NOTICE OF HEARING (REVIEW AND CONSIDERATION OF APPEAL OF REVOCATION)

A hearing will be held in this case before the Florida Elections Commission on February 7, 2024 at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the parties can be heard, at the following location: 402 South Monroe Street, 12 HOB, Tallahassee, Florida 32399. Due to heightened security access requirements, please bring only essential items into the building and plan to arrive early to allow for delays coming through security.

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission on this date. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
January 19, 2024

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant to Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Dear Ms. Cunningham:

Unfortunately, the Notice of Hearing for November 14, 2023 was not received in Ft. Lauderdale until November 10. The envelope was postmarked October 31, 2023.

Dr. Palamara was just returning from being out of the country and did not have time to make travel arrangements to come to Tallahassee.

Because of being out of the country, he also has a full surgical schedule this week.

Would you please excuse him from appearing on November 14. Dr. Palamara looks forward to appearing in person at your February 2024 meeting. When you know the date, would you please share.

Thank you very much.

From: Arthur E. Palamara, MD, FACS, Chair, Broward Allied Medical PAC (BAMPAC)
Case 23-140 -Revocation of Registration

Date: August 18, 2023

Distinguished Members of the Board:

I regret that I was unable to continue to participate in the last hearing. I allotted 3.5 hours and erroneously assumed that we would have concluded by then. I scheduled an operation for noon and then pushed it back to 12:30. As the patient was asleep on the operating table, I had no choice but to leave the meeting.

Thank you for granting us a continuance.

I found the activities and responsibilities of the Committee quite interesting, fair, impartial and educational. Especially intriguing was the law firm in South Carolina who deduct a fixed amount from each attorney's salary for lobbying purposes. Further compelling is that they have a PAC in Florida.

We at BAMPAC certainly do not have those resources. We are being cited for inactivity. We strive to use our influence to make sure that patients and doctors are treated fairly, which has become more challenging in this corporatized medical world. Most of our legislative efforts are directed to assist doctors provide care with the least amount of bureaucratic encumbrance.

The average doctor simply lacks the time and resources to participate at the level exemplified by the South Carolina law firm. While Broward doctors try to make political contributions to local legislators, we cannot compete monetarily with large hospitals, insurance companies and other interests. We have found that interviewing and educating local candidates has been quite effective. Our endorsement is valued since we transmit these recommendations to members and non-member physicians alike.

Moreover, we are much more active in election years, and anticipate being very involved in 2024. There will be minimal activity in 2023 since we rarely participate in municipal elections. It is difficult to ask our members to make a political contribution in off-years when national politics dominates the news. As an adjunct to the Florida Medical Association PAC, our activities are noted and appreciated.

Again, thank you for granting the continuance and I look forward to speaking with you directly at your next meeting. Since it was noted that your meetings are separated into categories based on violations and appeals, it would be tremendously helpful (and less emotionally stressful) if your staff could provide an approximate time when our case will be heard. Thank you for your indulgence.

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Brown:

Re: Broward Allied Medical Political Action Committee (734)

The Broward Allied Medical Political Action Committee (BAMPAC) would like to request a hearing and cannot attend in person. BAMPAC has not requested membership dollars from the members for the past few years dues to the financial hardships many physicians faced during the covid pandemic.

However, committee meetings have been held, and candidates have been interviewed. BAMPAC was organized more than 32 years ago. I have been here for 32 years. BAMPAC has been up and down over the years financially. One of the objectives of BAMPAC has always been to promote and strive for the improvement of government by encouraging and stimulating physicians and others to take a more active and effective part in governmental affairs. BAMPAC has interviewed candidates in 2021 and 2022 with the goal of educating them about healthcare issues and encouraging them to reach out if they have questions about healthcare issues. This has been quite effective. Please see attached minutes from the meetings. BAMPAC has given verbal support to candidates which has been appreciated even without financial support. The physicians have been encouraged to give individually to candidates.

BAMPAC will go forth and have a membership drive to build up our financial resources. BAMPAC reports have been filed, and we were not aware that there was a requirement to be financially active.

Thank you for your consideration in allowing BAMPAC to continue as an organization.

Sincerely,

1S-2.021 Cancellation of Registration of Political Committees and Electioneering Communications Organizations.

(1) Definitions:

(a) "Organization" means an electioneering communications organization.

(b) "Committee" means a political committee.

(c) "Limited activity" means:

1. For a committee, the committee's aggregate reported financial activity in each of two consecutive calendar years is $500 or less, unless the committee is only registered and required to report as the sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment by initiative who intended to seek the signatures of registered voters; and,

2. For an organization, the organization's aggregate reported financial activity in each of two consecutive calendar years is $5,000 or less.

(d) "Most recent address on file" means the address provided in the most recent statement of appointment or written statement of change filed pursuant to Section 106.022, F.S.

(2) Conduct warranting cancellation. The filing officer shall initiate the cancellation of the registration of a committee or an organization for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) The committee or organization fails to maintain a registered office and a registered agent as required by Section 106.022, F.S., including the failure to have a physical office space and hours of operation or if correspondence sent by the filing officer is returned as undeliverable;

(b) The committee or organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its treasurer;

(c) The committee fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its chairperson;

(d) The committee or organization fails to file 2 or more consecutive reports;

(e) The committee or organization has limited activity;

(f) The organization fails to file the appointment of a successor within 10 days after the death, resignation or removal of its top-ranking principal officer; or

(g) The committee or organization has an unpaid fine or civil penalty imposed under Chapter 106, F.S., which has become final, meaning all appeals regarding the imposition of the fine or civil penalty have been exhausted or the time for such appeals has passed.

(3) Cancellation procedures.

(a) Initial notice of intent to cancel. The filing officer shall notify the committee's chairperson or organization's top-ranking principal officer and its registered agent of the intent to cancel the registration and include the facts and conduct which warrant the intended cancellation. The notice shall be sent to the most recent address on file for both the chairperson or top-ranking principal officer, as applicable, and registered agent. The initial notice shall state that all future notifications regarding cancellation of the committee's or organization's registration shall be sent only to the most recent address on file for the registered agent. The committee or organization has 15 days from the date of the initial notice to provide additional documentation to the filing officer showing that the committee's or organization's registration should not be canceled.

(b) Final notice of intent to cancel. After receiving the documentation under paragraph (a), from the committee or organization or after the 15-day deadline to provide additional information, whichever occurs first, the filing officer shall review all information and determine whether the registration should still be canceled.

1. If the filing officer determines that the registration should not be canceled, then the filing officer shall notify the registered agent at the most recent address on file.

2. If the filing officer determines that the registration should be canceled, then the filing officer shall send a final notice of intent to cancel to the most recent address on file for the registered agent.

(c) Notice returned as undeliverable. If the initial notice of intent to cancel is returned as undeliverable, and the committee or organization's most recent address on file has not changed since the filing officer sent the initial notice, then the filing officer need not send a final notice of intent to cancel and shall instead send the final order of cancellation. If the initial notice of intent to cancel is returned as undeliverable, but the committee or organization's most recent address on file has changed since the filing officer sent the initial notice, then the filing officer will provide an initial notice of the intent to cancel to that updated address; thereafter, the filing officer shall follow the procedures in this rule.

(d) Final order of cancellation. The final order of cancellation shall be sent to the most recent address on file for the registered agent, notwithstanding that the final order may be returned as undeliverable due to previous undelivered notices.

(4) Appeals. Appeal of Final Notice of Intent to Cancel. A committee or organization may appeal a final notice of intent to cancel within 30 days of the date of such final notice. The appeal may be accompanied by any documentation or evidence supporting the claim. The appeal must be filed with the filing officer. The filing officer will forward the appeal to the Florida Elections Commission.

(a) Failure to timely file an appeal shall constitute a waiver of any such entitlement.

(b) A committee or organization desiring a hearing before the Florida Elections Commission must include in the appeal a request for hearing.

(c) Appeals to the Florida Elections Commission under this rule are exempt from the confidentiality provisions of Section 106.25, F.S.
