Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal of an intent to revoke a registration, of a Political Committee, Electioneering Communications Organization, or a Political Party, the Division of Elections has issued you a notice of intent, citing the reasons for which it intends to cancel your registration. By filing the appeal, you have asked the Commission to recommend that the Division's Notice of Intent be set aside. You are required to explain why you believe your registration should not be cancelled. Based upon the information you present, the Commission will issue a recommended order to the Division, in which it will either recommend that the Notice of Intent be set aside, or that the cancellation be upheld.

If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

NAME: RANDY WILKINSON

DATE APPEAL RECEIVED: 07/18/2024

DATE REPORT DUE: 06/10/2024 (2024 Q2)

DATE OF ELECTRONIC RECEIPT: 06/18/2024

NUMBER OF DAYS LATE: 8

AMOUNT OF FINE: $892.50

FINE BASED ON: (..) NUMBER OF DAYS (X) 25% OF RECEIPTS (..) 25% OF EXPENDITURES

TOTAL RECEIPTS FOR REPORTING PERIOD: $3,570.00

TOTAL EXPENDITURES FOR REPORTING PERIOD: $343.19

DATE OF FIRST NOTIFICATION: 06/17/2024 (Failure to File Ltr)

SUMMARY: Randy Wilkinson was a candidate for State Representative, District 49 in the 2024 elections. Mr. Wilkinson was his own treasurer.

Randy Wilkinson is appealing the fine, claiming there was a misunderstanding with the Division of Elections surrounding the due dates. According to Mr. Wilkinson, he switched his district from House 48 to House 49 a few days prior to the close of qualifying. He claims he discussed the deadline verbally with Division staff and was told the report was not due until the end of the month. He believes the staff member misunderstood his question and provided the information for the upcoming report instead of the one that was due. He requests a waiver of the fine due to the circumstances.

- The 2024 Q2 Original Report covers the period from 04/01/24-05/31/24; it was due on 06/10/24.
- The 2024 Q2 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 06/18/24. The report was also amended on 07/26/24.
- Randy Wilkinson reported receiving 7 contributions, while making 3 expenditures.
- The Division of Elections provided two notes that pertain to Randy Wilkinson's 2024 Q2 report. On 06/10/24 and 06/18/24, DOE staff members provided credentials to Mr. Wilkinson.

PRIOR CASES: None.

Dear Officials,

I would like to appeal a fine of $892.50 for a late campaign treasure's report filed June 18, 2024. It was due on June 10, 2024 but because of what I think was an honest misunderstanding I was told verbally by elections office staff that it wasn't due till the end of the month. In during that time when the office was handling a myriad of qualifying candidates. I'm sure my case was confusing because just two days before the end of qualifying I was also switching from House48 to the Florida House 49 seat where I live. During that time I asked the busy elections staff person I'd never talked to previously so may have been new, either that or temporary fill-in perhaps from another department. I'd asked for Mr. Howard but was told he'd just retired. Anyway, I think it was an honest misunderstanding on both of our parts. I asked staff when the next report was due the very day or day before that it was actually due but he probably had jumped to the conclusion that I was talking about the one after the current one, while I meant the current one. I would have looked it up myself but he sounded so sure even after I asked him to repeat that I didn't.

A difference in semantics perhaps but that's why I am appealing feeling I have grounds to do so but not blaming staff for honest misunderstanding on both our parts.

Thanks for your consideration.

Dear Mr. Wilkinson:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was June 10, 2024.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - ◆ $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - ◆ $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - ◆ If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Sincerely,

Donna S. Brown, Chief

RE: Call from Candidate
Mr. Wilkinson called for assistance on filing his 2024 Q1 in EFS as a Waiver of Report. He was able to figure it out and I confirmed that the report was filed as a waiver. Mr. Wilkinson then stated he was planning on changing his district and asked how to do so. I informed him that we would need a signed letter stating the office he intends to redesignate to along with a new DSDE 9 and, if he would prefer, a new DSDE 84 (since the form we received states his current office). -ELR
