final order of revocation to the District Court of Appeal within 30 days of the date that the final order is filed in the official records of the Department of State as indicated in the Certificate of Service on the final order.

RE: Floridians for Conservative Future (64184)

Dear Ms Bronson,

In response to your letter dated April 1, 2015, I would like to request a hearing to object to the revocation for the above named Political Committee.

I am attaching the following documentation:

1. The March bank statement showing a sizeable deposit of 250,000.00 on 3/17/15
2. The original letter from Division of Elections dated 3/25/15 stating notice of intent to revoke and giving us 30 days to respond and show proof
3. Our letter in response, dated 3/30/15, asking the Division to reconsider once the "M3" report was uploaded.
4. The Division of Elections second letter, dated 4/1/15 (and the postmarked envelope dated 4/3/15), denying our request to keep the Committee open
5. Proof of our online report filing dated 4/4/15 for the M3 period (which was purposely filed 6 days earlier than the deadline to give the Division of Elections the ability to see the data we were referencing in our letter)

This Committee has filed any and all reports timely since it was opened on 6/30/14. We also responded in a very timely manner to the first notice from the Division of Elections as requested in their letter. We simply ask that this committee be left open.

Please notify us when the hearing will occur

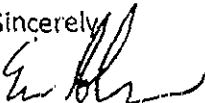

Sincerely,

Eric W. Robinson

1S-2.021 Revocation of Registration of Political Committees and Electioneering Communications Organizations.

(1) Definition: "Most recent address on file" means, as applicable, the last address provided in a written statement of change to the filing officer for the registered agent pursuant to Section 106.022, F.S., or the last address provided to the filing officer for the committee's chairperson or organization's top-ranking official as contained in the statement of organization or in any written statement of change to the statement of organization made pursuant to Section 106.03, F.S.

(2) Conduct warranting revocation. The filing officer shall revoke the registration of a political committee (hereinafter committee) or an electioneering communications organization (hereinafter organization) for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) The committee or organization fails to maintain a registered office and a registered agent as required by Section 106.022, F.S.;

(b) The committee or organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its treasurer;

(c) The committee fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its chairperson;

(d) The committee or organization fails to file treasurers' reports for more than 6 months;

(e) The committee's aggregate reported financial activity during the calendar year of an even-numbered year is less than $500 unless the committee is only registered and required to report as the sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment by initiative who intended to seek the signatures of registered voters;

(f) The organization's aggregate reported financial activity during the calendar year of an even-numbered year is $5000 or less;

(g) The organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its top-ranking principal officer; or

(3) Revocation procedures

(a) Initial notice of intent to revoke. The filing officer shall notify the committee's chairperson or organization's top-ranking principal officer and its registered agent of the intent to revoke the registration and include the facts and conduct which warrant the intended revocation. The notice shall be sent to the most recent address on file for both the chairperson or top-ranking principal officer, as applicable, and registered agent. The initial notice shall state that all future notifications regarding revocation of the committee's or organization's registration shall be sent only to the most recent address on file for the registered agent. The committee or organization has 30 days from the date of the initial notice to provide additional documentation to the filing officer showing that the committee's or organization's registration should not be revoked.

(b) Final notice of intent to revoke. After receiving the documentation under paragraph (a) from the committee or organization or after the 30-day deadline to provide additional information, whichever occurs first, the filing officer shall review all information and determine whether the registration should still be revoked.

1. If the filing officer determines that the registration should not be revoked, then the filing officer shall send notification to the most recent address on file for the registered agent.

2. If the filing officer determines that the registration should be revoked, then the filing officer shall send a final notice of intent to revoke to the most recent address on file for the registered agent.

(c) Notice returned as undeliverable. If the initial notices of intent to revoke are returned as undeliverable, and the committee or organization's most recent address on file has not changed since the filing officer sent the initial notices, then the filing officer need not send a final notice of intent to revoke and shall instead send the final order of revocation. If the initial notices of intent to revoke are returned as undeliverable, but the committee or organization's most recent address on file has changed since the filing officer sent the initial notices, then the filing officer will provide an initial notice of the intent to revoke to that updated address; thereafter, the filing officer shall follow the procedures in this rule.

(d) Final order of revocation. The final order of revocation shall be sent to the most recent address on file for the registered agent, notwithstanding that the final order may be returned as undeliverable due to previous undelivered notices.

(4) Appeals

(a) Appeal of Final Notice of Intent to Revoke. A committee or organization may appeal a final notice of intent to revoke within 30 days of the date of such final notice. The appeal may be accompanied by any documentation or evidence supporting the claim.

The appeal must be filed with the filing officer. The filing officer will forward the appeal to the Florida Elections Commission.

1 Failure to timely file an appeal shall constitute a waiver of any such entitlement.

2 A committee or organization desiring a hearing before the Florida Elections Commission must include in the appeal a separate request for hearing.

3 Appeals to the Florida Elections Commission under this rule are exempt from the confidentiality provisions of Section 106.25, F.S.

(b) Appeal of Final Order. A committee or organization may appeal the Division of Elections' final order of revocation to the District Court of Appeal within 30 days of the date that the final order is filed in the official records of the Department of State as indicated in the Certificate of Service on the final order.

(2) Conduct warranting revocation. The filing officer shall revoke the registration of a political committee (hereinafter committee) or an electioneering communications organization (hereinafter organization) for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) The committee or organization fails to maintain a registered office and a registered agent as required by Section 106.022 F.S.;

(b) The committee or organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its treasurer;

(c) The committee fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its chairperson;

(d) The committee or organization fails to file treasurers' reports for more than 6 months;

(e) The committee's aggregate reported financial activity during the calendar year of an even-numbered year is less than $500 unless the committee is only registered and required to report as the sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment by initiative who intended to seek the signatures of registered voters;

(f) The organization's aggregate reported financial activity during the calendar year of an even-numbered year is $5000 or less;

(g) The organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its top ranking principal officer; or

(h) The committee or organization has an unpaid fine or civil penalty imposed under Chapter 106, F.S., which has become final meaning all appeals regarding the imposition of the fine or civil penalty have been exhausted or the time for such appeals has passed.

(3) Revocation procedures.

(a) Initial notice of intent to revoke. The filing officer shall notify the committee's chairperson or organization's top-ranking principal officer and its registered agent of the intent to revoke the registration and include the facts and conduct which warrant the intended revocation. The notice shall be sent to the most recent address on file for both the chairperson or top-ranking principal officer, as applicable, and registered agent. The initial notice shall state that all future notifications regarding revocation of the committee's or organization's registration shall be sent only to the most recent address on file for the registered agent. The committee or organization has 30 days from the date of the initial notice to provide additional documentation to the filing officer showing that the committee's or organization's registration should not be revoked.

(b) Final notice of intent to revoke. After receiving the documentation under paragraph (a) from the committee or organization or after the 30-day deadline to provide additional information, whichever occurs first, the filing officer shall review all information and determine whether the registration should still be revoked.

1. If the filing officer determines that the registration should not be revoked, then the filing officer shall send notification to the most recent address on file for the registered agent.

2. If the filing officer determines that the registration should be revoked, then the filing officer shall send a final notice of intent to revoke to the most recent address on file for the registered agent.

(c) Notice returned as undeliverable. If the initial notices of intent to revoke are returned as undeliverable, and the committee or organization's most recent address on file has not changed since the filing officer sent the initial notices, then the filing officer need not send a final notice of intent to revoke and shall instead send the final order of revocation. If the initial notices of intent to revoke are returned as undeliverable, but the committee or organization's most recent address on file has changed since the filing officer sent the initial notices, then the filing officer will provide an initial notice of the intent to revoke to that updated address; thereafter, the filing officer shall follow the procedures in this rule.

(d) Final order of revocation. The final order of revocation shall be sent to the most recent address on file for the registered agent, notwithstanding that the final order may be returned as undeliverable due to previous undelivered notices.

(4) Appeals.

(a) Appeal of Final Notice of Intent to Revoke. A committee or organization may appeal a final notice of intent to revoke within 30 days of the date of such final notice. The appeal may be accompanied by any documentation or evidence supporting the claim.

The appeal must be filed with the filing officer. The filing officer will forward the appeal to the Florida Elections Commission

1. Failure to timely file an appeal shall constitute a waiver of any such entitlement

RE: Floridians for Conservative Future (64184)

Dear Ms Bronson,

In response to your letter dated April 1, 2015, I would like to request a hearing to object to the revocation for the above named Political Committee.

I am attaching the following documentation:

- 1 The March bank statement showing a sizeable deposit of 250,000.00 on 3/17/15
- 2 The original letter from Division of Elections dated 3/25/15 stating notice of intent to revoke and giving us 30 days to respond and show proof
- 3 Our letter in response, dated 3/30/15, asking the Division to reconsider once the "M3" report was uploaded.
- 4 The Division of Elections second letter, dated 4/1/15 (and the postmarked envelope dated 4/3/15), denying our request to keep the Committee open
- 5 Proof of our online report filing dated 4/4/15 for the M3 period (which was purposely filed 6 days earlier than the deadline to give the Division of Elections the ability to see the data we were referencing in our letter)

This Committee has filed any and all reports timely since it was opened on 6/30/14. We also responded in a very timely manner to the first notice from the Division of Elections as requested in their letter. We simply ask that this committee be left open.

Please notify us when the hearing will occur.

Sincerely,

Eric W. Robinson
