Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal of an intent to revoke a registration, of a Political Committee, Electioneering Communications Organization, or a Political Party, the Division of Elections has issued you a notice of intent, citing the reasons for which it intends to cancel your registration. By filing the appeal, you have asked the Commission to recommend that the Division's Notice of Intent be set aside. You are required to explain why you believe your registration should not be cancelled. Based upon the information you present, the Commission will issue a recommended order to the Division, in which it will either recommend that the Notice of Intent be set aside, or that the cancellation be upheld.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

AMOUNT OF FINE: $150.00

FINE BASED ON: (X) NUMBER OF DAYS (..) 25% OF RECEIPTS (..) 25% OF EXPENDITURES

TOTAL RECEIPTS FOR REPORTING PERIOD: $1,110.00

TOTAL EXPENDITURES FOR REPORTING PERIOD: $0

DATE OF FIRST NOTIFICATION: 06/24/2024 (Failure to File Ltr)

SUMMARY: Adriaan J. DeVilliers is a candidate for State Representative, District 71 in the 2024 elections. Mr. DeVilliers was his own treasurer.

Adriaan J. DeVilliers is appealing the fine, claiming the delay in reporting was caused by several factors. According to Mr. DeVilliers, the frequency of EFS filings, the short campaign filing window, campaign funding, and his inexperience with the process led to the late report. He notes that his subsequent EFS filings were on time. He requests a waiver of the fine due to his inexperience as a first-time candidate.

- The 2024 P1 Original Report covers the period from 06/01/24-06/14/24; it was due on 06/21/24.
- The 2024 P1 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 06/24/24.
- Adriaan J. DeVilliers reported receiving 4 contributions, while making zero expenditures.
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Adriaan J. DeVilliers's 2024 P1 report.

Re: Appeal for EFS Filing Fine Imposed

Refer: Letter from your office: CAN 85831 (attached)

Dear Mrs. Brown,

I received the notice from your office on July 16th to my campaign mailing address, noting a 20-day period to appeal from date of receipt of the letter. However, the letter is dated June 28, 2024. I am hoping that this appeal of mine is within your petition parameters.

The late fee pertains to my 2nd time using the EFS system, as I only entered the campaign mid-May 2024. As a complete rookie of the process, I filed all my paperwork in time as well as my 1st EFS filing for the period 5/8/2024 to 6/10/2024. The most pressing timeline for me at that time was to meet the narrow window of June 10 to June 14 to register my campaign at the FL Division of Elections. That process did not run smoothly as UPS lost my filing papers and I had to rush a 2nd set to Tallahassee which made it with one day to spare.

As you can imagine, all else was out-of-sight for me during that filing process, and I had a vague understanding that the financial reports were to be filed monthly. However, I learned that the filing periods were much more frequent and that I had missed the 2nd due date by a few days. You will notice from this 2nd report of mine, that the donation I was waiting for to cover my campaign filing fee, also barely made it on time.

So, to summarize, the EFS filing frequency, the narrow campaign filing window, funding for my campaign and my ignorance as a rookie in the process, all led me to be late. I would like to appeal as a beginner to have the assessed fine cancelled. My subsequent EFS filing demonstrates that I am now familiar with the filing due dates and, while still finding the EFS system a challenge, I am filing on time.

Sincerely,

Adriaan DeVilliers

Dear Mr. DeVilliers:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was June 21, 2024.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Donna S. Brown, Chief
