Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal of an intent to revoke a registration, of a Political Committee, Electioneering Communications Organization, or a Political Party, the Division of Elections has issued you a notice of intent, citing the reasons for which it intends to cancel your registration. By filing the appeal, you have asked the Commission to recommend that the Division's Notice of Intent be set aside. You are required to explain why you believe your registration should not be cancelled. Based upon the information you present, the Commission will issue a recommended order to the Division, in which it will either recommend that the Notice of Intent be set aside, or that the cancellation be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Good afternoon,

My name is Christopher Gleason. I am appealing the late filing fee for my P1 and P2 campaign finance reports.

For P1 I had tried to submit the report and there appeared to be an issue when I received a notification the next day.

For P2 I submitted the report and I was later notified that it had been filed 3 minutes late.

I would like a hearing. I would like to see the audit logs and activity logs for the campaign finance system reporting showing the access and submission of the reports.

Warm regards,

Christopher Gleason

JULIE MARCUS

PINELLAS COUNTY SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS

August 14, 2024

Commissioner Chad Mizelle, Chair
Florida Elections Commission
107 West Gaines Street
Suite 224, Collins Building
Tallahassee, FL 32399-1050

RE: Case No. FEC 24-175

Dear Chairman Thomas:

This statement is part of the above-referenced case regarding Christopher Gleason, Candidate for Pinellas County Supervisor of Elections for the August 20, 2024 Primary Election. Mr. Gleason filed a late P2 Campaign Finance Report and did not pay the $50.00 fine¹. Mr. Gleason appealed to your office via email on July 16 at 5:06 p.m. but failed to notify our office pursuant to Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes.

On June 10, 2024, Mr. Gleason appeared in person at our office to announce his candidacy. At that time, staff provided Mr. Gleason with the 2024 County and Special District Candidate Reporting Dates and an explanation of the dates each campaign finance report was due. Additionally, Mr. Gleason was provided a printed copy of the 2024 Candidate Handbook and the "How To File Campaign Finance Reports Online" manual, which provides easy-to-follow, step-by-step instructions with pictures and illustrations as to how to navigate the campaign finance portal and to file campaign reports. Mr. Gleason also signed his Statement of Candidate, acknowledging access to read and understand the requirements of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. Finally, Mr. Gleason signed and hand-delivered on June 14 his Acknowledgement of Electronic Filing Information form, which stresses that "Campaign Treasurer Reports must be electronically filed no later than Midnight (Eastern Time) of the reporting due date [...] or they are deemed filed late and are subject to the applicable penalties..."

Following the late submission of his P1 report, Mr. Gleason was reminded via email of the midnight July 5 (Eastern time) deadline for his P2 report. The email reminders were sent to Mr. Gleason on July 1 at 4:53 p.m. and July 5 at 3:10 p.m.

Mr. Gleason did not start his P2 report until 10:13 p.m. on July 5, a mere 107 minutes before the midnight deadline. From 10:17 p.m. through 11:58 p.m., Mr. Gleason input 67 separate contributions and expenditures.

¹ Mr. Gleason also filed a late P1 report; I understand that complaint is still in process. We will respond separately to the late P1 complaint as directed.

The P2 report was not generated and submitted until 12:02:41 a.m., which was after the reporting deadline of Midnight (Eastern Time), July 5, 2024. The logs do not indicate any attempt to generate or submit the report prior to the deadline.

Mr. Gleason's total expenditures for the P2 reporting period were $7,496.76 ($3,284.50 in total contributions). Therefore, Mr. Gleason was required to pay a fine of $50.00 from personal funds or appeal the fine within 20 days of receipt. He was notified of this disposition via email July 6.

At no time was the Supervisor of Elections informed or notified by our C-Finance vendor (VR Systems) of a system error or malfunction. Nor did Mr. Gleason ever notify our office of any issues or reach out for assistance. Every other candidate for this election was able to timely file all their reports, including the P2.

Mr. Gleason has publicly acknowledged the late reports, stating, *"The Florida Elections Complaint that [the Pinellas County SOE] filed against me...not once but twice...but what they filed this complaint against me over was the fact that I filed my campaign finance report late. [P1] was a submission error [...] and [P2], was, I was three minutes late, and it was a navigation issue with their software."*² Yet in his appeal to the Commission for the late P2 report, the only reason Mr. Gleason gave for the appeal was "I submitted the report and I was later notified that it had been filed 3 minutes late." A basis for an appeal of a late report is, generally, "unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date." Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes.

Per your letter dated July 29, 2024, we have enclosed the report that was filed late (Ex. A), the emails reminding the candidate that the P2 was due (Ex. B), the filing officer's failure to file email and letter (Ex. C), the filing officer's fine email and letter (Ex. D), the certified mail receipt that the fine letter was received (Ex. E), the Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository form (Ex. F), the filing history (Ex. G), the Statement of Candidate Oath (Ex. H), the Acknowledgement of Electronic Filing Information (Ex. I), and the 2024 County and Special District Candidate Reporting Dates (Ex. J).

If you have any questions, please contact me or Wendy Grimes, Elections Administrator at 727-464-5751.

Respectfully,

Matt Smith
General Counsel
Representing Julie Marcus, Pinellas County Supervisor of Elections
