Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal of an intent to revoke a registration, of a Political Committee, Electioneering Communications Organization, or a Political Party, the Division of Elections has issued you a notice of intent, citing the reasons for which it intends to cancel your registration. By filing the appeal, you have asked the Commission to recommend that the Division's Notice of Intent be set aside. You are required to explain why you believe your registration should not be cancelled. Based upon the information you present, the Commission will issue a recommended order to the Division, in which it will either recommend that the Notice of Intent be set aside, or that the cancellation be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Progressives for a Better South Florida is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Martin Glacken and its treasurer is Christopher Davey.

The PC is appealing the fine. According to Christopher Davey, they didn't remember to submit the report until April 12, 2024. He says they discovered they were missing the PIN and the password. When Mr. Davey called the Division of Elections on April 15, he was told to fill out the paperwork to have his PIN and password reset. He claims they received credentials by phone for the treasurer and were unaware that the chair also required credentials. In a subsequent call for credentials, they were told it was "qualifying week" and that the request would take longer than normal. He claims they did not receive the final information until April 17th, the day the report was submitted. Mr. Davey requests a waiver of the fines for April 15th, 16th, and 17th due to the circumstances.

- The 2024 Q1 Original Report covers the period from 01/28/24-03/31/24; it was due on 04/10/24.
- The 2024 Q1 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created on 04/15/24 and filed on 04/17/24.
- Progressives for a Better South Florida reported receiving 5 contributions, while making 3 expenditures.
- The Division of Elections provided two notes that pertain to Progressives for a Better South Florida's 2024 Q1 report. On 04/15/24, Division staff provided credentials for Mr. Glacken and Mr. Davey. On 04/17/24, it states, "The PINS were released to Chris Davey per credential request form received on April 17, 2024".

Re: Progresssives for a Better South Florida
PAC 84543

Dear Members of the Florida Elections Commission:

We are writing to you to appeal a $2,150.00 fine that was assessed against the PC, Progressives for A Better South Florida.

We absolutely concede that we forgot about filing our report on April 10th. It was our mistake and we realized it on Friday, April 12, 2024. However, we did not realize, at that time, that we did not have the Password or Chairman's PIN. We did not even realize there was a Chairman's PIN, until the following week when we submitted a request for a new Password.

Unfortunately, by the time we realized this on Friday, tried to login and couldn't the state offices were closed. On Monday morning (April 15th), I reached out for the Division of Elections and was told to fill out the password/PIN reset form, and email or fax to the Commission. On Monday, the Commission called me and gave us the Password to the account. But, we did not realize that we were missing the Chairman's PIN. We received the letter with the Treasurer's PIN, but never received a letter with the Chairman's PIN, so we never knew there was one.

This was the week the Division of Election was working on "qualifying". The receptionist told us everyone in the office was working on that and it might take longer than usual to respond.

Well, that was the case. We did not receive a call back from the Division of Elections, with the Chairman's PIN, until Wednesday, April 17th, the day we filed the report.

Florida Elections Commission

August 26, 2024

Page 2 of 2

We respectfully request that the fines for the April 15th, 16th, and 17th of April be waived as it took the Division much longer than usual to respond due to the fact they were working on qualifying. This could have been cleared up on Monday AM, but it took 2 days to receive a follow-up call from the Division.

Thank you, in advance, for your attention to this request, and your consideration of it. It is truly appreciated.

Sincerely,

RE: Case No.: FEC 24-150; Campaign Treasurer's Report due 04/10/24 (2024 Q1)

Dear Mr. Glacken:

The Florida Elections Commission received a letter from Christopher Davey appealing the fine assessed against your committee for failing to timely file a required report. However, Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes, provide that only the candidate or chair of a political committee, may appeal a fine assessed by a filing officer for the late filing of a campaign treasurer's report.

Therefore, to preserve your right to appeal the automatic fine, the Commission must receive your written statement confirming that the person who submitted the initial intent to appeal the fine, was representing you in that request. For your convenience, your signed statement can be submitted via email attachment to, FEC@myfloridalegal.com.

If we do not hear from you within 14 days from the date of this letter, we will assume that the person signing the letter is neither your attorney nor your personal representative and that you have waived your right to appeal. The Commission will then enter a Default Final Order, ordering you to pay the fine assessed by your filing officer for failing to timely file your campaign treasurer's report.

I urge your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Donna Ann Malphurs

Good afternoon.

I am forwarding an appeal letter signed by the Chairman of our Political Committee.

Previously, I had sent a letter signed by the Treasurer, as the Chairman had been in the hospital and unable to sign.

The FEC requires a letter to be signed by the Chairman, and that is what I am submitting, today.

Should you have any other questions, or require any additional facts, please do not hesitate to contact us via email, regular mail, or phone call.

Thank you, in advance, for your consideration of our appeal.

Best regards,

Martin Glacken, Chairman

Dear Mr. Glacken:

The campaign treasurer's report that was due on April 10, 2024, was filed on April 17, 2024. By law, you are automatically assessed a late fine of $2,150.00.

1. Pay the fine to the Florida Division of Elections (For a candidate only, a fine is not an allowable campaign expenditure and must be paid from personal funds) at:

*Florida Division of Elections
R.A. Gray Building, Room. 316
500 South Bronough Street

2. Appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission (See Rules 2B-1.005 and 2B-1.0055, Florida Administrative Code) at:

Dear Mr. Glacken:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was April 10, 2024.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:

$50 per day for the first 3 days late

$500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late

If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.
