Case No.: FEC 10-359

F.O. No.: FOFEC 11-038A

Report: 2010 G2

FINAL ORDER

THIS CAUSE came on to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission at its regularly scheduled meeting held on February 8 & 9, 2011.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Commission is charged with enforcing Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, the campaign financing law.

2. The Respondent's campaign treasurer's report was not filed with the filing officer on October 1, 2010, the designated due date.

3. The filing officer fined the Respondent $445.00 for the late filing of the report. The Respondent timely appealed claiming that she thought she had submitted the report, and that her not filing the report was an oversight and not a purposeful act. Respondent also stated that the fine would create a financial hardship for her.

4. Respondent did not provide any documentation to support her claim that imposing a fine on her would create a financial hardship.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

5. The Commission has jurisdiction over the parties to and subject matter of this case, pursuant to Section 106.04, 106.07, or 106.29, Florida Statutes.

6. The Respondent's claim that she thought she submitted the report, and that not filing the report was an oversight and not a purposeful act does not justify the Respondent's failure to file the report timely.

7. The Respondent's claim that she thought she had submitted the report does not justify the Respondent's failure to file the report timely.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission finds that the Respondent's claim that not filing her report was an oversight and not a purposeful act. Respondent also stated that the fine would create a financial hardship for her. Therefore, it is ORDERED that the assessed fine of $445.00 is affirmed. The fine shall be paid to the Division of Elections within 30 days of the date this Final Order is received by the Respondent.

DONE AND ORDERED by the Florida Elections Commission on this 15TH day of February, 2011, in Tallahassee, Florida.
