NOTICE OF HEARING (AUTOMATIC FINES (AF))

A hearing will be held in this case before the Florida Elections Commission on, August 19, 2025 at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the parties can be heard, at the following location: Virtual Meeting via Webinar link: <https://register.gotowebinar.com/register/3863768971242962781> and Webinar ID 748-293-987.

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission on this date. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

See further instructions on the reverse side.

Tim Vaccaro
Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
July 28, 2025

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Dear Ms. Grieger:

The Florida Elections Commission received a letter from Scott Grieger appealing the fine assessed against you for failing to timely file a required report. However, Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes, provide that only the candidate or chair of a political committee, may appeal a fine assessed by a filing officer for the late filing of a campaign treasurer's report.

Therefore, to preserve your right to appeal the automatic fine, the Commission must receive your written statement confirming that the person who submitted the initial intent to appeal the fine, was representing you in that request. For your convenience, your signed statement can be submitted via email attachment to, FEC@myfloridalegal.com.

If we do not hear from you within 14 days from the date of this letter, we will assume that the person signing the letter is neither your attorney nor your personal representative and that you have waived your right to appeal. The Commission will then enter a Default Final Order, ordering you to pay the fine assessed by your filing officer for failing to timely file your campaign treasurer's report.

I urge your immediate attention to this matter.

To Whom It May Concern:

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to request a waiver of the late fees incurred for delinquent Campaign Treasury reports, for Candidate Jeni Grieger for School Board District 6.

As a first-time candidate, due to a busy family life, unforeseen circumstances and ongoing technical difficulties experienced on the reporting website, some reports were filed after the required deadline. I kindly ask for your consideration in waiving the late fees. I am committed to ensuring that this does not happen again and appreciate your understanding.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

RE: Assessment of Late Fine

Your campaign treasurer's report due July 26, 2024, was received in my office on August 19, 2024. Therefore, pursuant to Chapter 106.07(8)(b), F.S., your report was 24 days late and subject to a fine.

Florida Statute 106.07 states any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first three days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding the primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

The Division of Elections, Department of State, has confirmed that Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays must be included when assessing this fine. Thus, your fine is $276.94 (25% of your Total Expenditures of $1,107.77).

This fine is not an allowable campaign expenditure and your personal funds must be used to pay this fine. (An officer or member of a political committee shall not be personally liable for such fine.) This fine must be paid within 20 days of receipt of this notice, unless appeal or request for a hearing is made to the Florida Elections Commission. The address for the FEC is The Collins Building, 107 W. Gaines St., Suite 224, Tallahassee, FL 32399-0250. (See chapter 106.07(8)(c), F.S., on procedures for appeal). RE: Assessment of Late Fine

Your campaign treasurer's report due August 16, 2024, was received in my office on August 19, 2024. Therefore, pursuant to Chapter 106.07(8)(b), F.S., your report was 3 days late and subject to a fine.

Florida Statute 106.07 states any candidate failing to file a report on the designated due date shall be subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first three days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding the primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25 percent of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

The Division of Elections, Department of State, has confirmed that Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays must be included when assessing this fine. Thus, your fine is $1,500.00 (3 days at $500 per day).

This fine is not an allowable campaign expenditure and your personal funds must be used to pay this fine. (An officer or member of a political committee shall not be personally liable for such fine.) This fine must be paid within 20 days of receipt of this notice, unless appeal or request for a hearing is made to the Florida Elections Commission. The address for the FEC is The Collins Building, 107 W. Gaines St., Suite 224, Tallahassee, FL 32399-0250. (See chapter 106.07(8)(c), F.S., on procedures for appeal). MY OFFICE HAS NO AUTHORITY TO WAIVE THIS FINE. Please make check payable to the SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS.

Please contact Kristi Gay at 407-254-6510 if you need assistance or have any questions.

Regards,

Glen Gilzean
Supervisor of Elections
