Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal of an intent to revoke a registration, of a Political Committee, Electioneering Communications Organization, or a Political Party, the Division of Elections has issued you a notice of intent, citing the reasons for which it intends to cancel your registration. By filing the appeal, you have asked the Commission to recommend that the Division's Notice of Intent be set aside. You are required to explain why you believe your registration should not be cancelled. Based upon the information you present, the Commission will issue a recommended order to the Division, in which it will either recommend that the Notice of Intent be set aside, or that the cancellation be upheld.

Dear Mr. Harting:

This letter serves as a reminder that your P4-24 Campaign Treasurer's Report, for the reporting period of July 13 –July 19, 2024, due July 26, 2024, was not received in my office on July 26, 2024.

Section 106.07(8), F.S, provides that the fine shall be $50 per day for the first 3 days late and, thereafter, $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total contributions or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. Please note that for reports due immediately preceding the primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 for each late day, subject to the 25% limit noted above. The Division of Elections has confirmed that Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays must be included when assessing this fine.

This fine is not an allowable campaign expenditure and must be paid with your personal funds within 20 days of receipt of this notice, unless appeal or request for a hearing is made to the Florida Elections Commission, 107 W. Gaines Street, Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, FL 32399-1050. Please notify me in writing if you intend to bring the matter before the Commission. The Commission will uphold the fine imposed by the filing officer unless you present credible evidence that the report was timely filed or credible evidence that unusual circumstances caused the report to be filed late.

Please contact me at 893-7202 should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

I am the Campaign Treasurer for Mike Harting's Campaign for City Council-District 3. I made a huge mistake by not realizing the treasurer report for P4 was not submitted properly. I thought I submitted it and then moved on to submit my miscellaneous documents that go with that report. That made it through, but my actual report didn't. I am providing a screenshot of dates to hopefully show my intent was to process these reports in a timely manner as 1 of 2 did get submitted by the deadline.

We received notice this morning about the late report and I submitted the report again for correction. If you notice in past times, I've submitted within a few days of the ending period and have not waited until the last moment.

I hope that I have provided enough details to overturn the $1000 fee assessed to my account. I appreciate your time and assistance. Please contact me with any questions, comments, or concerns. I look forward to hearing from you.
