However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Hello Mr. Kelly,

I am writing to you regarding the aforementioned matter. I have received today at 4pm a letter stating I was to appear via Zoom at 1pm today regarding the automatic fine, case # FEC 24-199. I was away for two weeks traveling and did not retrieve my mail until today.

What steps do I need to take at this point to reschedule or attend a future hearing? To my knowledge, there are 2 cases that I have pending. Am I able to send you attachments for each one?

Thank you for any and all assistance you can provide.

Best,

Gabrielle M Fox

SUMMARY: Gabrielle M. Fox was a candidate for State Representative, District 94 in the 2024 elections. Ms. Fox was her own treasurer.

Gabrielle M. Fox is appealing the fine, claiming that she was unaware that the filing frequency changed. According to Ms. Fox, she called the office on June 21, 2024, the due date, when she received an email reminder stating that she had not filed the report. She claims she was confused; having recently submitted her last report on June 10, 2024, she was not aware that the reporting frequency had changed. Ms. Fox also claims that during her phone conversation, a DOE staff member said she might have received the email by mistake from their system and that she didn't have any pending reports. Upon receipt of a subsequent notice, she contacted the Division and was made aware of the change in reporting.

- The 2024 P1 Original Report covers the period from 06/01/24-06/14/24; it was due on 06/21/24.
- The 2024 P1 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 06/28/24.
- Gabrielle M. Fox reported receiving 10 contributions, while making 3 expenditures.
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Gabrielle M. Fox's 2024 P1 report.

To Whom It May Concern,

This notice is to kindly request the fines assessed in regards to the June 21, 2024 report be removed. The reason for this request is due to the fact that the Division of Elections Office Staff informed me my account was "good to go and up to date" on June 21, 2024 via phone call.

The Florida Division of Elections Office should have a record of the call made on the 21st, as I believe they record calls. I have a screenshot record of the call that lasted 40 minutes, as I was on hold for 15-20 min I believe.

After receiving an email on June 21st, 2024 the due date, reminding me my report had not been filed, I called the office. I was unaware the filing frequency had changed at this point, so I was confused as I had just submitted my last report on June 10, 2024.

When I spoke to the gentleman on the phone, he indicated he would "check on this" and looked up my account. He indicated I had no pending reports, and that I may have received the email in error by their system. He told me not to worry and my account was "good to go".

The next reminder email I received from the efs system was June 28th. I called the office that day as well which is when a female staff member informed me of the change in filing requirement frequency to weekly versus bi-monthly. I let her know that I had called June 21st and was not told that, and told my account was "good to go" by another staff member.

Now that I was given the proper information, my campaign reports have been filed in a timely manner. I appreciate the Commission's understanding regarding this miscommunication.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Dear Ms. Fox:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was June 21, 2024.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
  - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
  - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
  - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

RE: 2024 Q1 Report I returned Ms. Fox's call at 561.234.9995 and assisted her in filing her 2024 Q1 report in EFS with complete detailed records. She explained that she was trying to report a reimbursement and I walked her through recording the Other Distribution record and that she'll have to report the Expenditure reimbursement on the 2024 Q2 report (since it was made in April 2024), which will then be linked to the corresponding Distribution record in the 2024 Q1 report. -ELR
