Tim Vaccaro

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
May 30, 2025

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal of an intent to revoke a registration, of a Political Committee, Electioneering Communications Organization, or a Political Party, the Division of Elections has issued you a notice of intent, citing the reasons for which it intends to cancel your registration. By filing the appeal, you have asked the Commission to recommend that the Division's Notice of Intent be set aside. You are required to explain why you believe your registration should not be cancelled. Based upon the information you present, the Commission will issue a recommended order to the Division, in which it will either recommend that the Notice of Intent be set aside, or that the cancellation be upheld.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this letter as my appeal of the automatic fine levied by the Division of Elections for $100. for late filing of my P2 Treasurer's report due on July 5, 2024.

On June 24, 2024, Governor Ron DeSantis announced that July 5, 2024, would be added as a State Holiday for all Florida offices. With the 4th of July holiday falling on a Thursday, this created an enjoyable 4-day weekend opportunity for the legal community as well as State Employees. As such, our campaign did not file the above-mentioned report until Monday, July 8, 2024. I have attached the Governor's office news release re. the holiday proclamation. I waive my right to a hearing in Tallahassee and will abide by your decision.

I am requesting a waiver of the automatic in consideration of the circumstances described above.

Very Truly Yours,

Gregg S. Lerman
Candidate
