If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
July 28, 2025

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

STAFF MEMORANDUM

This matter is scheduled as an appeal of an automatic fine imposed by the Division of Elections (“Division”) against Associated Industries for Florida’s Future (“Appellant”) following the late filing of the 2024 D1 Report pursuant to Section 106.07(8), Florida Statutes.

Appellant is a political committee currently registered with the Division. Appellant’s 2024 D1 Report was due on October 26, 2024. On October 25, 2024, one (1) day early, Appellant submitted a waiver of the 2024 D1 Report pursuant to Section 106.07(7), Fla. Stat. On November 8, 2024, Appellant filed the 2024 D1 Report under Section 106.07(1), Fla. Stat. The report reflected one (1) expenditure for bank fees totaling $45.00. Pursuant to Section 106.07(8), Fla. Stat., the Division assessed a fine of $11.25 based on twenty-five (25) percent of the committee’s expenditures pursuant to Section 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.

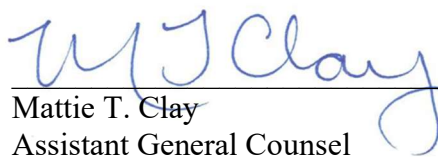

The Commission’s objective for automatic fine appeals is to determine whether the aggrieved party’s report was timely filed and, if not, whether the party demonstrated unusual circumstances—or other circumstances beyond the party’s control—that directly caused the report to be late. Florida Administrative Code Rule 2B-1.005(3); § 106.07(8)(c), Fla. Stat.; Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook (2022), page 74. Unusual circumstances are rare or sudden events that directly prevented the party from timely filing. Fla. Admin. Code R. 2B-1.0055(1). Examples of unusual circumstances include natural disasters and emergencies; death, illness, disability, or necessary surgery of the candidate, treasurer, or immediate family thereof; and unanticipated technological failures. Most of the subsections enumerate corroborative evidence that the aggrieved party needs to provide for the claim, such as a newspaper article, death certificate, or a physician’s certification on professional letterhead. Fla. Admin. Code R. 2B-1.0055(1)(a)-(d). The Division’s Advisory Opinion, DE 91-02 (1991), specifies that, “before the FEC may label these occurrences as ‘unusual circumstances,’ the FEC must determine that the persons involved took all steps necessary to ensure that a timely report was filed.”

The submission at issue before the Commission is the 2024 D1 Report filed on November 8, 2024, which discloses one (1) expenditure, rather than the notice of no report filed on October 25, 2024. Campaign reports contain all contributions received and all expenditures made during a reporting period. § 106.07(1) and (4), Fla. Stat. A committee with no activity may waive the required report for a specified period under Section 106.07(7), Fla. Stat., but must notify the filing officer in writing that “no report is being filed.” Handbook, page 54. Committees registered with the Division do so by selecting the “waiver” option in the Division’s Electronic Filing System (“EFS”). § 106.0705(2)(a); Candidate EFS User’s Guide, page 13; Handbook, page 54. A waiver filed pursuant to Section 106.07(7), Fla. Stat., is not a report but a notice stating that no report has been filed due to no reportable activity; however, the Commission may choose to consider a party’s reasons for filing a waiver under mitigating and aggravating circumstances as outlined in Section 106.265(3), Fla. Stat.

Rule 2B-1.005(2), Fla. Admin. Code, specifies that the appealing party has twenty (20) days from acceptance of the appeal to submit any documents supporting the appeal. Appellant timely submitted an initial statement with an EFS attachment. While the Commission may consider subsequent supplemental documents no later than five (5) business days before the hearing, i.e., August 12, 2025, the record currently reflects that the 2024 D1 Report was not timely filed.

Respectfully submitted by,

Mattie T. Clay

RE: Associated Industries for Florida's Future, ID #84383

Dear FEC,

We are in receipt of a letter from the Division of Elections dated November 13, 2024, stating that a campaign treasurer's report that was due on October 26, 2024 (2024 D1) was not filed until November 8, 2024, and thus a late fine of $11.25 is being assessed.

However, upon completing research on the Division of Elections' Campaign Finance Online Reporting System, a treasurer's report was filed for that reporting period as a waiver on October 25, 2024. An amended report was filed on November 8, 2024, adding an expenditure for bank charges.

We are appealing the fine due to Associated Industries for Florida's Future submitting timely reports as required by law.

Respectfully,

Brewster B. Bevis
